Dear President Judson,

I fear my report on Dr. Metcalf's estate was too optimistic; there was not as much property as reported, and other bequests were larger.

Yours truly,

Miss Beth Hostetter teaches Latin the coming year in place of Miss Hobson.

The advance registration was so large August 17th, that the Dean wired for furniture for all College Hall rooms not yet furnished.

All teachers and pupils rooms in College Hall, and corridors, have been tinted. A new piano has been purchased for the room vacated by Mr. Shearer, who has gone to Indiana. Furniture for dining room and parlor, College Hall, is expected September 1st. All mattresses are being cleaned by vacuum, electric cleaner.

The milk 1910-11, is to be from tuberculin tested cows.

Only one new house pupil in the grades has been accepted. A fair proportion of the new girls are graduates of high schools.

My estimate today of new and old house girls who have definitely engaged rooms for September 7th, is eighty-four. (We opened with sixty-eight last year). In the three weeks, including opening week last year, sixteen new girls registered. If as many come in the same time this year, we shall open with one hundred, which is our total capacity.

FRANCES SHIMER SCHOOL NOTES, JULY 20, 1910.

The Faculty for the coming year, in addition to Dean Wm. F. McKee, History and Economics, is as follows: Elsie Garland Hobson, A. M., Boston University, Latin, on leave of absence; Florence Turney McKee, Ph. B., Chicago, Psychology and Biblical Literature; Elsie Morrison, S. B., Chicago, Science and Mathematics; Margaret Johnson, Syracuse University, French and German; Elizabeth Cunnor, Ph. B., Chicago, English; Bertha Ruth Bowman, Associate Lewis Institute, Domestic Science; Elizabeth Barnes, Emerson School of Oratory, Boston, Elocution and Physical Culture; Delama E. Bailey, Stenography and Normal; Mary R. Payne, Associate University of Chicago, Mathematics and History; Martha Green, Class '10 Junior College Frances Shimer School, Algebra and Introductory; Wm. J. Peacock, D. B., Chicago, Sociology; Dora G. Knight, Principal in Piano; Edna A. Howard, Voice; Grace Dunn, A. B. Vasser, Violin and Asst. in Piano; Grace M. Bawden, Art; Jeanne L. Boyd, Asst. in Piano; Emil Liebling, Chicago, Visiting Director in Piano. The instructor in Latin for 1910-11, during Miss Hobson's absence, will probably be a graduate of the University of Chicago or of an eastern college.

Among the new house pupils for September, 1910, are these: Mary Emily Merritt, Duluth, Minn., college; Miss Leach, Minneapolis, Minn; Mabel Percival and Miss Threshie, Dunlap, Ill.; Bernice Ayers, Leaf River, Ill.; Helen Crane, Kansas City, Mo.; Edna Davis, Davenport, Iowa, college; Drusie Elliott, Vinton, Iowa; Arlene Hauser, Fort Atkinson, Wis.; L. Irene Grant, Drakeville, Iowa; Irene L. Johnson, Kansas City, Mo.; Laura Lovald, Davenport, I. D.; Charlotte Stiefel, Angola, Indiana; Gladys Wald, Fort Atkinson, Wis.; Marie V. Barlin, Chicago, college.

Here is a quotation from a letter of a former graduate now residing in a city over four hundred miles from Mt. Carroll:

"They have been considering the question for several months—have had catalogues from scores of schools all over the country, and you may be glad to know that they think the F. S. S. put out the most satisfactory, complete, and artistic catalogue of any of the schools. They were attracted first by the catalogue, then the nearness of the school was in its favor, and the several calls they made here to ask me all sorts of questions seemed to tell in the right direction."

It is to be noted first, that the attention of this new girl was originally called to the School by a Chicago advertiser; second, that the catalogue had its influence; third, the good word of an old student brought decision; fourth, this girl passed at least four excellent schools for girls on her way to Mt. Carroll; and chose this one because in her opinion it is the best, as they are people of means. She expects to enter an eastern woman's college later. This instance brings out clearly the number of different influences which contribute to the success of Frances Shimer School.

The Tardy Afternoon Notes, Vol. 1, No. 2.

