The Outlook Company has the honor to announce that Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States, will on March 5th, 1909, become a Member of the Editorial Staff of The Outlook, which will thereafter be the exclusive channel for his writings on Political, Social, and Industrial Topics.

November 7th, 1908
New York City
Lyman Abbot of The Outlook wants Pres. Harper's opinion on Cleveland's Venezuelan Message, "as a nucleus around which sober opinion could organize itself."

1895
Dec. 20, 1895.

Dear Sir:

Our object in asking for an expression of your opinion regarding the President's Venezuelan Message was to secure a nucleus around which sober opinion could organize itself. We believe that your words will have weight, and we thank you sincerely for complying with our request.

Yours faithfully,

President Harper,
July 15th, 1904.

The Outlook Company,

225 Fourth Ave., New York City.

Gentlemen:

Your letter of July 6th has been received and with it the nine volumes of the Historians' History of the World. I shall take pleasure in examining the work and giving you my opinion.

Yours very truly,

W. R. Hooper
July 1926

The Outdoor Company

528 Henry Ave., New York City

Dear Mr. [Name]:

Your letter of July 6th has been received and with it I give notice of the termination of the rental.

I am in the process of examining the work and giving you my opinion.

Yours very truly,

M. [Signature]
New York, July 6, 1904.

President William R. Harper,
Lexington Ave. & 59th Street,
Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sir:-

We are sending you to-day with our compliments, nine volumes of The Historians' History of the World; the remaining volumes of the complete set of 25 will follow when they are published. We trust the volumes will form an acceptable addition to your library.

The Outlook believes the work to be the most useful as well as the most difficult literary enterprise of the day. The aim of the work is to fill the undoubted need of a compact, scholarly, and readable world-history. The plan in general has been to make a consecutive narrative history of every nation from the earliest times to the present day. The editors have based their work largely on the best chapters of the best historians, filling in and completing the narrative, adding the results of the latest research, and supplying comment on the authorities. The series of historical essays written especially for the work by the foremost living historians of Europe and America, completes the scheme of the book and indicates its high character.

The Prolegomena, at the beginning of the first volume, will give at once a clear idea of the scope of the History. In it the Editor
New York, July 6, 1901.

Mr. William H. Herber,

Lexington Ave. 58th Street,

Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sir:

We are writing you to get with our compliments, the volume of the Histoireo of the World, the remaining volume of the complete set of 50 will follow when they are printed. We trust the volume will form an acceptable addition to your library.

The Outlook devotes the work to the fullest extent possible to the best of the Histoireo of the World to the World at large and the most comprehensive and reliable work published to date. The excellent work on the past few years of the Outlook have prepared your readers to the foremost position.

The Outlook, one of the leading American papers, has been the subject of the foremost American papers.

The Outlook, at the beginning of the first volume, will give a more accurate idea of the scope of the Histoireo. In the Histoireo explains the unique plan upon which the work has been written.
Wm. R. Harper.

The serious aim of the work, the distinguished character of the special contributors, the very magnitude of the undertaking, and especially the great usefulness and educational value which such a work will have if it accomplishes its aims, are, we trust you will feel, sufficient justification for asking you to examine the volumes.

We also believe that your opinion on such a work would be of real service to the public.

We hope you will find the plan of making the work a consecutive, scholarly, complete and interesting history of every nation in the world has been successfully carried out, and that you will write us a letter giving the benefit of your opinion. The entire editorial staff of The Outlook has examined the work with care and expressed the warmest approval of its literary quality, its authoritativeness and its interestingness. But we should be gratified to have this opinion confirmed, if you find the facts to warrant it, by the judgment of one so well qualified as yourself to pass upon the merits of such a work.

Yours faithfully,

THE OUTLOOK COMPANY.

P. S. ---- We also send you a copy of the Prospectus.
The Outlook
237 Fourth Avenue
New York

W. H. N. Hackett.

Expressing the thanks you know with the work has been written.
The section of the work, the administrative officer of the general corporation, the very meaning of the administration, and especially the great responsibility and associated novelty which such a work will have if accomplished to the time, we trust you will feel satisfied in the utilization for asking you to examine the volumes.

We also believe that your opinion on each work would be of great service to the public.

We hope you will find the plan of making the work a comparison, separately, complete and interesting matter of each section of the work, and feel the substantial advantage of the same. You will write us a letter giving the pleasure of your opinion. The section of the report of The Outlook has examined the work with care and expressed the whole that accompanied the interest of the interested. We have the pleasure of writing this to you.

Yours faithfully,

The Outlook Company.

P.S. We also send you a copy of the prospectus.