To all who shall see these presents greeting:

Know ye, That relying upon trust and confidence in the patriotism, valor, fidelity, and abilities of John H. Logan, I have nominated, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, do appoint him Captain in the Seventh Regiment of Infantry in the service of the United States; to rank as such from the first day of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine. He is therefore carefully and diligently to discharge the duty of Captain, and I do strictly charge and require all Officers and Soldiers under his command, to deliver to his orders as Captain, and he is to observe and follow such orders and directions from time to time, as he shall receive from me, or the future President of the United States, or the General, or other superior Officers set over him, according to the rules and discipline of War. This Commission to continue in force during the pleasure of the President of the United States for the time being.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, this first day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and the eightieth year of the Independence of the United States.

By the President,

Abraham Lincoln

Secretary of War.
To all who shall see these presents greeting:

Know ye, That resting upon trust and confidence in the patriotism, valor, fidelity, and abilities of

[Name]

I have nominated, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, do appoint him

[Designation]

in the service of the United States: to rank as such from the

[Date]

eighteen hundred and

[Year]

He is therefore carefully and diligently to discharge the duty of

[Designation]

by doing and performing all manner of things thereunto belonging.

And I do strictly charge and require all Officers and Soldiers under his command, to obey to his orders as [Name] issues them; and he is to observe and follow such orders, and directions from time to time, as he shall receive from me, or the future President of the United States, or the General, or other superior Officers set over him, according to the rules and discipline of

War. This Commission to continue in force during the pleasure of the President of the United States for the time being.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, this

[Date]

day of

[Month]

in the year

of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and

[Year]

and in the [Number]th year

of the Independence of the United States.

By the President,

[Signature]

Secretary of War,

[Signature]
The President of the United States of America,

To all who shall see these presents, greeting.

Know ye, That having special trust and confidence in the patriotism, valor, fidelity, and abilities of

[Signature]

I have nominated, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, do appoint him

[Title]

in the service of the United States: to rank as such from the first day of

[Date]

He is therefore carefully and diligently to discharge the duty of

[Title]

by doing and performing all manner of things therein belonging.

And do strictly charge, and require all Officers and Soldiers under his command, to be obedient to his orders as

[Title]

And he is to observe and follow such orders and directions from time to time, as he shall receive from me, or the future President of the United States of America, or the General, or other superior Officers set over him, according to the rules and discipline of War. This Commission to continue in force during the pleasure of the President of the United States for the time being.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, this twenty-sixth day of

[Month]

in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and

[Year]

and in the eighty-seventh year of the Independence of the United States.

By the President

[Signature]

Abraham Lincoln

Secretary of War

[Signature]
To all who shall see these presents greeting:

Know Ye, That having proper trust and confidence in the patriotism, valor, fidelity, and abilities of

Charles H. Judah,

I have nominated, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, do appoint him

Brevet in the First Branch, A, to be in the service of the United States: to rank as such from the...eighteen hundred and...day of...to be by doing one performing all manner of things thereunto belonging. And I do strictly charge and require all Officers and Soldiers under his command to be obedient to his orders as...and he is to observe and follow such orders and directions from time to time, as he shall receive from me, or the future President of the United States of America, or the General, or other superior Officers set over him, according to the rules and discipline of War. This Commission to continue in force during the pleasure of the President of the United States, for the time being.

Given under my hand at the City of Washington, this...day of...in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and...and in the thirty-third year of the Independence of the United States.

In the President,

A. Lincoln

Secretary of War.
To all who shall see these presents greeting:

Know ye, That relying upon the patriotism, valor, fidelity, and abilities of the person I have nominated, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, do appoint him Captain, United States Navy, in the service of the United States: to rank as such from the 20th day of November, eighteen hundred and sixty-one. He is therefore carefully and diligently to discharge the duty of his office, by doing and performing all manner of things therein belonging.

And I do strictly charge and require all Officers and Soldiers under his command, to obey him, and he is to observe and follow such orders, and directions from time to time, as he shall receive from me, or the future President of the United States of America, or the General, or other superior Officers set over him, according to the rules and discipline of War. This Commission to continue in force during the pleasure of the President of the United States for the time being.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, this twenty-sixth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and in the eighty-fourth year of the Independence of the United States.

By the President,

[Signature]
Sec. of War,

[Signature]

Abraham Lincoln
THE UNITED STATES VOLUNTEER SERVICE.

The President’s Thanks and Certificate of Honorable Service

Whereas the President of the United States has made the following Executive Order, returning Thanks to the Volunteers for one hundred days, from the States of Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, and Wisconsin, to wit:

Executive Mansion,
Washington City, October 7, 1864.

The term of one hundred days, for which volunteers from the States of Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, and Wisconsin volunteered under the call of their respective Governors, in the months of May and June, to aid in the recent Campaign of General Sherman, having expired, the President directs an official acknowledgment to be made of their Patriotic Service. It was their good fortune to render efficient service in the brilliant operations in the Southwest, and to contribute to the victories of the National Armies over the rebel forces in Georgia under command of Johnson and Hood. On all occasions, and in every service to which they were assigned, their duty as Patriotic Volunteers was performed with alacrity and courage, for which they are entitled to, and are hereby tendered, the National Thanks, through the Governors of their respective States.

The Secretary of War is directed to transmit a copy of this Order to the Governors of Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, and Wisconsin, and to cause a Certificate of their Honorable Service to be delivered to the Officers and Soldiers of the States above named, who recently served in the Military Force of the United States as Volunteers for one hundred days.

Abraham Lincoln.

Now, therefore, this Certificate of Thanks and of Honorable Service is conferred on

Eliseh C. Rankin
in token of his having honorably served as a Volunteer for one hundred days in 133rd Regiment of Ind. Vols. Infantry.

Given under my hand at the City of Washington, this 7th day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

Abraham Lincoln.
President of the United States.

By the President:

Edwin M. Stanton
Secretary of War.
EXECUTIVE MANSION,
Washington, D. C., Sept. 12th, 1863.

I, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President of the United States of America, and Commander-in-chief of the Army and Navy thereof, having taken into consideration the number of volunteers and militia furnished by and from the several States, including the State of Ohio, and the period of service of said volunteers and militia since the commencement of the present rebellion, in order to equalize the numbers among the Districts of the said States, and having considered and allowed for the number already furnished as aforesaid, and the time of their service aforesaid, do hereby assign Eight Hundred and Twenty as the first proportional part of the quota of troops to be furnished by the DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF Ohio under this, the first call made by me on the State of Ohio under the act approved March

3, 1863, entitled "An Act for Enrolling and Calling out the National Forces, and for other purposes," and in pursuance of the act aforesaid, I order that a draft be made in the said Second District of the State of Ohio for the number of men herein assigned to said District, and

FIFTY PER CENT. IN ADDITION.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this twelfth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and of the independence of the United States, the eighty

Abraham Lincoln