PRESIDENT
LEROY A. GODDARD
VICE PRESIDENT
EDWARD M. SKINNER
TREASURER
CHARLES L. HUTCHINSON

SECRETARY
CHARLES E. BEALS

Chicago, March 10, 1913.

President Harry Pratt Judson, University of Chicago,
Chicago.

Dear Mr. President:-

As perhaps you know, Earl Grey, Lord Shaw and other distinguished Englishmen, together with a Canadian delegation including Sir Edmund Walker and Sir Alexander Lacoste, will visit the United States about May first, to confer with our American committee concerning the coming Hundred Years of Peace Celebration in 1914-1915. Invitations also have been sent to Sir Edward Morris, Premier of Newfoundland, and Sir George Reid, Lord High Commissioner of Australia, and it is hoped that these gentlemen may be present.

Chicago probably will be honored with the presence of these distinguished visitors during their brief tour of a few of the more important cities.

As the Honorary Secretary of the National Committee, you are hereby most cordially invited to be present at a luncheon to be held in the Tower Room of the Union League Club, on Thursday noon, March 13, at 12.30 o'clock. May we hope for the honor of your acceptance? The luncheon will be on our usual Chicago plan - each paying for his own. The price will be one dollar per plate.

The function of calling this committee together, for organization and the formulation of local plans, would seem properly to belong to the Mayor, but His Honor has suggested that President Goddard of the Peace Society take the initiative, and under instructions from the latter the call hereby is issued.

Please endeavor to be present.

I have the honor to remain,

Very truly yours,

Charles E. Beals

Secretary.

CHICAGO
OFFICE

Chicago, Illinois, June 12, 1912

President, Board of Trade, Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Sir:

In regard to your letter of June 10, 1912, regarding the investigation of the Chicago Finance Society, I am glad to state that the Society is in the process of being reorganized and that the new organization will be ready to take up its work in the near future. I am sure that the new organization will be able to do a better job than the old one.

Chicago probably will be honored with the presence of these distinguished visitors during their visit and it is most important to have them.

The Executive Committee of the Chicago Finance Society is very sorry that it is unable to be present at a luncheon to be held in the Town Hall on June 15, 1912, on account of the illness of its members. It is hoped that the members of your organization will be able to attend the luncheon and that the Chicago Finance Society will be able to do a better job in the future.