The faculty of the college have agreed to publish these notes to keep the students informed with the latest events and developments on campus. The notes will cover a wide range of topics, from academic updates to social events. The notes aim to provide a snapshot of life on campus, from the perspective of the students.

The notes will be published weekly, and will be available at the campus newspaper stand. The first issue will be published on Monday, and will be distributed throughout the week. The notes will be available online at the college website, and will be updated regularly.

The notes will be written by students, and will be edited by the faculty. The notes will be anonymous, and will be reviewed for accuracy and relevance. The notes will be peer-reviewed, and will be edited for grammar and style.

The notes will be published under the auspices of the college newspaper, and will be distributed by the college newspaper. The notes will be available in print and online, and will be updated regularly. The notes will be reviewed for accuracy and relevance, and will be edited for grammar and style.

Dear President Judson:-

I inclose herewith a sheet giving some figures concerning our opening and which are a source of great gratification to us all. Our problem now is what to do next.

Assuming that we shall go through the year with reasonable success, we cannot grow more without another dormitory for girls. This dormitory would necessitate an increased dining room, kitchen, and boiler capacity in the steam plant, and space for recitations, probably.

Cordially yours,

[Signature]

The buildings are properly equipped, having study tables for eight rooms in College Hall, opposite places in College Hall, places in College Hall, fully except as stated.

We have enrolled 36 girls, 18 of which are graduates of the equivalent of high schools and are doing excellently well. 17 of them have passed, 9 day pupils. In addition 2 graduates of high schools are doing well in music, asking a total of 40.

On the basis of present attendance, I estimate the income from pupils for the year at $35,000 (figures are verified today over $27,000) as opposed to $27,000 received last year. The budget calls for expenditures based on receipts from pupils of $35,000. Allowing for unusual expenses, a good surplus is indicated by present attendance and income.

Cordially yours,

[Signature]

To the Trustees:

We have in the buildings today 94 girls with two more promised, against 68 last year September 13th; day pupils 37, total 133.

The family living in the buildings consists of 118 people for whom meals are provided, as follows: pupils 94, Dean and family and teachers and nurse 17, help 7, total 118, with more help coming and more girls expected. The total family a year ago 94.

The large attendance is producing overcrowding in some quarters. There are 25 pupils in domestic science, 31 in first year history, 28 in first year English. There is decided increase in piano and vocal music and elocution. We are making provision for the sewing in West Hall, ground floor, giving all the space in Dearborn to cooking.

We are putting in steam dish washer, potato peeler and masher. Markets are poor, food high, manual labor girls smaller than usual in number.

The buildings are properly furnished excepting study tables for eight rooms in College Hall and some pieces in College Hall parlor. Rush orders furnished College Hall fully except as stated.

We have enrolled 24 girls who are graduates (or the equivalent) of high schools and are doing scholastic work, 17 of them house pupils, 7 day pupils. In addition 5 graduates of high schools are doing work in music, making a total of 29.

On the basis of present attendance, I estimate the income from pupils for the year at $35,000 (figures not verified today show $37,100) as opposed to $26,200 received last year. The budget calls for expenditures based on receipts from pupils of $25,000. Allowing for unusual expenditures, a good surplus is indicated by present attendance and income.

Cordially yours,

Wm. P. McKee.

Dear Mr. McKee:-

Yours of the 13th inst. with enclosure received.

I am gratified to see the progress of the School, and am interested in the prospect of the new building required. The prospect of a surplus of receipts is very encouraging.

Dear President Judson:

I am writing to Professor Jordan today and thank you for this help.

I am very much assisted by your additional letter on constitutional matters. The two illustrations you give throw a great deal of light on the subject to me. I think that the first illustration is one of the sort that I have had in mind. The second one, I had never paid any attention to, and it seems to me easy to agree with you that on such a subject as the family relation, the constitution ought to be amended if anything is to be done. Your remarks concerning our great editor and worthy ex-president are very interesting, not to say amusing.

I am sending out official notices today for a trustee meeting next Tuesday evening at 5:30. We are going to tackle the question of increasing the rates and of starting in on a scheme of enlargement, though we shall do nothing radical at first. I have talked with you with regard to these things.

