

At the Dir. Div<sup>n</sup> of the Ordnance Washington, Aug. 10.
Respectfully returned to the Head Quarters of the Army, Major Barnard's duties at these Head Quarters
have been so arranged
as to permit him
to continue to serve as a member of the mixed conference
summoned by the Navy Department,
and he has been instructed accordingly.

W. D. Miller
Maj. Genl.
Comd.

[Faint, mirrored handwriting on lined paper, likely bleed-through from the reverse side. The text is illegible due to fading and orientation.]

Head-Quarters, Army of the Potomac

Washington, September 25.

Sir;

In view of the confusion that must necessarily arise from the designation of the 2<sup>d</sup> and 3<sup>d</sup> Corps of the Army of Virginia, now

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

C. F. M. Keller

Major General Commanding.

Geo S M Tatham

[Cane War]

