He was a member of the Chicago Society of Artists, the Society of Western Artists, the Artists' Guild, and former president of the Palette and Chisel Club. He was a frequent exhibitor at all important exhibitions held in the Art Institute. On his return he joined the Art Institute faculty, where he taught until last December.

Mural decorations in several public buildings and private homes.
Although the Exhibition Committee has its own special lines of work, its members desire to assist the Municipal Art League in every way, and reports of the work being done by the other committees of the League are heard at all regular Exhibition Committee meetings.

The Exhibition Committee feels that the importance of its work cannot be written in words. Private persons have been led to the study and appreciation of the Arts. Clubs have broadened out and grown generous and liberal through association with the Committee and from its humble efforts have grown larger and more powerful organizations which carry the work into more and more wonderful fields of endeavor.

Mr. David A. Robertson,
Secretary to the President,
The University of Chicago.

My dear Mr. Robertson:—

As Mr. Clarkson has already informed you, the Directors of the Municipal Art League take great pleasure in lending its Art Gallery to the University of Chicago until the first of October. It consists of one bronze terminal and fifteen canvases and has a money value of six thousand dollars ($6000.00). There are two unimportant canvases belonging to the collection which we are not sending.

As the entire collection has never been lent but once before, we have no printed form of agreement covering the transaction. I have written the Director pro tem of the Art Institute, Mr. Carpenter, that the Gallery is to go to you for the summer months and the details of insurance and transportation will be arranged through him.

I am enclosing the biographical notes of all but four of the artists represented and those will go to you by a later mail. The pictures are all labeled with brass plates and we will see that frames and glass are in perfect order before they are taken from the Institute.

With the wish that the Gallery will give pleasure to many who would not otherwise see it during the summer, I am,

Yours very truly,

[Signature]
