Dear Sir:

For some years the Chicago Association of Commerce has sent out occasionally visiting delegations of its most prominent citizens and members to those sections of the country somewhat remote from Chicago, to encourage closer social relations between the two sections.

This delegation that will visit your city is in no sense either a party soliciting business nor salesmen in search of orders. It is emphatically a body of solid business and professional men whose principal mission is to convey the kindly greetings of Chicago to you as our neighbors of the South, and thus strengthen the ties that should bind us together as citizens of a common country.

We want to know you and have you know us, not as merchants and manufacturers, but as men and associates, feeling that you are agreed with us that the interchange of commodities is more strongly influenced by social relations than by mercenary motives, and that there is greater incentive to business in a warm grasp of the hand than in any other association.

Simply let us know how we can serve you, and we will show you how you can serve us, so that the advantages may be entirely mutual.

We leave Chicago November 8th and will advise you later as to the day and exact time of arrival and departure from your city.

We request that you will not incur expense by elaborate or formal entertainment. This neighborly visit we shall be most happy to have you return at your convenience, when it will be our pleasure to reciprocate the courtesies you may extend to us as your unbidden guests.

Very truly yours,

Business Manager.
All Aboard for Dixie Land

Another trade excursion is now in preparation, and it is to surpass all predecessors in ultimate commercial efficiency. On Tuesday last the Trade Extension committee, John W. Scott, chairman, authorized the organization of a trade extension trip to the south, and commissioned Business Manager Moody to make ready.

The association within the past two or three years has sent one excursion to the nearer southeast, another to the Pacific northwest, another to the southwest, another to Michigan and Ohio, and latterly has made a visit of courtesy and fellowship, without business talk, to Louisville.

To the hundreds of new members lately enrolled in this association be it said that a trade extension tour is first, last, and all the time the busiest kind of canvass for the market as a whole. It is not a junket with much individual visitation for this and that Chicago business house. It is a trade embassy for the Great Central Market, and loyalty first demands a union message for and about Chicago in its commercial entirety. So one of these excursions is under discipline. Its purpose is large, its morale high, and its personnel distinguished. It goes out with authority from the mid-continent's commercial capital. It dispenses hospitality within the limitations of a party en route, and accepts them as a tribute to the great market and city from which it receives commission. To be identified with a trade excursion of the Chicago Association of Commerce is to discharge honorable service, while the results incidentally returning to the individual are many and profitable. But first and foremost the market.

The forthcoming excursion, in which General Treasurer Wm. F. Hypes is the first enrollment, will start the evening of Sunday, Nov. 8, and return to Chicago the morning of Sunday, Nov. 22. The cities visited, via the Illinois Central railroad, will probably be Birmingham, Montgomery, Mobile, New Orleans, Baton Rouge, Vicksburg, Monroe, Memphis, Pine Bluff, Ark., Little Rock, Hot Springs, Deyersburg, Fulton, Paducah.

The tour will be made in sufficient comfort to compensate for the necessary expedition. The association members proper will be less than twenty. The train equipment will be a special compartment car and a special dining car. The expenses of this business embassy for Chicago will be shared equally by the association and the individual participants.

The publicity instrumentalities for this trip have been planned with much design. It will be accompanied by two or three experienced and well known Chicago newspaper men, who will let Chicago and the cities visited know that the Great Central Market and lake summer resort may be had by the receptive southland for the asking.

Whatever the fates decree shall be the issue of a certain national controversy culminating Nov. 3, the overtures of Chicago to the prosperous and growing south, following hard upon the amenities of the great waterway convention and Coliseum reception, are sure to be received with a feeling of reciprocity and fellowship.
Hearing on Width of River

On Sept. 18, 1908, the Executive committee of The Chicago Association of Commerce, acting upon the recommendation of the Chicago River Improvement committee of this association, adopted the following resolutions:

"Whereas, There is demand from certain interests that there be adopted a new standard for bridges over the Chicago river, having a clear span between abutments of 200 feet; and,

"Whereas, The present standard of 140 feet span between abutments was adopted, after careful consideration and consultation between the sanitary district, the city authorities, the commercial and navigation interests, endorsed by them and made by the war department the federal government's scheme for the improvement of the river; and,

"Whereas, No new argument has been advanced and no new condition has arisen not contemplated at that time; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That The Chicago Association of Commerce by its Executive committee does hereby ratify and reaffirm the position of its committee on Chicago River Improvement, providing for 140 feet between bridge abutments with suitable by-passes where the current in the river makes such by-passes necessary; and be it

"Further Resolved, That the Chicago newspapers be furnished with a certified copy of these resolutions and be asked to publish them for the benefit of all concerned."

