Chicago,  June 12, 1919

Mr. H. P. Judson,
Chicago.

My dear sir,

We are in a position to know that musicians in France are in great distress.

Help us to pay our debt to that heroic country, in part at least, by coming to the aid of her musicians. This should be a privilege to all music-lovers, musicians and lovers of France.

The enclosed circular will give you a few details of our Society and its aims. The names upon the Executive Committee speak for its seriousness of purpose.

We ask your sympathy, we ask your membership in this Society.

Yours very sincerely,

[Signature]

Dear Miss Cameron:

President Judson asks me to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of June 12. He regrets that at the present time he does not find it practicable to join any further organizations connected with the war.

Yours very truly,

Private Secretary
