Judd: "I have thought of the Record as serving a very useful purpose. It will be a great misfortune if members of the University faculties are not kept in intimate contact with what is done by the donors and what is done in the University."

Marshall: "I hope that only as a last resort will a policy be adopted that results in not sending a copy to every member of the faculty."

Joreenson: "The proposed distribution through the departmental offices would prove more wasteful and less efficient than the present method."

E. J. Goodspeed: "I should be sorry to have the faculty circulation of the Record reduced, at least in my department. I think it has a real value as a medium of official information within the University, and as a reliable historical record of events. This I have personally proved over and over in all kinds of University relations. I strongly favor the wider circulation of it in the city and among select friends of the University. This is a valuable form of cultivation of intelligent public interest, and should be built up and sustained, since it does not bear its proper fruit in one year or five years."

The foregoing are the more emphatic expressions of opinion favorable to the present wide distribution of the Record among members of the faculties.

On the other hand one reply (H. W. Prescott) says: "I think it sufficient for the University Record to appear on the tables in various libraries on the campus, as it does with us here in Classics. Individuals who wish it can inform you; others can depend on finding it in the current periodicals in the library of the building. I quite agree that there is an undesirable waste in the present distribution."

The number of copies printed for April was 1,200, leaving a few extra copies for later use.

The Record is sent to Trustees of the University, of the Theological Union and of Rush Medical College; to a few libraries and universities; to some sixty or more paid subscribers; and to the "University Calendar" list which is supposed to contain names of all members of the faculties of rank above and including Instructors. There
The proposal for a new postgraduate program at the University of London, as presented to the University Senate, was approved. The program aims to provide advanced training in the field of information science and to bridge the gap between academic research and practical applications.

The keynote speech, delivered by Professor John Smith, emphasized the importance of integrating theoretical knowledge with practical skills. Professor Smith highlighted the need for a multidisciplinary approach, combining elements of computer science, statistics, and social sciences.

The program will be open to both full-time and part-time students, offering flexibility to accommodate the needs of working professionals. The curriculum will include courses on data analysis, information retrieval, and information policy.

The faculty for the new program will be drawn from leading experts in the field, ensuring a high standard of education. The university is committed to fostering a community of scholars dedicated to advancing the field of information science.

This new initiative is part of the university's broader mission to remain at the forefront of academic innovation and to prepare students for leadership roles in the evolving Information Age.
is a list already having addressograph stencils of some 800 names, to which the Record is not now mailed. It contains names of donors (about 125), public libraries, educational institutions (universities, normal schools), consuls, and a few others.

In the light of the foregoing, I recommend:

1. That the Record continue to be sent to all members of the faculties of rank of Instructor or higher.

2. That there be removed from the mailing list the names of some sixty to seventy-five persons for whose presence thereon there appears to be no outstanding, or at least observable, reason.

3. That a letter be sent to all libraries now on the list (something like fifty or more) asking if the Record is useful and is still wanted.

4. That an attempt be made to remove duplications if they exist.

5. That the names of Presidents of outstanding universities and secondary schools, executive officers of the leading foundations and learned societies be added to the list and such other important libraries as are not now represented.

6. That the names of more prominent donors to the University funds and those of hopeful "prospects" be gradually added to the list until the edition reaches 1,500 copies, adding in the course of the fiscal year say $300 to the total expenses.

Sincerely yours

My dear Dr. Harper:

I suppose it is time for us to think about the first number of The Record.

1. Shall we insert the Convocation address and the President's statement in the first number, or shall we divide them?

2. We ought to have some one to report the Divinity Conference and secure the papers therefor. Dr. Hewitt has been suggested. Would he be the proper man?

3. How about obtaining the baccalaureate sermon preached last Sunday for publication in The Record?

4. It seems to me that the great problem through the coming quarter and through the coming year, for that matter, is to secure suitable leading articles for The Record. I present the problem to you for consideration.

5. I suppose that in October two meetings will take place, that of the Colleges and Secondary Schools, and the quarterly meeting of the instructors of affiliated schools. Have you fixed on any date for these? And shall we have anything to publish in the way of announcement in The Record?

6. Will you settle upon a chaplain for the week Oct. 5-10, or shall we wait for Dr. Henderson to arrange the matter?

7. I enclose to you the action of the Graduate Faculty on order of business and standing committees. I suppose we ought to have these committees appointed and notified.

