Albany December 5 1841.

My dear Bishop

I have read with unmingled satisfaction your reply to the address of the meeting at Washington Hall. It is unexceptionable in temper and conclusion in argument. Col. Webb who was with me when it appeared here in his paper regretted the smallness of the type by which his compositor had copied the article - I see that it finds its way into the other newspapers and this any other indication of the advance of the question are very consolatory. I quite confidently look for a reaction in the state as soon as the question can be presented in the aspect it has before me.

Very sincerely and respectfully

Your obedient servant

William H Sewall

The Right Reverend

Bishop Hughes,

New York.
