My dear President Burton:

Under the will of Mr. F. W. Parker the University has received the sum of $1,000. to be used as designated by President Judson or his successor. Will you kindly inform me what particular application you wish made of this sum? In case you might wish any suggestion on the subject, I might mention a letter I wrote to you some days ago with reference to a soldiers' memorial. If this does not appeal to you, perhaps you might wish to add the sum mentioned above to the general student loan fund in order to provide additional funds for loans to students. Possibly the application of this amount to meeting the cost of some publication might be considered.

Yours very truly,

President E. D. Burton,
Harper Library.

Mr. F. W. Parker,

The Del Prada Hotel, Chicago.

My dear Mr. Parker:

I am wondering why you don't come to see me. You are one of my nearest neighbors and I should like very much to have the pleasure of least shaking your hand. I know that many of my friends are keeping away because they do not wish to weary me, but there are some whose coming would be a source of satisfaction and you are one of the number.

Yours very truly,

Mr. W. Perlman

The Metropolitan Chicago

My dear Mr. Perlman:

I am wondering why you come to see me. You are one of my nearest neighbors and I know that many of my friends warn your people. I know that many of my friends warn your people about keeping away. They go out of their way to warn me, but there is some whose coming would be a source of satisfaction and you are one of the number.

Yours very truly,
It was my privilege to know Mr. Francis W. Parker, and to know her well, for some twelve years. She was many times a guest in my house, and in many different circumstances. To say that she was always a welcome guest, that her grace in elegance, her quiet but genial manner, her delicate, sunny humor and her inquiring, good taste, aided materially in the enjoyment of an other guest, and thus rendered an admirable service many, many times, is to say much, but after all only a fraction of the much and that superficial. The real qualities that make for friendliness are few beneath the surface, are very electric and extremely difficult to be detected in the clear speech. Mrs. Parker's presence was always gratifying to me on many accounts. I knew that the mind understood what I might say without duplication, not restating but words and phrases from their manifold implications and thus getting an instant and immediate meaning. One might as well read a dictionary as try to converse with Nellie's words. But Mrs. Parker was not merely adequately receptive to thought, she was also stimulating in suggestion. Her reading and thinking trend to make a strange that her mind was like a bubbling fountain. I felt her friendship to be a personal privilege, and I feel her passing away as one of the permanent losses of life.
Office of the President

The Hutchins Committee is not in favor of the FCA proposal. I am in favor of the FCA proposal.

Dear Dr. Hutchins,

I hope this message finds you well. I have been thinking about the FCA proposal and wanted to express my thoughts to you.

I believe that the FCA proposal is a necessary step towards improving the financial system. The current regulations are flawed and need to be updated. The FCA proposal addresses some of these issues and I think it is a good starting point.

However, I also understand the concerns that some policymakers have about the potential impact of the FCA proposal on small banks. I believe that these concerns can be addressed through careful regulatory design.

Thank you for considering my views. I look forward to discussing this further with you.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