Yours very truly,
CHICAGO

Dear Mr. Harper:

I understand it is time for me to think about the first number of THE REPORT. I have been receiving the Communication Service and the free-charge statement in the usual manner, with all my absolute preference. We must do some work to report the Division Conference and assure the proper interpretation. Dr. Holt and Mr. Mead are pleased with the progress made.

9. We must understand the possibilities of the report.

The report for publication in THE REPORT is not ready to be sent to the Board, but, while I am still in charge of the Board, I think it is necessary to send a letter to THE REPORT.

I am sending you a letter to your congratulations on your success.

8. I suppose that as October and November will take place, part of the College and Graduate School's work will be defined. We are keen to bring the report of the annual meeting in THE REPORT.

Is it necessary for you to report to the Board? And will we have a special report for the Board?

I would like to see the report of the annual meeting of THE REPORT.

I enclose a copy of the position statement of the Graduate School in order to give you some information on the Graduate School.

Yours ever faithful,

E. A. Smith
My dear President Harper:—

I am sending you, with this, the first born of the new quarterly Record. Perhaps with age it will develop in size and body. I hope, however, that you will like it even in this form.

Very truly yours,

Horace S. Fiske

Assistant Recorder.
My best Presidential respect.

I am sending you with this the first part of the new duty record. Perhaps with age it will develop to an idea body. I hope however that you will like it even in this form.

Dear President Judson:

I have gone over the matter of the proposed merger of the University Record and The Chicago Alumni Magazine as requested by you. First, as to the financial obligations which the merger will impose upon the University. The plan as I interpret it, calls for the payment from the University of $1500, $550 being receipts from the present Record, almost wholly accounted for by subscriptions paid by the Correspondence Study Department for Records sent to its students; second, the subsidy of the University for the expense of printing the Record, over and above receipts, estimated at $400, and third an additional amount of $850 representing the difference between the expense of the new Magazine plus the expenses of the Alumni office, and the receipts for subscriptions, advertising and the present appropriation for the Record.

Further, the receipts from alumni sources are estimated at $1500 from subscriptions and $1500 from advertising. This, however, is only an estimate and the burden of paying the bills is placed upon the University whether the receipts come up to the estimate or not. It also places the burden upon the University of seeing that the expenditures are not greater than the estimate. In other words, should the estimate as to receipts be too great and the estimate as to expenditures too little, the University would be called upon, under the plan, to make good the deficit.

The proposal to send the Magazine free to all graduates during their first year out of the University is a good one, but it does not
Dear President Johnson:

I have some very important news to share with you. The University of Chicago Magazine has received a substantial increase in its subscription base, which is reflected in the financial projections we've prepared for the coming year. In fact, our projections indicate a significant surplus that could be used to fund a number of important initiatives.

I believe this growth is due in large part to the success of our recent marketing efforts and the continued support of our loyal subscribers. The financial health of the University is paramount to our ability to maintain and improve the quality of our programs and services.

As you know, the University is committed to providing a world-class education and research experience to our students and faculty. In order to achieve this goal, we need the support of our community.

I look forward to discussing these matters with you in more detail at our next meeting. Thank you for your continued support of the University of Chicago.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
President Judson—2.

CHICAGO,

seem to me to be feasible to split up the diploma fee in order to provide for it, but rather an appropriation from the general funds of the University for the purpose should be made. The proposal to send the Magazine to all Correspondence Study Department students at a special one dollar rate involves no extra expense other than that provided for by the additional subsidy of $850. The Correspondence Study Department however feels that the present expense borne by it, namely, $550 represents the advantage to that department, so that none of the additional subsidy of $850 could be borne by that department. The subsidy of $850 as I understand it, would also take care of the special rate of one dollar to the Doctors of Philosophy and to the members of the Faculty, if it was thought advisable to make such a rate.

The Committee further suggested that some general promotion be undertaken during the first year among the alumni and former students and friends of the University. If this were undertaken it would involve an additional expense of several hundred dollars.

To sum up the financial aspect of the case, the proposed merger involves an additional cost to the University of $850 per year, and also makes the University liable for the deficit, should the receipts decrease and the expenditures increase over the estimate.

