My dear Mr. Chandler,

Mrs. Hale was kind enough to say she would like to see you. Various plans, cards, etc. I found something nice for her. This evening.
To my Cousin,

I trust this letter finds you well. I have been meaning to write for some time now, but life has been busy. I hope everything is going well with you and your family.

I must say, I was delighted to hear of your recent travels. It sounds like a marvelous experience. I wish I could have accompanied you, but my duties at home prevent me from doing so. Rest assured, I am always thinking of you and keeping you in my thoughts.

Please write back soon and let me know how everything is going. I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

[Signature]
March 14th, 1906.

My dear Mrs. Lowden:

I shall send to Mrs. Hale's house, where they will be ready for you tomorrow, notes and cards to be signed by the students who were awarded loans by the Students' Fund Society at the meeting yesterday. The forms which we use are enclosed. All the students will need to do will be to sign the notes which will be made out and to put their addresses and names on the back of the cards which will go with the notes. I shall send to Mrs. Hale's also, for your guidance, the applications in accordance with which loans were granted. After the candidates have gone the notes should be mailed to Mr. Arthur Heurtley, the Treasurer of the Students' Fund Society, care of the Northern Trust Company. Mrs. Hale has handled this matter before and can show you just how to do it. The other material Mrs. Hale can return to me. Today it may help you if I give you the appointments for tomorrow as I have made them. They will come in the following order: eleven o'clock, Mr. Bovee; eleven-
My dear Mr. Houseman,

I am truly sorry to hear that the home where you will be residing for the remainder of the summer season has been lost.  The fact that you were one of the students who were among those who were affected by the futility of the meeting tonight, I am very sorry, and it is my sincere hope that you will be able to find a new home and settle in as quickly as possible.

We are all concerned about the welfare of all the students who will be moving out.  It is only fair that we try to ease your transition as smoothly as possible.  Therefore, we have decided to offer you a scholarship to help with your expenses while you are settling in your new home.

Please let me know how we can assist you in this transition.  I am confident that we can find a solution that will work for both of us.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Postscript:  Since we have not heard from Mr. Houseman recently, we will come to the assumption that he has moved to his new home and is settling in.  If you need any further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact us.
fifteen, Mr. Cleven; eleven-thirty, Miss Cox; eleven-forty-five, Miss Mills; twelve o'clock, Mr.
Hultman; and twelve-fifteen, Mrs. Alderman, Mr.
Bell, Mr. Bryan, Mr. Bowers, Mr. Burke, Mr. Johnson, Mr. Riley, and Miss Willison. The last named persons have received aid before and consequently nothing more than an introduction and the formality of signing the notes will be necessary. Just a word any suggest of the character of the students who will have individual appointments:

Mr. Bovee is the man who was refused a loan last year because it was not felt he was economizing as closely as he could and his record was low. Since that time he has apparently worked more steadily and at any rate has established a better grade in his courses. He is a very attractive person with a good voice and is now earning part of his way by singing and coaching a glee club.

Mr. Cleven is a hard working student who will receive his Bachelor's degree from the University this quarter and is going on for a degree in the School
Mr. Cleaver eleven-fifteen; Miss Miller fourteen-thirty; Mr. Hitlman and twenty-five; Mr. Abberline.

Mr. Bivin, Mr. Roemer, Mr. Price, Mr. Johnson.

The last name, Dyer.

The notes written in pencil will have necessary just a word or two. Ample character of the students who will have their Afternoon replenishment.

Mr. Dyer to the men who were noted a loan last

Your presence is not only one of the economy as Shepherd's as in company and the record now for since that time he has been working more steadily and in any case has satisfactorily a better grade in the conference. He is a very astute person with a good voice and in new earnest part of his way of thinking and company a free chip.

Mr. Cleaver is a fairly well-received student who will receive the preparation degree from the University. The department and to be fair for a degree in the School of Education and for special preparation for a teacher. He has earned two-thirds of his tuition during the present quarter by University service which is not very remunerative, yielding only twenty cents an hour, and covered the cost of his board by waiting on table in the cafe.

Miss Cox will shortly take her degree and needs money to complete her college course. She is an excellent student and has a refined mother. Her need is due partly to the fact that her father does not help.

Miss Mills is a good student who was hampered during the autumn, however, by the necessity of doing about twenty-four hours a week of house work to pay her way. It is to relieve her of part of this burden that she now seeks a loan.

Mr. Hultman is an excellent stenographer and has been earning his way by doing typewriting, but his work has interfered with his success in the Law School and he asks for a loan in order that he may have more time for his studies.
...
Perhaps it will be just as well not to mention the candidates who will come together because there will be no time for more than a word with them in any event. I will see that the records are at Mrs. Hale's house tomorrow morning in good season so that if you can come out a few minutes before eleven o'clock you can get all the information there is. You probably have Mrs. Hale's address, 5757 Lexington Avenue.

Very truly yours,

H. P. Chandler
Secretary to the President

Mrs. Frank O. Lowden,

1912 Prairie Avenue,

Chicago.
Perhaps it will be just as well not to mention the candidates who will come together progressively

there will be no time for more than a word with me at any event. I will see that the record be at my disposal tomorrow morning in good season so that if you can come out a few minutes before eleven o'clock you can get all the information from there. I've been properly warned that my trousers have met with green and tawny Aven

Very truly yours,

H. P. Campbell
Secretary to the President

Mr. Frank O. Looman,
14th March, 1923
Grosvenor.