

A of Reps
June 17 1862

3.5
Chas Gallup Esq
Troy N.Y.

Sir:- In reply to your favor of the 15th I have to inform you that the speech you desire has not, as yet, been published entire.

The New York Tribune of the 13th contains about one half of the discourse and is the fullest report in print.

I have no copies of the paper on hand or I would enclose you one.
I presume, however, you can procure a sheet at any of your News Offices -

Should I conclude to publish the remarks in pamphlet form I will send you a copy when ready for delivery

Truly Yours
Wm Loring

82. LOVEJOY, (OWEN), Famous American abolitionist, etc. A VERY FINE AND RARE full
A.L.S. "O. LOVEJOY", I VERY FULL PAGE, 8VO., House of Reps. JUNE 17, 1862: REGARDING HIS FAMOUS ANTI-SLAVERY SPEECH IN THE U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:-

"...the speech...has not, as yet, been published entire. The New York Tribune of the 13th, contains ABOUT ONE HALF of the discourse and is the fullest report in print.....Should I conclude to publish the remarks in pamphlet form I will send you a copy when ready for delivery....." etc. etc.
Letters of Lovejoy are very scarce. AN UNUSUALLY FINE SPECIMEN.....$3.50