Pres. W. R. Harper,

Chicago, Ill.

My dear friend,

The volume on Trend in Higher Education is received this morning for which please accept my thanks. It will ever be treasured as one of the sacred things of life because of the conditions under which it was completed. Many of the papers I heard when first given and all of them are full of interest to me.

I see by the papers that you left the hospital yesterday. I hope Butler may see you for a few minutes today. As you are aware he and I go to California tonight and I hope when we return I shall be able to once more look upon your face.

Yours, as always,

Neel C. Dwyer

My dear friend,

The volume on Trends in Higher Education is now ready for which I am very thankful. It will ever be treasured as one of the great things of life because of the conditions under which it was completed. Many of the papers I heard when first given and all of them are full of interest to me.

I see by the papers that you left the hospital yesterday. I hope Butler may see you for a few minutes today. As you are aware he and I go to California tonight and I hope when we return I shall be able to once more look upon your face.

Yours, as always,

Mr. N. C. Dougherty, Peoria, Ill.

My dear Mr. Dougherty:-

I have your letter of February 17th, and thank you very cordially for the good words which it contains.

I am leaving in ten minutes for the Hospital. What the future has in store we do not know, but one thing is certain. It cannot take away the past; and some of the most pleasant hours of the past I can honestly say I have spent with you and through you. You have helped me in a great many ways. You have brought me into touch with a great many men. You have strengthened me at a great many times. For all of which I thank you most profoundly.

Please give my best regards to Mrs. Dougherty and Mabel and believe me to be,

Yours sincerely,

W. R. Harper
