Pres. Harper is given honorary LL.D. by Yale on occasion of 200th Anniversary of Founding of Yale College.

Oct 1901
CROSS REFERENCE SHEET

Name or Subject  A. E. Hadley

Regarding

Date

SEE

Name or Subject  Harper 1901

Distinguished Persons, Letters of File No.

File cross reference form under name or subject at top of the sheet and by the latest date of papers. Describe matter for identification purposes. The papers, themselves should be filed under name or subject after "SEE."
The President and Fellows of Yale University have the honor to invite you to be present in New Haven Connecticut on Wednesday October the twenty third nineteen hundred and one to receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws at the celebration of the two hundredth anniversary of the Founding of Yale College.

Benjamin T. Carman, President

To William Channing Harper, Ph.D., D.D., LL.D.,
President of the University of Chicago
SEND the following message subject to the terms on back hereof, which are hereby agreed to.

To President A. T. Hadley,

Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut.

My thoughts go back this week to Yale. Twenty-five years ago I received my doctorate. Congratulations and best wishes for your administration.

William R. Harper

(D)

Uncharged.

† READ THE NOTICE AND AGREEMENT ON BACK. †
ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the following message and this Company, that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any unrepeated message, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any repeated message, beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured, nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

Correctness in the transmission of a message to any point on the lines of this Company can be insured by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon, at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz, one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance. No employee of the Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

No responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery at a greater distance, a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

The Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the Company for transmission.

THOS. T. ECKERT, President and General Manager
My dear Dr. Harper:

In the midst of the pressure of business, old and new, I have let your telegram go too long unacknowledged. Pray accept my grateful recognition of your kindness in sending it. It was one of the pleasures of the week to receive such a greeting from an old Yale man, now occupying the position which you hold.

Yours, as ever,

[Signature]
Mr. George H. Harker:

I am the name of the person...

I have been... have you... for your... to be very important.

I hope to receive your reply as soon as possible.

I am one of the... of the... of the week to receive and a... from an... I... you.

Yours ever,

[Signature]
My dear Mr. Harper:—

The relation of the great gifts of the past year to the future, like those of Carnegie or Rhodes, is so problematical that I do not as early as this venture to estimate their importance.

I believe that we are surer and safer if we content ourselves with emphasizing the less salient but more fundamentally important points concerning the increased attendance at our higher institutions of learning and increased public interest therein.

The movement which in some quarters is hailed with so much enthusiasm, of confining the courses in the professional schools to college graduates, seems to me on the whole a movement in the wrong direction; and I should be disposed to say as little about it as possible in an address of the kind you have in mind.

Faithfully yours,

[Signature]
Mr. Gray, Mr. Walter:

The relation of the great risks of the past year to the future, like those of Centenary or Rogers, is so profoundly felt that I go not as early as this venture to estimate their importance.

I believe that we are safer and safer if we continue our services with emphasis on the less efficient and more fundamentally important points concerning the increased efficiency of our higher institutions of learning and increased public interest therein.

The movement which in some quarters is meeting with so much enthusiasm of continuing the course in the professional schools to college graduates seems to me on the whole a movement in the wrong direction, and I should be disposed to say so as little a point as possible in any speech of the kind you have in mind.

Sincerely yours,
July 10, 1905.

President Arthur T. Hadley,
Yale University,
New Haven, Conn.

My dear President Hadley:—

I wish to acknowledge your kind letter of July 1st and the pleasant words which it contains. I have felt for a long time that Mr. Rockefeller must make a gift to Yale, and I have never lost an opportunity to urge it, indeed to fight for it.

I appreciate more than I can tell you your kind words concerning my service.

Hoping that you are well and everything goes well with you, I remain,

Yours very truly,

W. R. Harper
July 10, 1906

Mr. President, Honorable.

Yale University
New Haven, Conn.

My dear President Hayley:

I wish to acknowledge your kind letter of July 7th and the pleasant message which it contained. I have felt for a long time that Mr. Rockefeller must make a visit to Yale, and I have never lost an opportunity to urge it. Indeed, I myself have frequently urged that you should come over and that I can tell you more about kind words concerning my services.

Having the assurance that you are well and everything goes well with you, I remain

Yours very truly,

W.R. Harper
Yale University
New Haven, Connecticut

President's Office
Woodbridge Hall, 105 Wall Street

July 1st, 1905.

