June 22, 1907.

My dear Mr. Slaught:

Your favor of the 20th inst. is received. I am pleased to receive the vote of the Doctors, and greatly regret that I was not able to be present at the luncheon myself. I hope that we shall keep up this work and continue the custom.

Congratulating you on the success of the occasion, I am

Very truly yours,

H. P. Judson

Mr. H. E. Slaught,

The University of Chicago.
June 25, 1904

My dear Mr. E. Stanton:

Your letter of the 20th notwithstanding I am pleased to receive the note of the doctor's and expressly request that I was not able to be present at the Inaugural meal. I hope that we shall keep up this work and continue the custom.

Consequently you will excuse me of the omissions

Very truly yours,

H. E. Jackson

Mr. E. Stanton
The University of Chicago
The Association of Doctors of Philosophy of the University of Chicago

Chicago, June 20, 1907.

Professor Harry Pratt Judson,
President of the University of Chicago.

My dear Sir:—

By unanimous and hearty vote of the Doctors of Philosophy assembled on Monday, June 10th, at the Quadrangle Club, as guests of the University, after partaking of the complimentary luncheon, the following resolution was passed:

Resolved that the Secretary be directed to express to President Judson our hearty appreciation of the excellent luncheon provided and to report our sincere regret at his absence from the meeting, and that we as the Association of Doctors of Philosophy of the University of Chicago pledge our loyal support to him as the new Head of the University.

I have the honor of transmitting to you the above resolution and to express in addition my personal thanks for the courtesy shown to the Doctors on this occasion.

I believe that a good spirit prevails among this body of select Alumni and that the deliberations of this meeting may lead to still closer bonds of union between the Doctors and the University.

A full report of the discussions will appear in the next number of the University Record.

Yours very truly,

H. E. Slaught
Secretary.
Professor Henry Pratt Jackson

President of the University of Chicago

My dear Sir:

By unanimous and hearty vote of the College of Philosophy assembled at the University, June 10th, 1906, after presentation of the committee's recommendation, the following resolution was passed:

Be it resolved that the Secretary be directed to express to President Jackson our hearty appreciation of the excellent work you have done and to report our sincere regret at the departure of the University, and that we as the representatives of the University of the University of Chicago pledge our loyal and deeply felt gratitude to the new Head of the University for the honor of transmitting to you the message of our entire devotion to the college.

I have the honor of transmitting to you the following message of the college:

"I believe that a true spirit of universal science guide

all our efforts. I am sure that the interest of the meeting may lead to still closer bonds of union between the college and the University.

A full report of the conference will appear in the next number of the University Record."

Yours very truly,

[Signature]

Secretary.