Cordially yours,
Dear President Jackson,

I am writing to request your help.

I am very much interested in your application for a granting of the Constitution. The Constitution you give of the great goal of light on the subject to me. I thank you for the impression it has made on me.

H. S. Metcalf,
President Board of Trustees.

Dear Dr. Metcalf:—

I wish this year to say to the Board of Trustees that I shall ask that the next budget include an increase in my salary of not less than $400.00 a year. It seems to me that the institution has now reached a financial situation in which it is proper for me to ask that the salary be made more nearly equal to my actual outlay year by year for living expenses.

I am sending a copy of this letter to other trustees in order that they may have ample time to consider the matter, and be ready to take such action as they may deem wise when next year's budget is up for action.

Yours truly,

W. P. McKee.

[Handwritten note to President Jackson:]

Salute, or I desire to talk with you on this matter. Cordially.
January 16, 1911

Dear Mr. McKee:-

I have the note of the 13th inst. and hope there will be no difficulty whatever in arranging the budget as you indicate. It certainly is a very proper thing to do.

Dear President Judson:-

We have made it a rule to pursue consistently the policy of assigning four classes to a teacher five days a week. I am a little puzzled to know just what I ought to do when the classes are very small. For example, out of one hundred and fifty-five students registered, less than twenty are studying Latin, and they are in five different classes: one with two persons and one with three; none with more than six. A similar, but not quite the same, situation prevails in some other departments. One of these classes in Latin is a college freshman class. We have a teacher now and then who is very competent, who would much prefer an extra hundred dollars, when these classes are very small, and accept five classes, one of them meeting, perhaps, four times a week instead of five. If you think I am making a mistake in allowing occasionally a teacher to do that, I would be glad to have your statement.

Yours truly,

Dear President Jackson,

We have made it a rule to pursue every opportunity for expanding our influence to a greater extent. The journal of a week in a little city in the North West I suppose to open the season of the new year. For example:

A meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Frances Shimer School is called herewith at the Dean's office, Metcalf Hall, Mt. Carroll, Illinois, for Wednesday evening, the 22nd of March, 1911, to take final action on the question of moving the steam plant and rebuilding it, and to consider such other matters as may come before the meeting.

By order of the President,

Wm. P. McKee, Secretary.

P.S. It appears that income will exceed ordinary only our $500 this year. Budget for next year will show an even better prospect.

Dear President Judson:—

The remark you make with regard to the word "baccalaureate" brings up several questions. Schools generally, including public high schools, have baccalaureate sermons, so-called. I have attended "baccalaureate" addresses as long as I can remember without ever thinking of them as implying a degree. We are evidently wrong, and ignorantly so, but I confess I hardly know what to call the sermon which I have been giving these years under that title.

I am gratified with your comments on other features of the catalogue.

Yours truly,

W.H. Pen

Miss I presume I may be difficult for you to believe that never before your title did I in my own mind connect "baccalaureate" with Bachelor's as the degree, but I am a fact.
Chicago, April 17, 1911

Dear Mr. McKee:

Yours of the 15th inst. received. I notice your comments relating to the use of the term "baccalaureate". Of course it is inappropriate applied in this connection, without the giving of the bachelor's degree. We don't use the word ourselves as applied to the sermon on the Sunday preceding Convocation. We call that the "Convocation Sunday" and the "Convocation Sermon". I am wondering if a similar device would not be possible in an institution such as yours, in which the bachelor's degree is not given, and at the same time be entirely accurate and also quite as dignified.

With best wishes, I am,

Very truly yours,

A. P. J.

President Harry Pratt Judson,

University of Chicago.

Dear President Judson:-

I had asked Judge Pinckney, whose wife is a graduate of this institution in Seminary days, to give the Commencement address. His health is such that he feels it necessary to decline. I have recently been told that Bishop Vincent lives in Chicago now. I knew him long ago when in Chautauqua, and he was at our house in Minneapolis. I have not come into touch with him for fifteen years. Possibly you could tell me whether it would, for any reason, be inadvisable or inexpedient to ask him to make this address on June 7th in the evening? Possibly the financial difficulty would make it unwise. We have never felt that we could pay more than fifteen dollars for this service, which, of course, is not payment for the service, but is payment of expense and a little more; but we always feel that the speaker has not been paid. Perhaps we ought to increase this stipend. Any comments on any of these points from you as one of our trustees will be greatly appreciated.

