FA New York Nov 29, 1915,
Prest Harry P Judson,

U of C

Mr Harry Ford wishes me to ask you to select a student to join with the representatives of fifteen other prominent universities and accompany him on his peace mission as his guest. Mr Ford desires the selection to be made on the same basis as the Rhodes scholarship, except that undergraduates of student leadership are preferred to postgraduate. A belief in international understanding and federation is a requisite, and a knowledge of foreign languages will be an asset. The trip will take about six weeks sailing from New York Dec 4th. Kindly wire collect your recommendation, if any, with details of character, college standing and college activities immediately, as selection is already under consideration.

Louis P Lochner, Secretary to Mr Ford.

The Postal Telegraph-Cable Company in connection with the Commercial Cable Company

The greatest Telegraph and Cable System in the World. Extends over two-thirds of the Way around the Earth.

The Postal Telegraph-Cable Company (Inc.)
Transmits and delivers the within message subject to the following terms and conditions:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the message written on the face hereof and the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any unrepeated message, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any repeated message beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured, nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

Correctness in the transmission of messages to any point on the lines of the Company can be insured by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon, at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz.: one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance.

No responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of this Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery at a greater distance a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

This Company shall not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the Company for transmission.

This is an unrepeated message and is transmitted and delivered by request of the sender under the conditions named above. Errors can be guarded against only by repeating a message back to the sending station for comparison.

The above terms and conditions shall be binding upon the receiver as well as the sender of this message.

No employee of this Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

Clarence H. Mackay, President.
Edward J. Nally, Vice-Pres't. and General Manager.
Charles P. Bruch, Third Vice-Pres't.

Dec. 27th, 1916

President Harry Pratt Judson,
Chicago,
Illinois.

My dear President Judson:

I have been trying to see what I could do with regard to your request of December 8th. I have been waiting for two months for an opportunity to see Henry Ford personally on some matters of my own and the opportunity has not come yet. I do not know whether I can get to him at all. I had put your matter up to some who are near Mr. Ford and they tell me there is no chance except through the regular channels, that is, through a letter address to him which will fall into the hands of his secretaries and be dealt with by them. I am sorry but the situation seems inexorable and unalterable. However I may have a chance to see Mr. Ford on other matters and if so, I will speak to him of your plans.

With best wishes for the new year to you and Mrs. Judson, I am,

Yours sincerely,

Charles Williams

President, University of Illinois

Dear President Heyer:

I have been thinking of you, and I wanted to let you know that I have been working for an opportunity to see how your Presbyterian Bearers of the Works, and I do not know whether I can get to him for it. I have been working on a letter to you, and I wish to see how you would feel about it. I have seen a number of letters of this sort, and I wonder whether I should write you about it. I am sorry to trouble you, but I thought I would let you know how I feel about it when I get to work on your plan.

With best wishes,

Your sincerely,

Dear Bishop Williams:

Thank you very much for your kind note of the 27th inst. Do I understand that your suggestion about the "regular channels" means that a letter addressed to him might properly come from me personally? Of course in many such cases a letter of that character never gets beyond the secretaries.

With sincere regards and best wishes for the new year for you and your family, I am,

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. William:

Thank you very much for your kind note of the 27th instant. I appreciate that your suggestion about the render of the "render appeal" means that a letter of application to the Office of Public Administration to make the necessary changes to the property came from me personally.

At present in many cases a letter at the character of the person is never given, so that the suggestion is of the greatest importance to your firm. I have therefore made the necessary changes to the property.

With sincere regards and best wishes for the new year.

Yours very truly,
