let any Bill be presented to the Geo. C. Of the judges of the supreme Court. If either object to the constituency of a law, let 2/3 of each branch be in fav't overrule. If both, let 3/4 be eq'y. The judges not being at liberty to object in any other act but the Geo. C. being at liberty to object on any act that may arise from it. Whatever it may be an improvement to authorize the judges when the Court convenes in the constitutionality to assist that bill performed till another session, it then to be passed by 3/4 of each branch.
