[To John W. Starr, Jr.] J. F. Minor
[Summer 1915]

Dear Sir

I have yis
of 21st & note contents -

I was my brother, Dr.
Minor's lib. Ex. & have a few copies of The pamphlet let more or less "cut",
used by him in preparing 2nd ed<sup>n</sup>. When I get back to Staunton, I'll examine them - & if I can get one a complete & nearly complete copy from them
will send it -

Please accept some folders I send, with my compliments -

Sincerely yrs.

I hope to go back to S. 30
(D. V.) about Sept 1 =

I am glad you like to hear both sides.

Andi alteram partem
is a good maxim - however sure one is that he is right -

Dear Mr. Starr,

[John W. Starr, Jr.]

I have y'r of the 9th. Thank you for reminding me of my promise - I had forgotten; but you will pardon, I hope, an old "bet" in his 74th y'r for such lapse of memory.

I've looked over the "cut" copies of the pamphlet & find them so much cut that I cannot make a complete one of them; but I also find that I have still 2 uncut copies - I thought I had but one - One of these I send you, which please accept with my compliments - it stands a better chance of survival - in yr collection perhaps, than the one in my possession, for I have no firm abiding place in this changing world -

My old home, like most of the old country homes of the Old Dominion, has passed away - and my children have no
"homes", in the old sense of that sweet word, as it used to be in old Va.

With kind wishes

Yrs.

B. Minor
