Dear President Judson,

I have given a letter of introduction, of which the enclosed is a copy, to Mr. Rupert Brooke, whose career at King's College, in the University of Cambridge, has been distinguished; and he has recently taken his Master of Arts degree. He is the author of some excellent poems, and is regarded by some able to judge as having a brilliant future before him.

The desire prompting Mr. Brooke to study things American is his wish to obtain a true insight into realities. We shall therefore greatly appreciate any assistance you can afford him in the attainment of his object during his visit to your city.

Mr. Brooke expects to arrive in Chicago during the month of November next.

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,

Enc: Honorary Secretary.

Dear President Judson,

This letter will be presented to you by Mr. Rupert Brooke, who has just taken his Master’s degree at the University of Cambridge, and who is making a protracted visit to the Dominion of Canada and the United States in order to study general life and conditions on your Continent.

Of him I have already written you, expressing the hope that you will be good enough to afford Mr. Brooke your valuable advice and assistance to further his objects.

If you will help him in his desire to see something of your University, we shall be specially obliged to you.

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,

Honorary Secretary.

Dear President Jukes,

The letter will be presented to you by Mr. Murphy. He will also include the photographs and other materials that are part of the petition to the University of Chicago. It may be that the administration of the University agrees with the petition and is prepared to take action at its own expense to carry out the recommendations of the committee.

I hope that you will see to it that the necessary arrangements are made to ensure that the committee's recommendations are implemented.

If you will please hold the letter for me until I see you, I shall be grateful.

Yours sincerely,
