BEGINS NEXT WEDNESDAY, 30th APRIL.
God save the King,

IS at all times the fervent prayer of every loyal Briton. It is presumed, therefore, that the attachment of all His Majesty's subjects will, if possible, be increased, from a consideration of the very important blessings that will be showered upon his people on the approaching anniversary of their Sovereign's birth; when

Sixty Capitals or £20,000,
&c. &c. &c.
will be distributed to

THE PUBLIC
by means of the
State Lottery,
which will all be drawn on the King's Birth-Day,
June 4th.

TIMES are hard, they say,
Gazette's with Bankrupts full, Sir,
The Patriot mourns the Day,
And pities Johnny Bull, Sir;
The Englishman complains
Bad debts his Ledger fill, Sir,
And all the Statesman's pains
Can't remedy the ill, Sir.

But search the Globe around,
The Traveller will tell us,
Examiners have found
Worse woes than have befell us;
And all this Hue and Cry,
A keen Observer 'll find, Sir,
Is spread by some deep Spy,
Who wants to raise the wind, Sir.

But Echo spreads the News
Next June of Fortune's Budget;
Dispatch, then, prythee use,
Express to BISH's trudge it;
For Fortune's Herald, BISH,
Your Oracle, advises,
If Opulence you wish,
Take Post, and buy his Prizes.

Review the Scheme, say I,
Of wealth it's Advertiser;
Your lucky Star then try,
And BISH's Tickets buy, Sir.

Tune.—"Boney wants a Baby."

HAVE you heard the news?
June the Lott'ry draws, Sir,
Fortune don't refuse,
Nor any longer pause, Sir:
Purchase while you may,
And while there's Tickets plenty,
Or else, perhaps, you'll say,
"I've lost the Thousands Twenty."
Tooral, tooral, &c.

Your fortune in a trice,
If you'd quickly make, Sir,
Follow my advice,
And risk a little stake, Sir:
EYTON is the man,
To gratify your wishes,
'Tis only he who can
Bestow the "loaves and fishes."

EYTON's luck's so great,
'Tis ev'ry day advancing,
Which were I to relate,
You'd think I was romancing.
His house in luck abounds,
In three years he has sold, Sir,
Three hundred thousand pounds
In prizes paid in gold, Sir.

Of Twenty-Thousands four,
The Scheme displays to view;
Of Thousands, Twenty-four,
Five Hundreds, Thirty-two.
Then buy of EYTON soon,
Before the Tickets rise,
Perhaps, on 4th of June,
You'll gain a noble Prize.

For surely such a Scheme
Ne'er was seen before,
It seems a golden dream,
Such wealth it has in store,
To our wishes to complete
To EYTON's haste away,
There Fortune you may meet,
And she'll your cares repay.
GOLDEN LOTTERY

Scheme contains THREE GRAND PRIZES OF £30,000.

FIVE Prizes of
1,000 GUINEAS EACH, TO BE PAID IN GOLD,
As soon as drawn.

Will begin Drawing 5th NEXT MONTH, (April.)

As Contractor for the present State Lottery, I feel great pleasure in introducing to the notice of my best Patrons, the Public, a Scheme, which the experience of Thirty Years enables me to recommend as the most advantageous ever submitted to their inspection. A brief sketch of its principal features will fully illustrate the truth of this assertion, and convince my Friends, that no endeavour on my part has been wanting to accommodate the wishes of all classes of Adventurers.

The present Lottery consists of Fifteen Thousand Tickets, with THREE PRIZES OF THIRTY THOUSAND POUNDS each; a circumstance completely unprecedented; as no former Lottery, even of Sixty Thousand Tickets, was ever known to contain more than Two Thirty Thousands: the chance of gaining so large a Capital is therefore, by the present arrangement, increased five-fold: in addition to which, every Ticket possesses the following exclusive advantage: The Fifth and Fifteenth drawn Blanks on the First Day, and the Seventh, Twentieth, and Thirtieth drawn Blank on the Second Day, will each receive One Thousand Guineas; and notwithstanding the present scarcity of Gold Currency, will be paid in Guineas, in full, without any deduction, as soon as drawn. All these advantages, it will be recollected, are exclusive of the usual routine of Prizes contained in former Schemes, of which the present embraces a full proportion; and under all these circumstances I have no hesitation in professing my full confidence of its being honoured with the unqualified approbation of the Public, to merit which has ever been my constant study.

