

LOUISVILLE HOTEL
REBUILT 1856. ENLARGED & REFURNISHED 1859

KEAN STEELE & JUDGE
Proprietors.

Cor Sixth & Main St.
LOUISVILLE KY.

Louisville 7th October 1864

I Thru I rec<sup>d</sup> your letter informing me of the sale in relation to the mill property I am considerably disabled by a fall from a horse but hope to be able to get there

I wrote to Mr Gresham to cooperate with you as my counsel and in procuring bidders for the property have rec<sup>d</sup> no answer from him he may not have rec<sup>d</sup> my letter as I was not able to recollect his precise address you will of course procure a bidder or bidders if you can well of course need your advice and counsel when I come there was a young Mr Kenton son of Lake Kentons engaged here some 12 months ago in the hat business who stated to me that he would bid the amount of the debt for the property don't see him here now don't know where he is perhaps you can inform him of the day of sale I trust you will give me all the assistance you can on this subject deeply interesting to me - yours truly

Stanley Young

Nov 11 1864

LOUISVILLE HOTEL
REBUILT 1858. ENLARGED & REFURNISHED 1859

Louisville, Ky

Oct. 22nd 67

My dear Sir,

I request a pardon for Edward Hall of the city, the family known to you, and he is trust-worthy in all matters.

I am Sir, most respectfully —

James Speed

Gov. Sec. of War

Would be obliged if a pardon could be done for Hall. A. Lincoln

Nov 4, 1864