

Navy Department.

Washington, March 15, 1866.

Sir:

The Department has directed that on the first of May next, the Nautical Almanac establishment be removed to this city, and as the typographical portion of the work will then be executed at the Government Printing Office, the annual appropriation can be reduced $10,000 - the sum now annually paid for paper, electrotyping, printing, binding, &c.

Very respectfully,

Gideon Welles

Secy of the Navy.

Hon. G. W. Grimes,

Ch^r. Com. on Naval Affairs,

U. S. Senate.