My success in selling Capital Prizes is too well known to need a comment; as I have, for many Lotteries, sold a greater number of Capitals than any other Office-Keeper; and in the Lottery just finished, distributed amongst my Friends FIFTEEN; but I would wish particularly to notice, that of the very few Thirty Thousand Pound Prizes former Lotteries have contained, I have had the good Fortune to share and sell FOUR, including the Two last ever drawn! and it would be by no means an unwarrantable conclusion to infer, that a great proportion of those contained in the present Lottery will be also sold at my Offices.

I remain, with the highest respect,

The Public’s devoted Servant,

T. BISH,

Stock-Broker.

The Lottery leads us past the Reach of Want.

WHAT Parent but must feel his bosom pant,
To place his Offspring past the reach of want?
With what so likely can you realize
A sum sufficient, as a Lott'ry Prize?
The risk's a trifle, and the Wheel is rich;
Two THIRTY THOUSANDS are within your reach
One TWENTY, and One TEN, the Scheme adorn,
Three of FIVE THOUSAND yet remain undrawn;
While others, worthy of your strict attention,
Swell this brilliant list too long to mention!
A Golden Harvest now your hand invites;
Go reap the fruits, and revel in delights!

NEXT DAY'S DRAWING,
Great Chance! Small Risk!
A Whole Ticket for only 18 Shillings!—A Sixteenth for only Two Shillings!

IN THE LOTTERY TO BE DRAWN ON

VALENTINE's DAY,
On which Day, THREE of £2,000 will be drawn in the first Five Minutes!
WHICH THE PUBLIC ARE SURE TO GET FOR NOTHING!

J. & J. SIVEWRIGHT, Contractors, as a mark of gratitude for the very liberal patronage they have received, have resolved to present the Public with a new and advantageous Mode of Adventure, by which they can have the chance, with scarcely any risk, of all the Capitals which may be drawn on VALENTINE's DAY, (14th February); AND THE PUBLIC ARE SURE OF GETTING AT LEAST THREE Prizes of £2000 for Nothing

As the Holders of those Tickets will each have an Undrawn Ticket presented to them, (which at least will cost as much as their Purchase-Money), and by which they may afterwards get THREE of £21,000!

Every Purchaser of a Ticket or Share, if it should prove a Blank or a small Prize, or be Undrawn, may receive back for such Ticket or Share in the following proportion, provided it be returned on or before Friday, the 23rd of FEBRUARY:

For a TICKET which costs £23 18 0 he may receive back £23 0 0
For a HALF which costs 12 15 0 he may receive back 12 4 0
For a QUARTER which costs 6 9 0 he may receive back 6 2 0
For an EIGHTH which costs 3 5 6 he may receive back 3 1 6
For a SIXTEENTH which costs 1 13 0 he may receive back 1 11 0

Now as Three of £2,000 are sure to be drawn in the first Five Minutes on Valentine's Day, every Purchaser of a Whole Ticket before the 14th February, (supposing no other Capital to be drawn that Day,) has the certain Chance of £2,000 for 18s.—and even a Sixteenth may have the chance for all the Capitals for only Two Shillings. But should any of the SIX Prizes of £21,000 be drawn on that Day, his proportionate gain would be more than ten times the above Sums. On the other hand, should his Number be drawn a Blank or a small Prize, his loss is a mere nothing; or if it is undrawn, and the Wheel poor, he need not stand the chance of the succeeding Day's Drawing, but may receive back his Purchase-Money, (with the exception of the above trifling deductions,) provided, as above stated, he presents his Ticket or Share at the Office where it was purchased, on or before Friday, the 23rd FEBRUARY. The Scheme is immensely rich, and contains, besides a variety of other Capitals, in Money and Consols.

SIX of £21,000!
AND NOT TWO BLANKS TO A PRIZE!

Tickets and Shares are selling by Richardson,
Goodluck, & Co.
Cornhill and Charing-Cross.
State Lottery,
TO BE DRAWN IN ONE DAY, 20th OCTOBER, 1809.
ONLY 5,000 NUMBERS.

