Beeston [Norfolk]

\(1642\)

Deed dated 13 September 18th charles 1st. relating to property in Beeston [Norfolk], being a settlement of pasture land by Samuel Newton to the use of his wife Margaret.

Margaret Newton had been married twice. Her first husband is given in this deed as "Thomas Lyndes, deceased," as he is described as having lived at Barnham Broome, Norfolk.

Four children are mentioned as by this first marriage: a son Isaac Lyndes, a three daughters Margaret Lyndes, Alice Lyndes, and Lydia Lyndes.

"Richard Lyndes" witnesses the deed verso.