CROSS REFERENCE SHEET

Name or Subject       Mack, Julian

Regarding

Date

SEE

Name or Subject       Law School

File No.

File cross reference form under name or subject at top of the sheet and by the latest date of papers. Describe matter for identification purposes. The papers, themselves should be filed under name or subject after "SEE."
Dear Sir,

Professor Joseph H. Beale Jr.

is Professor of Law at the Harvard Law School, and the work and progress of which he has been closely identified for the last twelve years. Mr. Beale graduated from Harvard College in 1882, and from the Harvard Law School in 1887. He spent a year in Europe, studying chiefly International Law. He has been a member of the Harvard Law faculty since 1889. Mr. Beale is the author of treatises and collections of cases on Customary Law, International Law and (the Conflict of Law). His principal interest at present lies in the branch of law last mentioned to which latter branch of law he is mainly devoting his attention at present.

He has been a frequent contributor to the Harvard Law Review. Mr. Beale, is a member of the firm of Beale, Higginson, and Beale, in Boston, and is about forty years old.

Yours very truly,

Ernst Fleuret
June 3rd, 1903.

Mr. Julian Mack,

153 LaSalle St., Chicago.

My dear Mr. Mack:-

Allow me to express my hearty congratulations upon the outcome of the election. I cannot tell you how greatly pleased I am that the result was so successful in your case.

With best wishes for the future, I remain

Yours very truly,

W. R. Harper
June 3rd, 1903

Mr. Julian Meck

1530 State St., Chicago

My dear Mr. Meck:

Allow me to express my hearty congratulations

Upon the outcome of the action. I cannot tell you how greatly pleased I am that the result was so enourmous in your case.

With best wishes for the future, I remain

Yours very truly,

W. K. Harper
June 4th, 1903.

Dear Doctor Harper;

I am very grateful to you for your congratulations. I hope that judicial duties are not going to be so heavy as to require me to give up any part of the school work. I am sure that at no time will they necessitate my giving up all of it.

Sincerely yours,

President William R Harper,

University of Chicago,

City.
June 4th, 1932

Dear Doctor Huber:

I am very grateful to you for your congratulations. I hope that important duties are not going to force me to leave the University at the present time. I am sure that at least some part of my energies will go on research necessary for my writing.

Sincerely yours,

[Signature]

President William R. Huber

University of Chicago