Goethe Monument

CHICAGO

My dear Mr. Angell,

I suggest the following form of invitation which I trust you will feel entitled to modify according to your own sense of fitness:

The Executive Committee of the Goethe Monument Association ~~invites~~ invites The ~~Union~~ University of Chicago - its Students, Faculty, and Trustees - to attend officially in cap and gown the formal unveiling of the Goethe Monument in Lincoln Park, corner of Diversey Boulevard and Sheridan Road, Saturday, June 13th, at 3:00 P.M. In accordance with President Judson's official acceptance of this invitation, I am asking you, as guest of the Goethe Monument Association, ^{at 3:00} to join the ninth division of the parade on Dearborn Avenue, between Rush and Schiller Street, and to march thence to seats before the monument, especially reserved for members of our University. Judge Michael Girken and Mr. George A. von Massow are in command of the parade. Those finding it convenient to do so may assemble at 1:30 P.M. and proceed together to Lincoln Park.

THE QUADRANGLE CLUB

Dear Mr. Angell,

The procession of the Goethe Monument Celebration formed at 2:30 sharp between Burton Place and Schiller Street on Dearborn Ave. and the march to the Monument begins at 2:45 P. M. Our University representatives ought to leave one half hour earlier than suggested in our recent conference.

The Devon trolley cars from 55th St. reach the point of departure of the parade in about forty-five minutes. This alternative route might be mentioned in your letter.

An official bulletin
in front of Cobb Hall
reminding our students of the celebration and of the invitation extended so thru by the Monument Association to participate in cap and gown, with data like those now in your possession, would doubtless stimulate student participation in the event.

Yours faithfully,
Evan W. Tuttle
