Dear Sir:

Your reply to our statement on the "Articulation of High School and College", together with the others we have received, throws such valuable light upon the subject that we feel we ought to publish these replies especially for use at the meeting of the National Education Association to be held July 2nd.

We are sending you, under separate cover, an advance-pamphlet containing these replies. Should you desire any change or modification in your own statement, please send me such change or modification in time to have the same inserted in lieu of your original statement.

Dear Sir:

Committee of
At the meeting of the One hundred of "The Men And Religion Forward Movement" held at the Grand Pacific Hotel last Monday you were appointed a member of a Committee on work for Students. The purpose of the Committee being defined as follows:

"The duty of this Committee is to study the means now employed by the local Church and other organizations for dealing with the Student problem, to organize conferences on the subject, and to formulate plans for each local church to carry on a continuous campaign with its men who are absent at Universities and Colleges, University and College students residing in the vicinity, and young College graduates in the church and community, to induce them while in college to engage in religious study and actively identify themselves with Religious organizations and after graduation to identify themselves actively with the church and its undertakings."

President Nollen of Lake Forrest University and Mr. Foster the Secretary of the Central Y. M. C. A. who were present have consented to serve on the committee. The gentleman who is to act as Executive Secretary for the movement does not begin his duties until the first of June and therefore the Chairman of each Committee was requested to notify the persons appointed upon that Committee and urge them to accept the appointment.

If the Committee shall aid at all in the solution of the difficult problem assigned to it, any time and labor devoted to it would have been well spent.

Kindly let me hear from you at your earliest convenience. Very sincerely yours,

C. T. B. Goodspeed
DEAR MR. PRESIDENT,

At the meeting at one hundred of the men and women for the national conference held at the Grand Pacific Hotel last Monday, you were asked to be a member of a Committee on work for students. The purpose of the Committee is to study the means now employed by the local chapters and other organizations for reaching with the students, and to form a method of organizing conferences on the subject and to form a committee plan to carry on a continuous campaign with the students and influence and college executives in the churches and community to include every college executive in religious work and enter into active cooperation with religious organizations and other groups.

The Committee on the Social Gospel Universities and Colleges is to confer with the Executive Secretary of the National Student Christian Federation to plan a conference to be held in Chicago, April 12-14. It is desired that every college executive, religious worker, and student shall be represented.

I am writing to request your assistance in organizing the Committee and to express the hope that you will be able to attend the conference.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. Meager also reported for the Young Men's Christian Association that E. T. Williams had been elected to the position of Inter-Church Secretary and would give his services beginning June 1st to the Men and Religion Forward Movement without cost to the committee. Mr. Williams was introduced and addressed at the meeting briefly.

On motion duly seconded the Chairman of each committee was requested to formulate a short statement of the duties of his committee and send same to the Campaign Committee at an early date for revision and further action.

On motion duly seconded the Nominating Committee was continued until all the committees are completed.

It was moved and seconded that the Campaign Committee prepare at an early date a short circular for distribution containing the organization of the Committee of Ninety-seven, a list of the participating organizations, the Chicago Committee of One Hundred and the several sub-committees, a list of denominational secretaries and such other matter as it may deem proper,—the whole to be arranged and prepared by the Campaign Committee.

The matter of a general banquet before the summer vacation period at which an announcement of the program for Chicago should be made was on motion referred to the Executive Committee with power to act.
On motion the Campaign Committee was authorized to select some regular place of meeting where on stated occasions, preferably at the noon hour, members of the several committees and men interested in the movement may meet others similarly interested.

On motion duly seconded the Executive Committee was empowered to rent an office, procure a stenographer and other help needed.

On motion the resignation of Henry P. Grossell as Vice-Chairman was accepted and Frank Dyer was elected as his successor.

On motion the resignation of Henry S. Herrschen as Treasurer was accepted.

The matter of presenting the Men and Religion Forward Movement in the churches of the city was discussed at length and on motion the matter was referred to the Executive Committee with power to act.

On motion duly seconded the following men were elected to membership on the Committee of One Hundred:

G. R. Stauffer
We. T. Robinson
H. T. Williams
H. A. Shannon
Rev. Elmer L. Williams
T. H. Trenholm
E. H. Hughes.

On motion the Campaign committee was requested to prepare a budget of estimated expenses for the Chicago Campaign.

On motion the committee adjourned to meet Monday,

My dear Brother:—

After very careful consideration, our Committee have decided to hold the Great Congress in connection with the Men and Religion Movement in New York City, April 19th to 24th.

I have conferred with some of the strongest leaders of our largest Church bodies, and they have urged that we send out a call to every organization, so far as possible, in the Church, asking that they regard this convention as a heroic call for Christian patriotism.

We want to make a demonstration which will probably illustrate masculine power of Protestant Christianity.

Will you not put your own great influence behind this Congress, and urge the attendance of the strongest men with whom you are in fellowship?

One-half day in the Congress will be given to special meetings of various Church Boards, Committees and Organizations, and it will be a source of great power if we can announce that many of our organizations in the Church are calling meetings for that day. The exact time will be definitely announced a little later, but I should say now that Monday forenoon, the 22nd, will doubtless be set aside for that purpose.

In addition to this request for personal co-operation in securing strong delegates, let me also request that you join us in prayer that the blessing of Almighty God may be given in a marvelous way in this convention.

Very sincerely yours,

Campaign Leader.

CONTINENTAL CONSERVATION CONGRESS IN BEHALF OF A WORLD CHRISTIAN BROTHERHOOD, CARNEGIE HALL, NEW YORK CITY, APRIL 19-24, 1912.
After a very careful consideration, our committee have agreed to hold the Great Congress in connection with the Men's and Religion Movement in New York City, April 14th to 24th.

We want to make a demonstration which will properly interpret the meaning of our great work. Our committee decided to have the attendance of the ministers and men at the Congress, and we hope that they will be pleased with the arrangements.

One part of the Congress will be given to special meetings of various groups. Our goal is to have a wide range of interest and cooperation in these meetings. We hope that they will be well planned and well attended.

I am sure that everyone will be pleased with the arrangements. I am glad that we can work together for a more united effort. I am sure that we can achieve our goals if we work together.

Very sincerely yours,

At a recent meeting of the Executive Committee of the China Society of America, it was resolved to extend an invitation to certain college presidents, who are interested in the intellectual development of the Orient, to become Honorary Vice-Presidents of the Society, the purposes of which are set forth in the heading of this paper. Many of the gentlemen invited, including Presidents Finley, Stanley Hall, David Starr Jordan and Benjamin Ide Wheeler, have accepted. May we not venture to hope that your name may be added to the list?

I shall be very glad to accept your invitation to become one of the honorary vice-presidents of the China Society of America. I am, as you suspect, most thoroughly and enthusiastically in favour of those principles which give the foundation to that Society. Nothing in the world of international issues evokes in me a more cordial response than the encouragement of China's new nationality. She is disposed to be friendly toward us—to treat us, indeed, as her best friend—and we ought to live up to that opportunity. To: All Faculty Members:

I am pleased to accept your invitation to participate in the centennial celebrations of the University of California. As one of the University's most distinguished scholars, I wish to express my appreciation for the opportunity to share in this historic occasion.

The centennial anniversary is a time to reflect on our past and envision our future. It is a time to celebrate the achievements of our predecessors and inspire the next generation of scholars. The University of California has a rich history of excellence in teaching, research, and service. We are fortunate to be part of an institution that has contributed so much to the advancement of knowledge and understanding.

I look forward to the centennial celebrations and hope that we will use this occasion to celebrate our achievements and strive for even greater accomplishments in the future.

Sincerely,
