House of Reps,
May 17, 1854

Dear Sir,

I have been at the 10th inst. and will attend to the case, though you failed to reach the letter of the Commissioner, Shepherd, town of 1000, hundred miles from here. Just over 250 miles from here. I live in Virginia, the southern part of this rail line, Baltimore and Ohio. Just over 100 miles from the Baltimore and Ohio. I am becoming a good man. The rail & go there for you. He rail road fare would be about $3.00 and I would charge $3.00. But I have found out the name of a man this who would attend to your business. W. G. W. Hall.

If you think, however, it is more a man to come here, I will come me to go.

I shall be a candidate for a re-nomination, if my friends can make me worthy longer to be dear me worthy longer to be their irrespective friend. I hope for your long friendship. I hope to deserve it in future.

Truly yours,

R. H. Clarke