Yours truly,
Chicago, April 18, 1911

Dear Mr. McKee:

Yours of the 17th inst. received. I shouldn't advise asking Bishop Vincent. I don't think his health is very good, and of course the honorarium would be entirely out of the question in such a case. I should think you might find it difficult to get very large men if you pay only the expenses of the trip.

Very truly yours,

President Harry Pratt Judson,

University of Chicago.

Dear President Judson:-

At the beginning we called our commencement exercises convocation exercises, and the sermon the convocation sermon, but I could never quite understand why it should be done and it seemed as though we were simply trying to copy the University, and only the University, so far as I know, uses those terms, and feeling that we made ourselves a little odd by so doing and possibly seemed to be assuming some things which we ought not to, we gave it up. It may be that it would be better for us to go back to that custom. I certainly thank you for calling my attention to the matter. I am puzzled to notice, however, that for some reason or other, not clear to me at all, the custom of having a so-called "baccalaureate" address for secondary schools is widely prevalent East and West. Miss Knight from Hopedale, Mass., for example, called my attention to the fact that the Unitarian minister approved it for the high school in their town, and they do the same thing in Williamsport, Pa., in the Academy, and at Wheaton Seminary in Norton, Mass., as well as in the Stevan School, Chicago, and Pillsbury Academy. However, we ought to lead the procession, not follow.

Cordially yours,
Dear Mr. McKee:

Yours of the 18th inst. received. Why not call the sermon the "Commencement Sermon"? You are quite right about the prevalence of the other practice. There is no reason also why the School should not set the standard of accuracy in these matters.

Abstract of Financial Report

1. The receipts from School Bills have increased over last year 11700.00
2. The net debt of the School has been diminished in the year counting the cottage as an asset: or, including the payment, $3000 for that, the net debt has still been reduced $2530.83.
3. The attendance has increased from 127 to 158.
4. The Budget for next year provides for current expenses and for improvements in cottage and new steam plant costing $8500, and leaves a balance of over $2000 for the still further reduction of the debt.
5. The Budget is based on receipts from School Bills of $40,000 for next year. In the opinion of the Dean this amount could be increased to $50,000, if we had room for the pupils. This year we received 72 new house pupils. For next year, we do not have room for more than forty. This seems to indicate a shortage of space for over 30 pupils, even though no more new ones apply this year than last.
6. Later: Since the report was made out, the trustees of the Frances Shimer estate have assured the Dean that the payment from them this year will be $550.00 more than anticipated, and they expect that it will not be less than that for the next year. This would diminish the net debt, as stated above, in the sum of $1900.00.

Dear President Judson:—

This is a line of greeting on your return. We have read the stories of the disasters to the Olympic and of the safety of the passengers.

You will be interested to know that we are considerably ahead of last year in attendance and income, taxing the capacity of our buildings—102 girls actually in the house today.

You will also be pleased to know that the different departments at the University are giving provisional advanced standing to some of our junior college graduates in psychology, geology, physiography, trigonometry, French, German, English, American History, History of Art. The quantity in each case is not large, but we hope that our work may so increase that the number of courses may be increased and the quality improved.

I shall hope to see you after the pressure of the first return is over, and ask some questions which are puzzling me very much indeed.

$8415.07

The outlook for the year financially on the basis of present attendance is that the income from School bills will exceed the budget estimate by $5000 ($45,000 instead of $40,000) and that the gain on the year’s business will be $5000 instead of $2192, as estimated. This means that if we hold the pupils we have, we shall expect to pay all current bills for the year, including cost of Power Plant ($8, 416.07) and in addition have left over to apply on indebtedness approximately $5000.00.

The school bills promise an increase of $7500.00 over last year, $45,000 instead of $37,000. Of this amount nearly $22,000 has been collected already.

Yours truly,

Wm. P. McKee, Dean.