Following the aforesaid action, C. F. Wiehe, representing the trade committee of the Lumbermen's association, was invited as a member of The Chicago Association of Commerce, therein representing the Edward Hines Lumber Company, to appear before the Executive committee of this association and make such remonstrance against the aforesaid action as might seem due to the interests which he represents. The hearing was duly held, Oct. 15, 12:30 o'clock. It was preceded by a luncheon at which the various parties at issue were guests. The factors at this review of the plea of the aforesaid lumber interests that the clear span between Chicago River bridges be 200 rather than 140 feet, were:

The Executive committee of The Chicago Association of Commerce, the Chicago River Improvement committee, the sub-division on lumber of the Ways and Means committee, members of the drainage board and representatives of other interests.

The personnel of the attendance was in full as follows:

Lumber sub-division, No. 27, Ways and Means committee: Chas. A. Marsh, F. E. Bartleme, J. W. Slayton.

Capt. D. Sullivan; John J. Hanberg, commissioner of public works; John Ericson, city engineer; Maj. Thos. H. Rees, United States engineer.

Upon conclusion of an exhaustive review of the argument, to hereafter receive consideration in these columns, the Executive committee took the case under advisement.

Converted and Forgiven

"My Dear Mr. Moody: At last we are knocking at the door. I take pleasure in enclosing our firm's application for membership in The Chicago Association of Commerce.

"I have come to believe that any business man in this city who believes in a greater Chicago and a better Chicago must cast his lot with the organization you represent and work together for that end. If there is any room left, please present our application.

"Thanking you for your special courtesy in the matter, we remain,

I desire to express to you my hearty appreciation on behalf of our Association for the courtesies extended in connection with the visit of the Brazilian Ambassador, Mr. Nabuco, to this city as a guest of the University of Chicago.

It has afforded us much satisfaction to have an opportunity to get into closer touch with the conditions existing in the great Latin American republics, and especially to hear authoritatively from so distinguished a statesman.

I also take this opportunity of welcoming you as a representative of the University of Chicago to membership in our Association. Our party of fifteen or twenty Association members who attended the Convocation Exercises were very much pleased with the attention shown them while at the University.

With assurances of esteem, I remain,

Yours very truly,

Dear Dr. Henderson,

I am writing to express my concern about the continued neglect of the American Association of the University of Chicago. As a member of the association for over thirty years, I have observed a steady decline in its activities and influence. The association has been slow to address the myriad issues facing our field and the academic community at large. It is my hope that by bringing these concerns to your attention, we can work together to revitalize the association and ensure its continued relevance.

Sincerely,

Association of Commerce
Prof. Harry Pratt Judson, of University of Chicago.

Dear Mr. Judson:

First let me congratulate you on your identification with our Association through having recently taken out membership. I trust our connection will continue indefinitely and be mutually pleasant and profitable.

Our Association is about to send a picked delegation of its prominent members into the Central South in the interests of Chicago's common good—financially, industrially, commercially, professionally and in the interest of education and other things worthwhile.

We are of the opinion that we have talked Chicago's commercial supremacy on these trips perhaps a little too strongly from a sordid commercial standpoint. It is our purpose in sending out this delegation to blend with our commercial interests in our public talks a good deal of the arts and sciences of Chicago. We have much to be proud of in that direction.

The officers of the Association are exceedingly anxious that the University of Chicago be represented by a delegate on this trip. It affords an excellent opportunity for the University to do a little advertising on its own account, and the advantages that will accrue to your interests will be just as great as to the delegates representing our prominent commercial and industrial institutions.

The arrangements for the trip are as follows:

The delegate's part of the expense of the trip is $200, the Association paying the other half.

THE ITINERARY – Leave Chicago Sunday evening 7:45, November 8th, visiting on route: Paducah, Fulton, Deersburg, Memphis, Birmingham, Montgomery, Mobile, New Orleans, Baton Rouge, Vicksburg, Monroe, Pine Bluff, Hot Springs, Little Rock, Fort Smith, St. Louis — and arriving in Chicago 7:45 A.M., Sunday, November 22nd.

It is to be the best equipped delegation ever sent out, special attention having been given to the comfort and convenience of the delegates.

Two private cars will be in commission — an all-stateroom sleeper and a cafe-observatory car for dining and day sessions.

It is calculated that this trip will be distinctively efficacious in swinging into line the South for Chicago commercially. The Deep Waterway delegates to the Chicago Convention, the larger percentage of whom came from the very territory which we shall visit, left here singing the praises of Chicago's hospitality in no unmistakable terms. To follow this up by a return visit at this most opportune time means the assurance of a splendid reception all along the line, which naturally will result in our accomplishing what we desire.

