

John J. Perry

Oct 1, 1862.

Cincinnati, October, 1, 1862.

Dear Sir -

I need not say that I am very grateful for your kind response to my application I made it on impulse, and was a little fearful of course that you would think me presuming. You have placed myself and family under lasting obligations.

I am sure you will find my brother professionally qualified for the trust, and constitutionally well adapted for it also. He is cautious, methodical and conscientiously exact. I had not thought of Friend Amos, though it does not surprise me that a man always ready to dispose of the patrimony of others, should offer his services now.

If you will allow me to mention a personal matter, I may say that I am engaged to the Miss Chandler - daughter of Geo. B. - of whom you have often heard me speak, and, the rebels permitting, shall probably become a Vermontian by affinity before many months.

Trusting that I may have an opportunity of thanking you personally for your kindness, believe me your
Sincere & obliged servt

Wm J. H. Barrett,

John J. Perry

Perry

London, Oct. 1. 1852.
 My dear Sir,
 I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 27th inst. in relation to the proposed purchase of the land for the proposed extension of the railway. I have the honor to inform you that the same has been referred to the Committee of the Board of Directors, and they have the honor to inform you that they have decided to purchase the same for the purpose of the proposed extension of the railway. I have the honor to inform you that the same has been referred to the Committee of the Board of Directors, and they have the honor to inform you that they have decided to purchase the same for the purpose of the proposed extension of the railway.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
 Your obedient servant,
 J. H. Dimes.