March 29th, 1895.

Dr. Wm. R. Harper,
President Chicago University,
Chicago, Ills.

Dear Sir:—

Dr. Burnham has sent me a copy of his letter to you of March 15th, together with your reply dated March 23rd.

In a recent conversation with Dr. Burnham, I understood him to say that, in case Colgate University would consent to some kind of affiliation with Chicago University, Dr. Hulbert would accept the presidency of Colgate University, if it were offered to him. If that is the case, I would be very glad, indeed, to meet you in Chicago, or elsewhere, to find out just what is meant by affiliation. It is my impression that I could tell very quickly whether the conditions embraced by the term of "affiliation" are such as would probably be acceptable to the trustees of Colgate University. Personally, it seems to me very probable that some arrangement could be entered into which would be of mutual advantage to both institutions.

The important question for our institution at present, however, is the presidency; and if Dr. Hulbert could be secured for Colgate University by some agreement of affiliation, I would take pleasure in going to Chicago as soon as possible, to confer with you concerning it. Otherwise, it hardly seems worth while for me to put myself to inconvenience of a trip to Chicago at the present time, as there are many matters requiring my attention here. If on receipt of this letter it
Dear Sir:

I am writing to notify you of my decision to resign from the University of Chicago. I have been in the position since my appointment last year, but recently, I have come to the conclusion that my personal career goals do not align with the University's priorities. After much consideration, I have decided to leave and pursue opportunities elsewhere.

I understand the importance of maintaining a smooth transition for the department. Therefore, I am committed to ensuring that the transition process is handled with the utmost care and professionalism. I will do my best to assist in making the transition as seamless as possible.

Please let me know if there is anything specific you would like me to focus on during this time. I am available for consultation and can assist with the necessary paperwork.

Thank you for your understanding and support during this challenging time.

Sincerely,