Dear President Judson:-

You asked me what the income was from College Hall. I append herewith full statement as it is at the present time.

College Hall

Cost, furnished in 1908 approximately $20,000.00.

Income:

School bills—36 pupils—full capacity $15,796.00

Outgo

Interest on $20,000.00 cost $1000.00
Depreciation, 25 year basis, 800.00
Repairs 400.00
Food, 36 girls, 3 teachers, 2100.00
Two teachers’ salaries 1800.00
Care 150.00
Heat 200.00
Light 150.00
Insurance($15,000) 150.00
Kitchen labor chargeable to extra work done 400.00
Laundry 400.00
Administration 450.00

Net profit $7,796.00

Being 38 per cent. on the cost.
The addition of another dormitory would involve greater additional expense for administration and instruction, and the income would not be as large at first, as it would require certainly two years, possibly several more, to fill the dormitory. College Hall was full at the beginning of the second year.

You may think of items of expense which ought to be charged into outgo which I have failed to put in.

Yours truly,

The object of the present proposal would probably be achieved through the establishment of new institutions, and the income would not be at issue at first, as it would reduce cost.

Finally, two more seriously dangerous sources of little interference.

College Hall was left at the beginning of the second year.

You may think of these as additional ways of being to be accounted for, but I have failure to part in

Dear President Judson:-

Complying with your request, I saw Mr. Payne and was not successful in getting the matter of the standing of our college work at the University thoroughly cleared up. It appears that the statement on page 114 in the Annual Register of 1910, and corresponding pages of the preceding year's, as follows: "6. Students from affiliated schools may receive college credit without further examination," it appears, I say, that this statement has been omitted from the 1911 edition of the Register.

The statement in the 1911 Register on the same topic does not mention affiliated schools at all, and seems to suggest that such advanced standing is to be secured without examination only when the same subjects are pursued successfully in the University. Anything you could do to get the matter straightened out in our favor early would be very much appreciated.

Of the total number of graduates of our junior college department, six in all, five are pursuing college work as follows:

University of Chicago, Miss Martha Green and Miss Zella Corbett.
University of Nebraska, Miss Eva Roberts.
University of California, Miss Lillian Whitmore.
Iowa State Normal, Cedar Falls, Iowa, Miss Erle Shatwell.

In every instance, including the University of Chicago, these pupils have been allowed provisional advanced standing for two
Your letter regarding the matter of the stand on 10th and the registration process at the university has been received. I regret to inform you that the matter has been referred to the registrar of the university for handling.

full college years, and, so far as I know, nothing has been said about examinations at any of these places. Nevertheless, it was not clear in Mr. Payne's mind when I saw him that he could properly state to outside inquirers that advanced standing had been given at the University of Chicago without examination.

Thanking you in advance for anything you may do to help us out in this matter, I am,

Cordially yours,
Chicago, November 20, 1911

Dear Mr. McKee:—

Your two favors of the 18th inst. at hand. I am interested in your statement as to the income from College Hall. Nothing else occurs to me as proper to add.

After you were here I saw Mr. Payne, and I have settled the matter with regard to credit. My understanding is that the Frances Shimer School, so far as that is concerned, is on the same basis as the Lewis Institute and the Bradley Institute.

With best wishes, I am,

Very truly yours,

Dear President Judson:-

The number of house pupils, practically all of whom use the St. Paul road, is 103; teachers living out of town, 14. The number of house pupils has doubled since 1907. With the plans for enlargement and enticing railway facilities, it is possible that it may double again in another five years.

The passenger traffic originated by the School is much larger than indicated by the number of residents. Parents, guardians, kinsfolk, friends visit pupils and teachers. We encourage this as an advertising feature.

Our rates are such as to attract desirable patrons who appreciate first-class service by the School and on the railway. We have spent a hundred thousand dollars in recent years in equipment and buildings, and are planning for still further expense.

In the quality of its work and of its equipment, the School compares very favorably with that of any other School of the character in the West.

Some defects of the train service, from the point of view of the School, at present are as follows:-

Only two trains a day East (have had three for years until now). Of the two trains we now have, one leaves at a quarter to six and the other at 6:33 in the morning, making it impossible to go to Chicago for nearly twenty-three hours at a stretch.

