next year. It is because you have so kindly advised me in the past that I take this liberty now of stating my case and asking your further judgment. Off time is too short to bother with the matter, please feel perfectly free to cast it aside, and I shall remain, as ever,

Your friend,

First Name.
I am greatly troubled as to what I shall do for my next year of study, and it involves the question as to whether or not I ought to remain in the Baptist Church. I believe you already know for the most part my position, how I never can believe in close communion and care very little as to the

Dwight Hall
New Haven Oct. 27, 1892

My dear Dr. Harper:
I am exceeding ly loth to trouble one who I know is so constantly busy; but remembering how you always managed while here to find time for everything, I am in hopes you will pardon this annoyance and spare me just a few moments. mode of baptism, judging that Christ under different circumstances would as readily have performed sprinkling as immersion. You have always told me that Dr. Mea-son's case proved the ability of one to hold liberal views on these subjects and still remain in the Bap. Ch. a letter of his to Dr.
Tostrander and his recent action then serve to prove the contrary and as my one support has disolved. The graduate line has even more frequently late to urge my remaining here, in which they are strongly backed by Bosv. Dwight, and in their turn they offer me my mornings or part of my evenings clear for study, my Sunday free for February 5th, 1901.

My dear Mr. Barnes:

Dr. Gunsaulus will give us next Sunday afternoon his address on "Victoria", which is said to have been very fine, if you have not made other arrangements. Will you kindly let me know at once?

Services were held as usual last Sunday afternoon, in spite of the storm. The speaker was there, the choir was there, the pianist was there, the President was there, and in addition eleven people; but we went through the programme from beginning to end.

Very truly yours,

W. R. Harper
Mr. geer, ok, please

Mr. Geer will give us next saturday afternoon the address on "Victory" with an end to have been very fine. If you have not make other arrangements. Will you kindly let me know if once?

Sequences were held as money that sugar afternoon in place of the actors. The speaker was there the open was there. The presence was there. The President was there and in addition seven people; but we went forward the programme from beginning to end.

Very truly yours,

W. H. Harper