From the standpoint of general policy as it appeals to me, I think the University should in every way possible aid the Alumni Association and foster the objects for which it strives. But I am not sure but that it would make a much better impression upon the alumni if the University wished to make a subscription of $850, to pay
Dear Sirs,

I am writing to suggest that the University of Chicago consider the following proposition to increase the funds available for experimental research in the Department of Physics.

The proposal I wish to make is based on the assumption that the present rate of research in the Department is insufficient to meet the needs of the faculty. It is my firm belief that much more efficient and satisfactory results can be obtained by a larger and better-equipped staff.

The Committee of Finance has suggested that some general proposition be made to the Board of Trustees for an increase in the funds available. I propose to suggest to the Board the following: a 10% increase in the annual appropriation of $500,000 for the purchase of apparatus and equipment, and $50,000 for the support of research in the Department.

To meet the increased costs of the research work, the Board of Trustees should be willing to consider a 25% increase in the salaries of the faculty members. This will enable the University to attract and retain the most able men in the field of physics.

In conclusion, I feel confident that this proposition will find favor with the Board of Trustees and that it will lead to a more efficient and satisfactory development of the Department of Physics.

Sincerely yours,

it to the Alumni Association and let it publish its own magazine, and let it be purely an alumni enterprise. The University might stipulate that in return for this subsidy the Association should send its magazine free to all graduates during their first year out of the University, and any further stipulations that it might wish to make, but should leave the control and financial responsibility of the Magazine entirely in the hands of the alumni. As an alumnus of the University and from participation in meetings of the alumni, I have noticed that there is considerable feeling among them to the effect that the University dictates to them and does not allow them sufficient initiative, and it may be that the alumni, as soon as they discover that the new Magazine is published under University auspices, will not support it. This is merely a suggestion for your consideration and perhaps has already been fully taken up by the Committee, if so it needs no further thought.

By the proposed merger the University Official Publication loses its identity and the alumni Magazine no longer is a magazine wholly, but is partly official and partly of popular character. If the University gave a subsidy to the Association to help its Magazine, and continued the Record as it now exists, the Alumni Association would be helped, its initiative would be encouraged and the University Record would remain purely an official document.

If either of these plans is followed it would be necessary for the Board to take $850 from the Contingent Fund to pay the expenses.

I enclose herewith the papers relating to the merger.

I am with the American Association for the Study of Utopias. The University might take advantage of this fact to promote an interest in Utopian literature. It might be possible to utilize this interest to stimulate further participation in the Utopian Society by establishing a Utopian Series of books, and by a more active promotion of the Utopian Society by inviting participation in meetings of the Society at various times. I have noticed that there is considerable interest among students in Utopian literature and I believe that the University has an opportunity to become a leader in this field. The University could also take the lead in publishing a quarterly journal of Utopian literature.

The proposed merger of the Utopian and the Utopian Association into one body in a united membership is a matter of great importance. If the University were to consider this merger, it might take advantage of the opportunity to further the Utopian Society and to promote its activities.

I am aware that the Board of Trustees has been concerned with the financial aspects of the Utopian Society. It has been necessary for the Board to take action in order to maintain the financial health of the Society. I would like to express my appreciation for the efforts of the Board in this regard.

I welcome any suggestions that you may have regarding the future of the Utopian Society and the University's role in promoting Utopian literature.

EXPLANATORY

(1) This name preserves the official significance of the UNIVERSITY RECORD and at the same time is suggestive of sufficient breadth to include all the alumni interests, as well as all the other interests of the University, which it will be the purpose of the new publication to serve.

(2) This distribution provides for the regular post-convocation issues, as the Record now does, and introduces two new numbers in the Autumn Quarter and one new number in the middle of the Winter and the middle of the Spring Quarters, respectively.

(3) The main difference between the University Press style and that of the proposed publication will be that the latter will have its matter typed in double columns, while the former has but one full width column to the page.

(4) The leading article section, (a) (in 10 point matter) will contain the Quarterly address, President's statement, Phi Beta Kappa addresses, faculty and alumni contributions, club papers, addresses of visiting scholars and public men.

The University Record, (b) (in 8 point matter) will contain the official reports of general interest, faculty notes, reviews of faculty books and Press publications, doctors of philosophy notes, Librarian's reports.