Dear President James:

The number of home purchases, particularly of new homes, has been very high. The forecast for 1977 seems to indicate that this trend will continue.

With the increasing demand for home ownership and suburban living facilities, new developments are springing up everywhere in the country.

The demand for home ownership is growing at an alarming rate,

No evening train with sleeping car service West now stops at Mt. Carroll, the only train being at 1:45 in the morning and this not carrying the service most needed by our pupils.

We believe that the character of the railway service, both in the number of trains and in the kind of trains which stop here, has a great deal to do with the prosperity and future growth of the School. Unless certain changes can be made, we believe that our plans for next year will be interfered with by lack of railway facilities, as patrons do not wish to send their daughters to a town in which they must stay, for example, twenty-four hours in order to see their daughters.

Specific requests:

1. That No. 18 East at a quarter to 6 in the evening stop every day in the week, as it now does on Sunday only, to take on passengers for Rockford, Davis Junction, Elgin, and Chicago, as well as to let off passengers from Marion and beyond.

2. That No. 11 stop at Mt. Carroll regularly to take on sleeping car passengers for Marion and beyond and Dubuque and beyond, and to let off passengers from Chicago.

3. That No. 22 be advanced in time, leaving Mt. Carroll in the middle of the forenoon instead of very early in the morning, 6:33, as now.

From the point of view of the School, requests one and two are the most important.

I inclose the latest time table which, however, does not show No. 18 stopping on Sundays as it actually does stop.

I hope that you may see your way to put up a very strong

I hope that you can see your way to put in a very strong request to President Earling who, I firmly believe, does not understand the character of work we are trying to do, or the importance of the railway service.

The Company is generous in giving special privileges, stopping individual trains for passengers. This, however, does not meet the situation. The thing we need is to have these stops on the time card so that prospective patrons studying the time card will be favorably impressed in advance with the railway facilities.

Yours truly,

Ladies & Gentlemen,

I trust you will observe the utmost importance of the letter service.

The Company is engaged in giving special privileges.

Not until the appointment of the Board of Directors. The Board, however, does not want the appointment of some or none of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors now to some extent.

The Board of Directors will also entertain the necessary to change with the letter from.

Dear Mr. McKee:

Your favor of the 20th inst. received, and I have written to Mr. Earling in the line of your requests. I did not embody your third request, that #22 be advanced in time, because that plainly would involve such changes in the time schedule of the road as would make it difficult to make connections with other points. Your requests 1 and 2 are the ones which I have urged on Mr. Earling.

With best wishes, I am, is true that the road has been very liberal in stopping trains to let off passengers. That, however, doesn't meet the situation, as parents on examining the time-cards and finding no stops are deterred frequently from making trips which they would wish to make. It would be extremely desirable.

Chicago, November 21, 1911

First, if 5:15 East, 5:45 P.M., should stop daily, as it now does on Sunday only, to take on passengers for Rockford, Davis Junction, Elgin, and Chicago, as well as to let off passengers from Marion and beyond; as one of the trustees of the Frances Shimer Fund.

Second, if 5:15 West should stop at Mt. Carroll train to take on School, situated at Mt. Carroll, Illinois, I am writing to express sleeping-car passengers for Marion and beyond, and to Rockford and the hope that it will be found practicable for the Railroad to do a little more for the town in the way of stopping trains. The school Grossed attendance at the school and therefore its increased patronage. There are now 103 such, with 14 teachers living out of town. The parents of the pupils frequently wish to visit the school, and there is therefore a reasonable amount of contribution to the service of the road on the part of this institution. The difficulty appears to be at present that only two east-bound trains a day stop regularly at Mt. Carroll. One leaves at 5:45 A.M., the other at 6:33 A.M., making it impossible to go to Chicago by an afternoon or evening train.

Dear President Judson:—

I should have explained that No. 22 is a local, leaving Savanna at a little after six in the morning. I do not believe that the advancing of its time would seriously modify the schedule of any other train. However, it is a fact that, so far as the School is concerned, we are not specially interested in this train. The stopping of No. 18 in the evening is vital to us.

Yours truly,
