

Navy Department

August 5th 1861.

Sir.

I am desirous of securing the continuation of the counsel and services of Major Barnard of the Engineers on the mixed conference summoned by this Department.

I have the honor to request, that you will be pleased to give orders to this effect.

I am, respectfully

Your Obedient Servant
Gideon Welles

Lieutenant General

Winfield Scott,

Commander in Chief, U. S. Army

Washington D. C.

Chief Department
August 5th 1861

Mr.

I am desirous of receiving the continuation of the annual and periodical of Major General of the Engineers in the united conference recommended by this Department.

I have the honor to request that you will be pleased to give orders to this effect.

I am respectfully
Yours obedient servant
William H. Miller

William H. Miller

Chief of Staff

Commander in Chief of the Army
Washington D.C.

6:00 PM
see 27 MAY
Wells