May 3rd, 1900

Chicago

Dr. Harper

President University

Dear Sir,

I was notified this day of the vacancy in the department of French at the University for which position I take the liberty to offer my services to you. I am a born French woman, and reside in the United States since 1892.

Yours with respect,

Anna Dreyfus
I have had various experiences as teacher in schools, for the last five years I am living here in Minneapolis where I took up private work. Among my pupils I count number of college students and school teachers. I beg to say that I am capable to fill the offered position and can convince you that you will receive the best of recommendations from College Professors as well as other prominent people of Minneapolis.
SHE TELLS OF DREYFUS

Mlle. Anna Dreyfus of Minneapolis was a Visitor at Rennes.

Attended the Session of the Court-martial on Aug. 19.

To a Times Representative She Tells of the Proceedings.

Mlle. Anna Dreyfus, a resident of Minneapolis living at 425 Ninth street, returned to this city Monday from a visit to Rennes, the capital of the department of Ille et Vilaine, in Brittany.

She made a trip to Rennes and attended one session of the Court-martial. She was the guest of Mlle. Ernestine Beaugrand, who is a prominent French writer and publisher of the Nouvelle Revue Illustrée.

The session of the court-martial was continued on Tuesday and Wednesday.

She was unable to attend the latter, but she mentioned that the court was very well conducted.

She also met with Mlle. Marie Dreyfus, the sister of Alfred Dreyfus, who is the defendant in the case.

Mlle. Marie Dreyfus is a student of the University of Rennes.

She stated that the court was composed of seven judges, and that the trial had been conducted in a fair and impartial manner.

Mlle. Anna Dreyfus was unable to attend the final session of the court-martial, but she expressed the opinion that the proceedings had been conducted in a just and fair manner.

She also mentioned that the trial had been attended by a large number of spectators, including many members of the French government.

The trial has been characterized by a great deal of interest and excitement, and has attracted considerable attention both at home and abroad.

She stated that she had been impressed by the fairness and impartiality of the judges, and that the proceedings had been conducted in a manner which should inspire confidence in the justice of the system.

She also mentioned that she had been struck by the fact that the trial had been conducted in a manner which was entirely unlike the trials which are held in the United States.

Mlle. Anna Dreyfus expressed the hope that the trial would be concluded as soon as possible, and that justice would be done to the defendant.

She also mentioned that she had been impressed by the fact that the trial had been conducted in a manner which was entirely unlike the trials which are held in the United States.

She stated that she had been impressed by the fairness and impartiality of the judges, and that the proceedings had been conducted in a manner which should inspire confidence in the justice of the system.

She also mentioned that she had been struck by the fact that the trial had been conducted in a manner which was entirely unlike the trials which are held in the United States.
WELSH DELEGATES HERE

Close on business of Government to report on Canada as a field for Immigration.

There arrived, by the new Allen Line steamship "Canadian," on Thursday, the Counties with the principal of Wales, who have been solicited by the Government to visit Canada and report on the value of the country as a field for immigration.

The deputation, immediately upon their ar-ival at the hotel, drove to the "Wanderer" Hotel and remained there on Friday. They then went to Ottawa to-day.

The deputation consists of Mr. D. Lloyd George, member of Parliament for the Eccles Parliamentary Division of Wrexham,
Mr. W. S. Morgan, member of Parliament for Denbigh, Mr. W. G. Morgan, member of A. Montesano, member of Parliament for Wrexham, and one of the most clever and able political writers on Welsh acditions.

The members of the deputation being here at the request of the Government, did not fail themselves justified in discussing questions of economic politics. Mr. Lloyd George has been in the habit of placing the case of the United States, in order to give the true importance of the visitor's mission, and the aim of the deputation, as far as the established policy and the political exigencies of the day are considered, but his statements were not made in a spirit of belligerence, but he is not disposed to be in any way hostile to British interests, and he is anxious to secure a friendly understanding between Canada and Wales.

The deputation had very little to say at the present time about the purpose of their mission.

Hearing an Agreement.

Washington, Sept. 5.—Great Britain and the United States have practically agreed upon a treaty which will affect the boundaries of the two countries, and it is expected that a treaty will be signed.

The treaty will affect the boundaries of Canada and the United States.

The treaty will affect the boundaries of Canada and the United States.