The Undergraduate life (c) (in 8 point matter) will contain a monthly review of the more important manifestations of student activity, with emphasis on athletics.

The Alumni affairs section (d) will contain official alumni matters, as the organ of all alumni groups in the University;
EXTRACTION

(1) The name prevails, the official attribute of the UNIVERSITY BODIES, and of the same time to signify the prestige of lobbyists by the Student Interests, as well as if the students themselves, and to some extent, it may serve the enforcement of the University, which will be for the benefit of the new personnel to some extent.

(2) The information I have for the letter post-coonception issues, as the record has gone, any introductions two new years are in the Autumn quarter, and one new year to the middle of the winter may the middle of the Spring quarter, respectively.

(3) The main difference between the University Press style and that of the printed publications will be that the latter will have the material typed and compiled in different columns, while the former is put out one sheet with columns to the page.

(4) The teaching article section (a) in 10 point type-will contain the Quarterly articles, President's statement, and will contain the Quarterly address, faculty and student contributions, and reports.

(5) The following suggestions are proposed for the cover design:

(a) Use of Mitchell Tower.
(b) Lettering in upper foreground (suggested with Tower in subdued outline in background.)
(c) Use of simple border of framework.
(d) Gothic lettering, consistent with use of Tower.
(e) Use of color (suggested)

   Background of cover in color.
(f) Lines at bottom of page: "Issued eight times a year by the University of Chicago Alumni Association". "25 cents a copy". "Two Dollars a year".
(g) Volume, number and month, at head of page.

(9) The amount of the University subsidy is based on the President's suggestion that the University would pay one-half of the cost of printing, namely, $1300.

This represents a new subsidy (for the first year) of $350, which it is believed, is at least for the first year, amply justified under the circumstances for the following reasons:

(a) The increase in the special rate to the correspondence students, (1$ for eight issues instead of $.50 for four) accounts for the sum of $550. This is a matter of income which ought to be available to the new publication, especially as it finally goes to the University since all subscriptions go to it.

(b) The increased expense upon the Association in being obliged to have its printing done at the University Press, would amount to $164 a year, on the above basis of paying half the cost. (V.

(c) The new expense upon the Association of having to pay the Press 25% of its gross subscription receipts as a publishing charge whereas it has been doing this work in its own office at approximately 10%, would amount, on the basis of 1000 alumni subscribers, to $300 a year.

Thus, the merger involves a direct tax upon the Association of at least $464 a year.

This additional subsidy will be materially decreased each year because, (1) of the constant and rapid increase in alumni subscribers, not to mention other groups of subscribers; all of the receipts from subscriptions pass in the hands of the University to be credited to the printing and publishing accounts, and any excess receipts over the amounts stated in the above budget would go to relieve the University subsidy; and because, (2) of the constant and rapid increase in advertising receipts, it is proposed to institute a sliding scale on advertising receipts so that when the sum reaches a certain amount sufficient to pay the Association’s share of the cost of printing and the other regular expenses of the business manager (who obtains the advertising for the Association) and to leave the business manager a fair margin of profit, a certain percentage of the balance shall also go to relieve the University subsidy.

This budget assumes that the University will regard the office expenses of $1500, as outlined above, as upon a regular salary basis. It should be noted that the new subsidy asked for vir-

Dear Dr. Parker:–

I am delighted to know that you are coming back to Chicago. So is Anne. Therefore do not tarry too long in the Prince George. It is a comfortable hotel but it is not nearly so attractive as it used to be before that huge building to the south of it cut off the view of lower New York by night.

I have sent the rest of The First Year to the Press so that it may be set up as opportunity offers and proof may be read in a leisurely way, well in advance of the next issues of the Record. Since you are to be in Chicago perhaps you will wish to busy yourself with the galleys.

By the way, I talked with Newman
Miller about the publication of a book. He seemed to be very much interested. I am directing that the pages as they appear in the University Record be held in type so that if you wish you can issue the whole in book form the expense of composition having already been met by the University Record. I think you will find Newman Miller very much interested. I believe that we can get out a handsome little volume of about one hundred pages. Would you like to have some pictures of the University during the first year? It would not be inappropriate to run some in the University Record to accompany the installments. I have some which might do very well.

Yours very truly,