My dear Dr. Harper:

In connection with the very delightful gift from Mr. Rockefeller, I want to express my thanks to you for the part which your influence has played in rendering Mr. Rockefeller friendly to Yale. I have been delighted that amid your own large work and heavy burdens at Chicago you have not forgotten your love for the old place here.

We are looking with admiration on the splendid fight which you have been making against disease. With congratulations and best wishes, I am

Faithfully yours,

[Signature]

President William R. Harper,
The University of Chicago.
June 1st, 1909

My dear Mr. Harper:

In connection with the very national gift from Mr. Rockefeller, I want to express my sincere gratitude for your influence in placing me in Rocke-fer... I have been greatly impressed with your wise and kind purposes at Chicago.

We are looking with admiration on the splendid gift which you have been making to the University of Chicago.

I am

Fondly yours,

[Signature]

President William R. Harper
The University of Chicago
Pres. Hadley of Yale thanks Harper for influence with Miss Rockefeller in favor of Yale. Hadley is pleased that Harper, despite heavy burdens at Chicago, has not forgotten his love "for the old place here."

1905-
YALE UNIVERSITY
NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT.

June 22, 1915.

My dear President Judson:—

It appears to conflict with the normal services. But there are some men on the administrative force at Yale who are not acquainted with Mrs. Max Farrand, who is Professor of American History here. But I fear that you are not acquainted with Mrs. Max Farrand, although she is equally distinguished in her own line of work — that of landscape architecture.

She has charge of the development of the grounds at Princeton; and in connection with this work and other work of similar character, she is anxious to see something of the treatment adopted at Chicago University.

She is to be in Chicago this coming Sunday, June twenty-seventh, on her way west. She arrives at eight in the morning and leaves at five in the afternoon. The importance of the work that she is doing is such that I hope you can find someone who can call at the Congress Hotel, where she will be staying, to take her out to the University and show her the things she needs to see. If your secretary can send her a note at the hotel telling what arrangements it has been possible to make, she will be there at any hour you may designate. I understand that the most convenient time for her would be the latter part of the forenoon.

I am sorry that her visit to Chicago is so short and that
My dear President Johnson:

I think you already know Mr. Max

I attended a meeting of the American Historical Association recently. I heard that you were not satisfied with the Max I attended. I hope that you were not satisfied with the Max I attended.

I thank you for the thought of your interest in my work. I have been curious to see something of the chief of a landscape architect.

I am aware of the development of the stay of

President; and in connection with the work and other work of similar character, I am anxious to see something of the treatment adopted at Chicago University.

She is to be in Chicago this coming Sunday. I hope concerning our recent meeting. The interest of the and issues of the day. In the afternoon. The importance of the work that we are going to make. I hope you can find some one who can assist at the Congress Hotel. Where we will be staying.

the to take part out of the University and some part the chance the need to see. If your secretary can send her a note of the hotel getting what arrangements have been possible to make, she will be there. I am sure you will see that get along the most convenient time for her to meet the

I am sorry that I am going to Chicago to be short and that Letter belt of the President.

the hour suggested appears to conflict with the church services. But there are men on the administrative force at Yale who have been known to welcome a good excuse for not attending church; and it is possible that such persons may exist in Chicago also. Any help that you can render to Mrs. Farrand in this matter will be an important service to Princeton and will put me under great obligations personally.

Very sincerely,

[Signature]

President Harry Pratt Judson,
University of Chicago.

[Signature]

President Arthur F. Hadley
Yale University
New Haven, Connecticut
Chicago, July 1, 1915.

My dear President Hadley:—

Your favor of June 22nd came while I was absent from Chicago. I understand, however, that my Secretary planned to receive Mrs. Farrand and to see that she saw all that she wished. I am sorry not to have met her in person.

With sincere regards, I am

Very truly yours,

H.P.J.—D.

President Arthur T. Hadley
Yale University
New Haven, Connecticut
Chicago, July 1, 1915

My dear President Heffley:

Your favor of June 25th came while I was away from Chicago. I understand, however, that my secretary has managed to receive the notification and to see that the new set of cards were issued to him in person.

With sincere regards, I am

Very truly yours,

H. T. J. C.

President of the National University of New Haven, Connecticut