Know all men by these presents, that we, Thomas Corry and Harry Miles, are held and bound unto the county of Kentuck, Commonwealth of Kentucky, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money of Kentucky, the payment of which was and is to be made to the said Governor and his successors, their heirs and assigns, jointly and severally jointly in case of our defaults in case of our impartial and true countersignatures.

This is to certify that the undersigned, Elizabeth Brock, being over twenty-one years of age, was under the hand and seal of Governor the 1st day of October, 1796.

To have and to hold, to the said Governor, and his successors by virtue of these presents.

The condition of the above obligation is this: that whereas there was a marriage recently entered into between the above bound Thomas Corry and Elizabeth Miles in which a license has been given us to have the said marriage, whereas the said marriage then the above obligation to be void and to remain in full force and effect.

Signed: [Signature]

[Seal]

[Signature] of the Governor

[Seal]
Know all men by these presents that we, Thomas Anger, being the true and lawful heirs and successors, and being the sole legal heirs of Thomas Anger, late of Kentucky, deceased, do hereby bind ourselves, our heirs, assigns, and personal representatives, to the use of my daughter Elizabeth Banks, to be paid to her, or her assigns, or to the order of such person as shall be entitled to receive the same, the sum of two hundred dollars, current money of Kentucky, the payment of which will be made to the said Elizabeth, and her successors, in his or her own or her joint name, and the said sum of two hundred dollars, being the purchase money for the said daughter Elizabeth Banks, which said sum of two hundred dollars, has been paid into our hands by my son-in-law, Thomas Anger, in full satisfaction of all claims and demands of us, the said heirs and successors, against the said Elizabeth Banks, for and on account of the said purchase money, and is paid and discharged to her, and is her clear and equitable property, and is hereby fully and completely satisfied and discharged, and none of us, the said heirs, doth hereby reserve to ourselves, any right, claim, demand, or interest in and to the said purchase money, or in and to the property of the said Elizabeth Banks, and do hereby covenant and agree, that we, and our heirs, successors, and assigns, will and shall in no manner whatsoever, assert any claim, demand, or interest in and to the said purchase money, or in and to the property of the said Elizabeth Banks, and we do hereby release and forever discharge her, her devisees, assigns, and personal representatives, from all claims, demands, and causes of action, which we or any of us, or our heirs, successors, or assigns, may have or ever had, against the said Elizabeth Banks, or her devisees, assigns, or personal representatives, for the said purchase money, or for the said property of the said Elizabeth Banks.

Signed in the presence of the said Elizabeth Banks, her husband and daughter, and in the presence of the said Thomas Anger, her father and son-in-law, this 10th day of October, 1796.

[Signatures]

The condition of the above obligation is such that whereas there is a marriage shortly intended to be solemnized between the above bound Thomas Anger and Elizabeth Banks, for which a license has been now, or here to be lawfully secured, by virtue of the said marriage, the said above obligation to be void at the common law force of law.

[Signatures]
Know all men by these presents that we, Thomas Governors and Henry Sires, are held and bound with his sureties, James Garrard Esq., Governor of Kentucky, in the sum of five hundred pounds current money of Kentucky, the payment of which will be made to the said Governor and his successors within three years and time, jointly and severally, if these presents shall not be voided or sealed with our seals and dated this 17th Day of October 1796.

The condition of the above obligation is such that whereas there was a marriage solemnly intended to be solemnized between the above bound Thomas Sires and Elizabeth Sinyk for which a license had been now and there is no lawful cause to obstruct the said marriage, then the above obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and effect.

Fathers of Charles Wing
Thomas Sires
Henry Sires
I do hereby certify that the within mentioned Elizabeth Banks is thirty-one years of age, born under my hand this 17th Day of October 1790.

Teste +

Charles WIng

his

Harry Mars

mark

Sherris & Co

to Lord Governor

5/3d
Know all men by these presents that We Thomas, Governor and also our heirs shall and are hereby bound unto His Excellency James Garrard Esq. Governor of Kentucky in the sum of Five hundred current money of Kentucky the payment of which will be and hereby to be made to the said Governor and his successors within six months from the date of these presents sealed with our seals and dated this 17th Day of October 1796.

The condition of the above obligation is that whereas there is a Marriage shortly intended to be solemnized between the above bound Thomas Fugus and Elizabeth Banks for which a License has been now or here to no lawful cause to obstruct the said marriage. Then the above Obligation to be Void or else to remain in full force and effect.

[Signatures]

Charles Wing

Thomas and his heirs

Martha Fugus

Mary Fugus
I do hereby certify that the William mentioned Elizabeth Banks is twenty one years of age Groom under my Hand this 7th day of October 1790

[Signature]

Charles King

[Mark]

Henry Stans

[Mark]