Dear Dr. Harper,

Yours of the 21st rec'd. Knowing that there were some who would be only too glad to "pick you up" in some flaw, if they could, I have exercised unusual care with your lessons, and have several times had to do some "cutting", to save us from possible trouble; not that I did not agree with you, but because the devil is yet abroad, and greedy to hurt the Lord's workers, if only he can do so. I have not changed, except by omission, and this I have to do with every one of our editors; and the good part of it is that either they do not examine, or, they forget, or, they are the most amiable set ever known, for I have yet to receive the first scourging for using
I hope you feel better and that the surgery went well.

I'm sorry to hear you're feeling unwell. I hope you rest and recover soon.

Please let me know if there's anything I can do to help.

Take care, and get well soon.
the editorial prerogative. I may not say in writing what I should not hesitate to say were we face to face, in confidence, on this matter. We are in correspondence with Prof. Harris, of Richmond, who is eminently qualified, and I think it likely he will accept, but this must be regarded as confidential for the present. Other names have been mentioned, but nothing definite has been arranged.

Could you give me copy for your lessons a little earlier than heretofore? We really need them at least two weeks sooner to have time for turning short corners. Any time you want money, please let me know, and I will issue the necessary order, and then there may be some delay, as all orders have to pass the Ex. Committee before payment. Yrs. C. R. Blackall

My Dear Brother:— At a meeting of the Board held yesterday afternoon the enclosed rules and plan of work for the completion of the Revision of the Old Testament were adopted by the Board of the Society, and the six revisors appointed are Prof. W. R. Harper, Ph. D., Prof. S. Burnham, D. D., Prof. C. R. Brown, Ph. D., Prof. B. C. Taylor, Prof. I. M. Price, Prof. J. R. Sampey, D. D. The Board also appointed a standing advisory committee with power, consisting of Drs. Wayland Hoyt, J. T. Beckley, H. G. Weston, Thos. Armitage and the Secretaries. Any modification of the above plan, unanimously agreed upon by the revisors, will be given a very full and careful consideration by the advisory committee. If you accept the appointment, please notify us early, and we will prepare a paper covering the brief agreement necessary between yourself and the Society for mutual signature. There has been, as I understand it, a tacit agreement between us, but it has not been thrown into form; but now that the Society has taken action, being ready for work, it is best to put the matter in some simple form of agreement, so that there can hereafter be no misunderstanding between us.

It is desirable that the revisors should have an early meet-
My dear Brothers: At a meeting of the Board held yesterday after noon the following rules and plan of work for the completion of the Revision of the Old Testament were adopted by the Board of the Society and the six revisors appointed, viz., Prof. W. H. Harvey, Ph.
D., Prof. S. H. Whipple, Ph. D., Prof. C. R. Brough, Ph. D., Prof. R. C.
Taylor, Prof. A. E. H. Bostock, Prof. L. R. Green, and Prof. D. The Board also approved a statement submitted by the revision committee with power to concur in the statement and to make any changes in the same, plan; namely, that any question or point upon the manuscript will be given a very full and thorough consideration by the revision committee. If you neglect the appointment, please notify me early, and we will prepare a paper containing the points of agreement necessary between yourself and the Society for mutual examination. There has been, as I understand it, a slight disagreement between us, but I am not precluded from work, and now that the Society have taken some preliminary steps in the matter I am ready to give you as much time as may be necessary for the examination of the manuscript.
ing to talk over the whole matter and agree upon points and begin their work.

My Dear Brother:— I am all the more sorry for your absence at the conference because of its magnificent success. I should like to have had you witness it and feel its enthusiasm. The action was unanimous and hearty. I have telegraphed you at Chicago and also sent a copy of the agreement by Dr. Henson for your signature. I presume it is signed and on its way back, but for fear that something may happen that Dr. Henson should miss you I send another copy to your address in New Haven. If you have already signed and returned the agreement, all right, destroy this copy; if you have not, please sign this one and return it by first mail. We are anxious that no newspaper should get hold of it at least for a week, so that it can appear simultaneously in all the papers the week after next.

Yours truly,

Dict. by B.G.
General Basis of Organization.

The undersigned, cognizant of the fact that there is a very widespread desire for a more thorough organization of the young people of the Baptist Churches for indoctrination in distinctive Baptist principles and instruction in Baptist history; for more effective service in the local churches; for a better acquaintance among our young people; for the better pushing of all mission work—domestic, home and foreign; suggest the following general basis for organization:

1. That the Baptist national organization, when formed in July next, be on a basis broad enough to receive all Baptist Young People's Societies of whatever name and constitution.

2. No Baptist Young People's Society now organized will be required to re-organize under any other name or constitution in order to obtain fellowship and representation in such Body, either State or National.

3. That such National organization adopt the "Young People at Work" as the organ of the Young People's Societies, with the understanding that the paper is to be impartially hospitable to all such Societies, and that the paper shall specially devote itself to the indoctrination of Baptist young people in the distinguishing tenets of Baptist churches.

4. That all Young People's Societies in Baptist Churches, of whatever name or constitution, be earnestly requested to heartily co-operate in Associational, State and National organizations.

5. That each Young People's Society shall be left to determine to what extent it will participate in inter-denominational Societies
6. That all Societies of young people in Baptist churches be strenuously urged to subscribe for the "Young People at Work" and also to circulate other Baptist literature.

7. That while the National organization may recommend some model constitution for local Societies, the adoption of such constitution shall be entirely optional with all Societies in affiliation with the Body.
