

Dec. 19th, 1901.

My dear Mr. Barnes:-

Will you take up at once the consideration of the question for the Day of Prayer for Colleges? I wish we might make it a very strong day this year.

Yours very truly,

Dec. 19th, 1901.

My dear Mr. Harman:-

Will you take up at once the consideration of the question for the Day of Prayer for Colleges? I wish we might make it a very strong day this year.

Yours very truly,

Jan. 7th, 1902.

My dear Mr. Barnes:-

Will you take up at once the question of the Day of Prayer for Colleges? We ought to make the arrangements at the meeting of the Board Friday afternoon. Will you be ready with suggestions?

Yours very truly,

Jan. 7th, 1908.

My dear Mr. Barnes:-

Will you take up at once the question of the Day of Prayer for Colleges? We ought to make the arrangements at the meeting of the Board Friday afternoon. Will you be ready with suggestions?

Yours very truly,

The University of Chicago

Department of Botany

The Botanical Gazette

January 10, 1902.

Dear Sir:-

Responding to your note of January 7 regarding the Day of Prayer for colleges, I write to say that I have no suggestion to make other than that we secure a speaker of the highest reputation to address us on that day. You are in a position to know better than I who is available under the circumstances. I do not know that we could do better than to have the University preacher speak. I suggest that classes between 10:30 and 12 be suspended on that day and that students be invited to assemble in Kent Theater to hear this address. I do not

I do not understand that a meeting of the Christian Union occurs today. At least I have had no notice of such meeting, and there is no indication on the calendar.

Yours truly,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "C. R. Barnes". The signature is written in dark ink and is underlined with a single horizontal line.

President W. R. Harper,

The University.

The University of Chicago

The Botanical Gazette

Department of Botany

January 10, 1902.

Dear Sir:-

Responding to your note of January 7 regarding the Day of Prayer for colleges, I write to say that I have no suggestion to make other than that we secure a speaker of the highest reputation to address us on that day. You are in a position to know better than I who is available under the circumstances. I do not know that we could do better than to have the University preacher speak. I suggest that classes between 10:30 and 12 be suspended on that day and that students be invited to assemble in Kent Theater to hear this address. I do not understand that a meeting of the Christian Union occurs today. At least I have had no notice of such meeting, and there is no indication on the calendar.

Yours truly,

W. R. Harper

President W. R. Harper,
The University.

The University