Dear Dr. Harper,

I have just written Mr. Rockefellers in your care in the interest of our work. If you have an opportunity to pay a good word for us, I feel sure that you will do so. The cigarette and tobacco question comes home to the educational institutions and educators, even when aught to join hands with us. The marked copy of our paper may rest under separate cover will, I trust, have your attention. Reading man of the city are readers of the little paper I wish the Harper boys were enlisted in our ranks.

Thanking you in advance for your help,

Yours for the Boy,

Lucy Page Easton.
My dear Mrs. Gaston:-

Chicago, Jan. 27, 1925.

I am interested in your letter of January 27th. I think that I have made good use of the copy of the booklet left me by Mr. Leslie. The real fact is I am not in good physical condition and am unable to take up many matters in which otherwise I should be greatly interested.

Thanking you. I remain,

Yours very truly,

Lucy Page Gaston

Dr. Wm. F. Harper
President Chicago University.

Dear Doctor Harper:

On January 15th here Mr. Leslie left a copy of the booklet, "Cigarettes," with you, and I fear may have overpressed the matter from what we told you that I, however, that you have found time to examine this valuable publication, which is causing an arrest of thought on the part of many intelligent cigarette smokers. It is so written as to appeal to college men and others who have fallen into this sad habit.

The writer is a young artist of fine ability who worked out his story with his own hand in artistic lettering. I wish in some way this putting of the question could be brought before the professors and students of your institution who are accused, at least, of smoking cigarettes.

On yesterday I had a brief interview with Gen. Sec. Barnes of the R. E. A., and told him that matters were shaping themselves favorably to my being in attendance at the coming convention in Boston. The superintendent of schools of Philadelphia, and other educators in the East with whom I am in touch, are much concerned over this great and growing evil, and if I am able to attend the convention I shall doubtless meet many who can be enlisted in the war on the cigarette. I spoke with Mr. Barnes about the advisability of having yet one more department in the R. E. A. which would recognize the total abstinence, anti-cigarette and special civic problems. From my point of view there is little to hope for in moral or religious training from youths of either sex addicted to vicious practices, against which there must be specific work as experience is proving.

If, in your busy life, you can spare a little time for the long promised interview, I shall esteem it an honor and a privilege to meet you at time and place proposed.

Yours for better things,

Lucy Page Gaston

See how Chief O'Neill is helping.

SIR:

I am replying to your letter of January 25th, 1931.

The matter is one of the most pressing of its kind with which we are faced, and the question of the division of the money must be brought to the attention of the Board of Trustees. I wish to express my hope that the Board will give this matter special attention.

Yours truly,

P.S. I enclose a printed statement with this letter.
Chicago, Jan. 27, 1905.

Commanding Officer,

________ Precinct,

Sir:

The Anti-Cigarette League believes that if those who are engaged in the sale of cigarettes understood the law they would not be likely to violate it. For the purpose of enlightening tobacco dealers on this subject, circulars have been gotten up, a package of which has been forwarded to you.

You will have a notice delivered to everyone engaged in the sale of tobacco in your precinct, and if more circulars are needed they will be furnished.

For the information of your officers and also for the purpose of keeping this subject in mind, post up at least one circular in the squad room, and instruct your officers to enforce the law concerning the sale of cigarettes as strictly as possible.

The police are well aware of the injurious effects of cigarette smoking by minors and they should use every effort, not alone in the enforcement of law, but for humanity’s sake, to suppress the evil as far as possible.

Francis O'Neill

Chief of Police

Dear Dr. Judson:

A Chicago gentleman, who at middle-life has built up a large fortune in the mercantile business, has suggested that to put the Anti-Cigarette League in a position properly to push its fight upon the blight of youth, a fund of $10,000 be raised at once.

As an evidence of his faith, this gentleman has pledged the first thousand dollars. The President of a large millinery concern, whose heart is in work for the boys' redemption, has pledged $500 more. Just enthusiastic, but less financially able ones, have pledged amounts from $300 downward.

The scores of reports of violations of the cigarette law, many of them under the shadows of our city schools, are pouring in fast. The needs of the educational work against the cigarette that we are carrying on through church and schools, are such as to demand all of our efforts, so that we wish to devote as little time as possible to the securing of this sum. We should like fifty gifts of $100 each.

Will you be one of the fifty?

Sincerely,

Lucy Page Gaston

Dear Miss Gaston:—

With best wishes, I am,

Very truly yours,

Miss Lucy Page Gaston,

Carroll E. Pearson of Milwaukee, one of our Vice Presidents, will add his testimony as he is making a fight in the Milwaukee Schools. M. F. Buhl of the Crane will speak on "The High School Smoker," and Dr. Bodine on a woman's vision for the mother of Lincoln.

"You shall not smite women."

"The Ladies shall have a voice."

"We shall have a voice for the boys and girls."

I hope you can be with us.

I am writing to you and Dr. Harris also. I am going to College and I will be turned into a New College and University against this great and growing evil. You can imagine how much the Anti-Cigarette Movement needs such strong allies. We fight against tremendous odds as you know.
