My dear Mr. Mandel:

Our Trustees were all very glad indeed to hear of your additional gift, and I tried to express our feeling in the Convocation Statement made two days after our Conference. No official meeting of the Trustees has yet been held since the gift was made. Such a meeting will be held this week. I am writing to ask whether you will be kind enough to write me a letter in which you will indicate the proposition as you indicated it to me in person.

I remain

Yours very sincerely

Dear Mr. Mercer:

Our troubles were so severe that I tried to express our feelings to you more fully. In the conference statement made two weeks after the conference, no reference was made to the statement. Since the statement was made a meeting will be held this week I am writing to ask whether you will be able to come. I am writing to write a letter to which you will refer the proposition as you indicated it to me.

I remain

Your very sincerely,

Pres. Harry Pratt Judson,

The University of Chicago,

Chicago, Ill.

Esteemed Sir:

I desire to call your attention to an oversight of some official of the University in your announcements.

It is frequently stated, services or a lecture is to take place at --Mandel Hall--. The understanding and the condition was that the name for all times was to be "Leon Mandel Assembly Hall".

You will pardon me for calling your attention to the oversight, knowing full well that if your attention is called, you will give orders for the correction, and remain

Yours very truly,

Leon Mandel.
Dear Mr. Hatchett Pugh,

The University of Chicago,

Professor Pugh,

I regret to tell you the decision to reorganize the Board of the University has been made and the announcement will be made shortly. We are sorry to inform you of the decision.

Best regards,

Chicago, November 29, 1899

President W. Hoarper,

Dear Sir:

I will give to the University of Chicago the sum of fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars to be used for the erection of a building for assembly purposes, on condition that the building shall be called the Leon Mandel Assembly Hall. I will pay the sum indicated when I am informed that the contract for the building has been let.

Yours Truly,

Leon Mandel.

My dear Mr. McFarland:

Mr. Leon Mandel protests that the University should use on all official publications of any sort the full appellation of the Leon Mandel Assembly Hall. I suppose that he wishes to include also tickets to that hall in his list of correctly phrased printed matter. What kind of ticket can you make, using the full name on the main part of the ticket?

Sincerely yours,

D. A. Robertson

Mr. George W. McPherson

Mr. Leo Hendel

Dear Mr. McPherson:

I am happy to announce that the University will be open for the Fall semester. I am writing to inform you of the plans for the Assembly Hall. I have been informed that a number of changes are being made in the program for the next year.

What kind of tickets can you make, since the tickets are already made?

Sincerely yours,

D. A. Robertson
