Dear Mrs. Hudson,

My name is John Doe, and I am a student at the University of California, Berkeley. I am writing to express my strong interest in your course on Art History and Medieval Studies. I believe that your course would be an excellent opportunity for me to further my education and personal growth.

I am currently pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Art History and have a strong passion for the study of medieval art and culture. I have already taken several courses in this field and have found the subject matter to be both challenging and fascinating. I am particularly interested in the study of illuminated manuscripts and the role they played in the transmission of knowledge during the Middle Ages.

I am confident that your course would provide me with the opportunity to delve deeper into this topic and to explore new perspectives on the history and art of the medieval period. I am eager to work with a faculty member who is knowledgeable and passionate about this subject, and I believe that your expertise and enthusiasm would make you an ideal instructor for this course.

I am enclosing my transcript and a brief statement of my academic and personal background. I hope that this information will provide you with a better understanding of my qualifications and interests. I look forward to the possibility of studying under your guidance and contributing to the intellectual community of the University of California, Berkeley.

Thank you for considering my application. I am excited about the prospect of attending your course and I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

John Doe

Colonel,

I have just come from the post-office where I went to claim your letter of the 4th August last. This letter has not reached me, I have not received it. Fortunately you have sent me the duplicate of it. You might have thought Colonel, that I am not careless enough to neglect answering immediately a letter not important as yours. It has not to have answered was not to have received the letter. And that is just what happened. How is it? This is the first time one of your letters (miscarry) I acknowledge the receipt of the Bank Note No. 9 of 216) and of one half of No. 23543.

I am going to attend seriously to tell you mention of your two letters and I will be as zealous as possible in answering you.

Colonel— I have not yet received the pretty spoonlet case that you were amiable enough to offer me during my stay in London and that Miss was so kind as to choose for me. As I would value such a pretty souvenir which will keep me constantly in mind of all the kindness Miss and you, Colonel, have had for me, I am afraid it must be mislaid and I am very anxious. I would be very much obliged if you could let me know by a few lines if it is only a delay or neglect for Mr. Bather's part. As I have a few things to order from him, I beg of you, colonel, to be so good as to send me his correct address.

To The Justice of Peace—

Culd you oblige me by giving me some information necessary to me.

My son, Mr. John O. G. M. died at Monte Carlo, Villa Bioué, the 21st Sept. 1883.

I have just been informed by a certain Mr. Hattier, who took care of my son for many years, that my son left several debts behind him; the landlord of the house to whom a relative considerable sum of money is due, and several other trifling debts.

I am very much astonished, for as soon as I heard of my son’s death by a telegrant from Mr. J. C. Pat Dieppe, I immediately sent a sum of 1200 sh. to Mr. J. C. telling him that if more was wanted he could apply to my banker.

The Colonel, I fear, declines offering me the attempt he once made to his agents, because I will be a better judge of his designs, and would be more likely to thwart them.

I am afraid he had this scheme in his head the other day, and as he knows I am his father's executor, I shall have to do something about it.

Although I am not in a position to help him, I have a strong presentiment that God will preserve him in the end.

A letter written for the purpose of which he was imprisoned at the time of his death, accompanying it.

I must say that matters, though they appear to be in a bad way, are not quite so black as they may appear.
