Albany, Feb. 10. 1842.

My dear Bishop.

You will have seen by previous letters, our having interviews with Mr Mackay and Mr Geely. I thank you for your comment of the 6th which shall be disposing of as you indicate. I write this acknowledgment to send to you and here only wish to ask you to keep me advised of your views and wishes concerning the matter in every stage of its legislative progress.

With sincere respect and cordial esteem

Your friend and obedient servant

William W. Seward.

The Right Honorable

Bishop Harper
