NATIONAL LEAGUE
OF
COLLEGE CIVIL-SERVICE REFORM CLUBS.

Dr. W. R. Harper,
Univ. Chicago.
My dear sir—

2870 Wabash Ave. Chicago,
Oct. 3. 1915.

The National College Civil Service League are attempting to establish a paper to aid in the work of organizing and holding the Clubs together. We are also trying to offer a prize of $100 for best essay on Civil Service by any American student, in order to create an interest on the subject among poor college men. These plans have been adopted by Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Thurgood, Mr. MacKrack, Mr. E. H. They have subscribed to help us carry out our plans.

I trust that such a staunch civil service man as yourself will respond to this appeal from College men. Kindly send me check for $50. which I shall devote to the prize or paper as you may prefer

Very Truly yours