EXPLANATION.
This Lottery consists of only 5,000 Numbers (from 1 to 5,000 inclusive); but there are Four Tickets of each Number, which will be severally entitled to whatever Prize is drawn against such Number; for instance, if No. 1 should be drawn a Prize of £20,000, the Four Tickets of that Number will each be entitled to £5,000, making, in the whole, £80,000; so that if any person should purchase more than One Ticket of the same Number, and that Number prove fortunate, the Gain will be,

By Two Tickets of the same Number,
A Prize of - - - £40,000

By Three Tickets of the same Number,
A Prize of - - - £60,000

By Four Tickets of the same Number,
A Prize of - - - £80,000

And all other Prizes in the same Proportion.

We beg leave respectfully to lay before you the Scheme of the present State Lottery, which we trust will meet your approbation, as it affords a superior chance to adventurers, and prevents insurance, an evil hitherto attendant on Lotteries.—Tickets and Shares are on sale at our Offices,

No. 11, POULTRY;
No. 12, CHARIING CROSS, & No. 31, ALDGATE HIGH STREET.

We are your obedient Servants,
SWIFT & CO.
Contractors with Government for the present Lottery.

James Whiting, Printer, Finsbury Place, London.
Great Chance! Small Risk!
A Whole Ticket for only 18 Shillings.—A Sixteenth for only Two Shillings!
IN THE LOTTERY TO BE DRAWN ON
VALENTINE's DAY
On which Day, THREE of £2,000 will be drawn in the first Five Minutes!
WHICH THE PUBLIC ARE SURE TO GET FOR NOTHING!

J. & J. SIVEWRIGHT, Contractors, as a mark of gratitude for the very liberal patronage they have received, have resolved to present the Public with a new and advantageous mode of adventure, by which they can have the chance, with scarcely any risk, of all the Capitals which may be drawn on VALENTINE's DAY (14th February);
AND THE PUBLIC ARE SURE OF GETTING AT LEAST
THREE Prizes of £2000 for Nothing!
As the Holders of those Tickets will each have an Undrawn Ticket presented them, (which at least will cost as much as their Purchase-Money,) and by which they may afterwards get THREE of £21,700!
Every Purchaser of a Ticket or Share, if it should prove a Blank or a small Prize, or be undrawn, may receive back for such Ticket or Share in the following proportion, provided it be returned on or before Friday, the 23d of FEBRUARY:

For a TICKET which costs £23 18s. 0d. he may receive back £23 18s. 0d.
For a HALF which costs 12s. 15d. he may receive back 12s. 15d.
For a QUARTER which costs 6s. 9d. he may receive back 6s. 9d.
For an EIGHTH which costs 3s. 5s. 6d. he may receive back 3s. 5s. 6d.
For a SIXTEENTH which costs 1s. 13s. 0d. he may receive back 1s. 13s. 0d.

Now as Three of £2,000 are sure to be drawn in the first Five Minutes on Valentine's Day, every Purchaser of a Whole Ticket before the 14th February, (supposing no other Capital to be drawn that Day) has the certain chance of £2,000 for 18s.—and even a Sixteenth may have the chance for all the Capitals for only Two Shillings! But should any of the SIX Prizes of £21,000 be drawn that Day, his proportionate gains would be more than ten times the above Sums. On the other hand, should his Number be drawn a Blank or a small Prize, his loss is a mere nothing; or if it is undrawn, and the Wheel poor, he need not stand the chance of the succeeding Day's Drawing, but may receive back his Purchase-Money, (with the exception of the above trifling deductions,) provided, as before stated, he present his Ticket or Share at the Office where it was purchased on or before Friday, the 23d of FEBRUARY. The Wheel is immensely rich, and contains, besides a variety of other Capitals, in Money & Consols.

SIX of £21,000!
AND NOT TWO BLANKS TO A PRIZE!
TICKETS AND SHARES ARE NOW ON SALE BY J. & J.
SIVEWRIGHT, SOLE CONTRACTORS,
37, CORNHILL; 11, HOLBORN; and 38, HAYMARKET, LONDON;
AND BY THEIR AGENTS IN THE COUNTRY,
Who sold, in the last Contract, in one Lottery, ALL the £20,000 Prizes!