The personnel of the delegation will be distinctively high grade, only leaders in Chicago commerce from the largest firms being invited.

Very truly yours,

My dear Mr. Robertson:

Thanks very much for the good things contained in your letter of October 26th, in which you state that President Judson will try to arrange for a representative from your University to be a delegate on our Southern trip.

I endeavored to make the matter as comprehensive as possible in my letter on the subject, and I can only reiterate that this trip will be of tremendous importance, not only to the commercial interests of Chicago, but its civic, educational and industrial interests as well.

I have talked with a number of our most prominent men, and all have agreed that it would be a most excellent idea for the University to send the best man possible as a representative.

We especially want a good talker. The opportunities will be legion for your representative to put in a good word for the University itself. There will be receptions, dinners, luncheons and banquets in each city and ample time for the delegates to personally visit the institutions and parties specifically within their own scope of interest.

Much publicity will be attached to the trip, two or three excellent newspaper men having been signed up for this special work.
As soon as President Judson has selected his man, may I ask you to send your delegate's photograph which we will desire for certain initial publicity?

Thanking you in anticipation of your cooperation,

Very truly yours,

My dear Mr. Judson:

It is exceedingly gratifying to the officers of our Association to know that the University of Chicago will have a representative in our party going South the 8th of November.

Especially does it mean much in the interests of our common good to have another side of Chicago presented in our public talks than purely its commercial and industrial supremacy.

I think I stated in my previous letter that we desire to give this trip a refining touch by emphasizing in our public talks the arts and sciences of Chicago, and it affords us peculiar pleasure to know that that feature will be in the hands of one of the Faculty of the Great Institution of Learning that every Chicagoan feels a sort of proprietary interest in.

I wish to avail myself of this opportunity to give you additional information concerning the trip, which you will find in the enclosed itinerary, the incomplete list of Delegates, the call for meeting on organization and a letter sent to the prominent men in the towns along the line of march announcing our coming and which sets forth somewhat the purpose and policy of our trip.

Sincerely yours,

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO DELEGATES OF SOUTHERN TRIP.

Dear Sir,

I take pleasure in enclosing incomplete list of Delegates for the Southern Trade Extension Trip inaugurated under the auspices of the Chicago Association of Commerce, leaving Chicago Nov. 6th, returning Nov. 22nd. To this list will be added some half dozen prominent firms and individuals not yet assigned.

Chairman Wheeler has generously arranged to give over a large portion of the Ways and Means Committee meeting, Wednesday, November 4th, to our Delegation, when we will be addressed by President Hall, Chairman Edward H. Skinner of the Executive Committee, Chairman John W. Scott of the Trade Extension Committee and Chairman Wheeler—who will speak on the policy and purpose of the trip.

Preliminary to that meeting, our Delegation will be called for a meeting in the Quincy Room, which immediately adjoins the Main Cafe, at 11:45 A.M. SHARP. This meeting is for the purpose of organizing the Delegation and electing a Chairman, Treasurer and Secretary from among its members; and full arrangements will be discussed as to baggage facilities, the itinerary, wardrobe, etc. YOU ARE URGENTLY REQUESTED TO BE AT HAND AT THE HOUR SET.

Please send your check for $200 by return mail to cover your portion of the expense. Also indicate just how your name should be entered on the itinerary, giving your full official business connection. We hope to have the itineraries published for the Wednesday meeting and to have a sufficient supply for each Delegate to distribute in advance to the clients of his house along the route.

PLEASE REMEMBER the hour of the preliminary meeting is 11:45 in the Quincy Room.

Very truly yours,

Business Manager.

To Member,

Trade Extension Delegation to the South,
November 8–22, 1906.

IMPORTANT NOTICES TO DELEGATES AT CENTENNIAL TRIP

Dear Mr. [Name]:

I feel it my duty to inform you of a change in the date of the event to which you have been invited. The American Legion of Commerce, former Oregon Young Men's Christian Association, have been engaged to hold a convention in this city in the month of October, and it has been decided to hold the same on the 31st of October instead of the 28th as originally arranged.

At the recent meeting of the executive committee of the Convention, it was decided to extend the date of the event to October 31st, in order to accommodate the larger number of delegates who are expected to attend. The convention will now be held in the afternoon of that day, and will include a dinner and dance in the evening.

I trust this information will be of service to you in your preparations for the trip. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

[Your Name]
November 5, 1908.

My dear president Judson:

I am returning herewith the correspondence which led up to the appointment of a representative of the university upon the Southern trip of the delegates of the Chicago Association of Congress. I have thought that perhaps this correspondence, if it is to be preserved at all, should be in your files.

Sincerely yours,

[Nathaniel Butler]
