

New-York

Tribune.

Joseph H. Barrett, Esq.,
Loveland, Ohio.

New York

Dec. 17,

189

Dec. 17, 1892

*5
sent to Mr. Barrett
published in Tribune
sent to Mr. Barrett*

Dear Sir:-

Your note of the 10th instant has come to my desk in the absence of Mr. Reid in Arizona.

I regret that it does not seem expedient to publish in The Tribune criticisms of the pictures of Lincoln published in Mc Clure's Magazine.

Returning you the article in question, I am,

Very respectfully,

D. Nicholson

D. Nicholson
(and note on Lincoln pictures in the Liberator)

Dec. 17, 1845.

[Handwritten flourish]

New-York Tribune.

Dec. 17,

[Handwritten signature]

Joseph H. Barrett, Esq.,
Covington, Ohio.

Dear Sir:

Your note of the 10th instant has come to my desk in the absence of Mr. Reid in Athens. I regret that it does not seem expedient to publish in The Tribune criticisms of the pictures of Lincoln published in the Clero's Magazine. Returning you the article in question, I am,

Very respectfully,

[Handwritten signature: D. Nicholson]