My dear Dr. Goodspeed:

I will disabuse Mr. Linn's mind of any intention on your part to hold him down, and also of your having made any mistake. The case is exactly as you put it, and I am responsible for the word "assistantship" instead of "associateship". $666 was provided for two-thirds work, the basis being $1,000.

Yours very truly,
Dear Dr. Harper,

The action relating to Mr. Linn was as follows. "James W. Linn, whose term expires July 1, 1901, has been appointed to an assistantship in English for one year, at a salary of $1000. as provided in the Budget." This came in this form from your office.

I am humiliated over this. Because Linn supposes I made the mistake and probably believes I am committed to a deliberate attempt to hold him down.

Two years ago he was reappointed at $600. When I notified him he insisted that it was mistaken. The action was afterward changed but was given $200. min. He believes this day not only that I was wrong but that I should have made the increase. This new item is more in his account against me, an amount far his harm friend.

Yours truly,
T. Godfrey

Dear Mr. Harper,

I am writing to express my concern about the proposed changes to the curriculum at the University of Chicago. As a member of the faculty, I believe that these changes will have far-reaching implications for the academic integrity of the institution.

The current plan to introduce a new focus on interdisciplinary studies is commendable, but it is important that we do not compromise the core values that have made the University of Chicago a leader in education. I urge you to consider the potential consequences of these changes and to consult with the faculty before finalizing any decisions.

Sincerely,

My dear Dr. Goodspeed:

I do not think you ought to advance Linn faster than the law calls for. Now that we have got him safely into a position of an Associateship, that ought to do, but I think that your suggestion that he be announced in the coming Convocation is a good one. Will you kindly see that his name gets into the list.

Yours very truly,
March 19th, 1903.

My dear Mr. Linn:

I am in receipt of your letter of March 13th.

I appreciate very much indeed the statement which it contains. As a matter of fact, your surmise is correct. Your letter is the first intimation to me of the clipping. I have long since learned to make large allowance for newspaper statements. I am returning Mr. Vincent's letter.

Thanking you for your courtesy, I remain yours very truly,

W. R. Harper

My dear Mr. Field:

I am in receipt of your letter of May 16th.

I appreciate very much having the opportunity to continue as a matter of fact, your interest in contact. Your letter is the first intimation to me of the application. I can understand to make future allowance for newspaper advertisements. I am continuing Mr. Vincent's letter.

Thanking you for your contract I remain

Yours very truly,

W. R. Harper

L. R. Heifer, President:

Dear Dr. Heifer:

In view of the wide publicity which has been given to the statements in the enclosed newspaper clipping, I asked Mr. Vincent, who had read my name, if he would tell me what he thought of their truth. He gave me permission to enclose herewith his letter to me. It is very possible that this matter has not yet come to your attention, but I intitle it on your notice because I should dislike very much to have you fancy, even for a moment, that I caused to so dishonorable a thing as is charged against me in the clipping.

May I ask the return of Mr. Vin-
Dear Mr. Jones,

Not a letter? I might have sent a copy, but I thought the original perhaps more to the point.

My dear Mr. Linn:

I finished reading last night your Chameleon. I want to tell you that it seems to me to be a strong piece of work. I enjoyed it exceedingly. I have no doubt that the book will be a source of help to many people. I can name half a dozen persons who might easily derive from it great benefit.

With much appreciation, I remain

My dear Mr. Finn:

I finished reading your book. Isn't it remarkable that it seems to me to be a strange piece of work.

I enjoyed it exceedingly. I can only hope that the book will be a source of help to many people. I can make part a good because who might easily derive from it great benefit.

Dear Mr. Linn:-

I have your favor and am glad to know of your decision. If on the whole your inclinations lead you toward the academic life, as seems to be the case, I am sure that in the long run you will not regret having continued in it. The temptations of journalism are sometimes considerable, and as I said before I think it is after all mainly a question of one's vocation.

With best wishes, I am,

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Evans:

I have your letter and am glad to know of your position. It is on the whole your position I seek.

I heard from you that you are leaving the academic field and seem to be the case, as was once the case at the Temple. I hope you will not regret having continued to it. The Temple.

You are to return to your permanent office, and as I write now I think it is time I express a devotion of one a year.

Yours.

With best wishes I am,

Very truly yours,
