My dear Sir:-

I beg leave to commend to your kind attention Mr. John M<sup>c</sup>Clune, who visits your City with Church's great picture the "Heart of the Andes." Apart from his business, as well as in it, you will find Mr. M. an intelligent, courteous and agreeable gentleman; I trust you will give him whatever aid he may desire or need.

Very truly
Yours,

J. H. Barrett Esq.

My dear Sir:
I beg leave to call your kind attention
to the fact that Mr. John W. Chase, who visits your city with "Chase's pictures the Heart of the Liberator" from his business,
as well as in his own name,
Mr. J. W. Chase, contains and expresses sentiments that you will find objectionable and in many ways.

Very truly,
Yours,
W. G. Raymond
