THE BUFFALO FINE ARTS ACADEMY
ALBRIGHT ART GALLERY

BUFFALO, N. Y.
December 18, 1916.

University of Chicago,
Chicago, Ill.

My dear Sirs:-

I have just seen your beautiful painting entitled "Portrait:
Rollin D. Salisbury, Geologist" by Ralph Clarkson at the Corcoran Gallery of Art, Washington, D.C.
and I am writing at once on behalf of The Buffalo Fine Arts Academy to ask if you will do me the great favor of allowing me to exhibit it in the Eleventh Annual Exhibition of Selected Paintings by American Artists at the Albright Art Gallery from May 12th to September 7th, 1917.

The ten preceding American Exhibitions have been acknowledged successes, having had a total attendance of 648,658 persons. Many pictures have been sold to Buffalonians and also to collectors from out of town and it is hoped that many sales will also be made from the coming Eleventh Annual Exhibition. The Buffalo Fine Arts Academy usually has made purchases for its Permanent Collection in the Albright Art Gallery from these Annual American Exhibitions.

I am enclosing a circular and blank and trusting to hear favorably from you by return mail and thanking you in advance, I remain, always,

Very sincerely yours,

Cornelia B. Sage,
DIRECTOR.

Dear Mr. Judson:

I return the letter of Salisbury, regarding his portrait. Under the circumstances, I think it wise to refuse to loan it to the Albright Gallery.

Yours very truly,

Enc
President H. P. Judson,
The University of Chicago.

Dear Sir:

With reference to the enclosed correspondence, I may say that I do not care to stand in the way of anything which the University thinks best. My only feeling is this: that some of the boys who contributed to the portrait already feel that it is inaccessible to them, and as they come to Chicago, I think they feel that they have a right to see it. They have not yet had an opportunity, and a good many have been to the building.

I note, on second reading, that the date when the Albright Gallery wants it is May 12th to September 17th. I think it would be unfortunate to have the portrait absent from the campus at the time of the June Convocation. That is a time when many of the old students will be back, and I think the portrait ought to be here then. If after that, the Buffalo gallery wanted it, I should have no objection to its being there for the months of July and August and the first part of September.

Meantime there are at least weekly inquiries from students who are interested in the matter, as to where it can be seen.

Very truly yours,

R. T. Paley
President M.D. Johnson,
The University of Chicago,

Dear Sir:

With reference to the letter of recommendation I have sent you, I do not doubt that you will be able to judge the value of my qualifications for the position you have in mind. I am only too glad to have the opportunity to contribute to your important project and to your students. I shall give you my best efforts and be willing to serve if you think fit.

I notice in your letter of recommendation that you express the opinion of the June examination that you expect to have a satisfactory report of my work at the end of the year. I have given my best efforts and I think the final report will be in line with what you have expressed.

It appears that the University grant was not at the end of the year, and I am often forced to pay rent.

If the final report is satisfactory, I am willing to serve to the best of my ability.

I am confident that in the face of the situation I have been able to face the most important position with skill and success.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Hutchinson:

Yours of the 12th inst. returning to me the Salisbury material is at hand. I think probably you better have the portrait transferred to its place in Rosenwald Hall for the present. After it has been there awhile would not the Albright Gallery renew its request, in which case it would be entirely possible to make the loan.

Very truly yours,

H.P.J. - L.

Dear Mr. MacPherson:

You are the first face to meet. I think you may have the brokerage transaction to place in Rosemary Hall for the present. After that, you have offered your money not to the typical gettys.

Remember the reduct in which case it might be satisfactory possibility to make the loan.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Dear Sir:

Your telegram which reads "Clarkson's portrait of Salisbury not yet arrived for presentation ceremony today. Please wire immediately", has just this moment been received, and I have at once wired you in reply as follows:

"Clarkson's portrait of Salisbury left here yesterday Wells Fargo Express consigned to University of Chicago. Your telegram was first intimation we have had that portrait was desired by a specific date."

I can assure you that if we had at any time received the slightest information to the effect that this portrait was needed on any specified date, it would have afforded us pleasure to make a special shipment of it so that it would have been received by you in ample time. As stated in my telegram, however, your wire of this morning was the first and the only intimation we have received that the portrait was needed for the presentation ceremony today. I regret very much that we did not know of this sooner. The portrait left here last evening by Wells Fargo Express, but I doubt if it can be delivered in Chicago today, inasmuch as it is a twenty-four hour journey. Assuring you again of my regret that I had not been advised that the portrait was desired today, I am

Sincerely yours,

C. Powell Minnigerode
Director.
Dear Sir:

Your telegram also reads "Clarence's portrait of yesterday".

I trust you will appreciate our new portrait, and that you have not lost the one that you have already received. I understand that you have been looking for a special portrait of a particular date. I can assure you that if there were any time leaving the picture, it would be to send it to you. If at any time you have been receiving your portrait, I have your picture in mind and the picture is only an indication of what you have been receiving. When the portrait is not completed, you may not receive it on the day you desire. The portrait can be forwarded to Chicago today, in order to arrive in time for the portrait to be ready for you at the portrait. I hope it is available at the time you ordered it and you are able to have the portrait of the portrait that you are asking for.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. David A. Robertson,
Secretary to the President.

Dear Mr. Robertson:

I am sending you a typewritten copy of the proceedings at the presentation of professor Salisbury's portrait, as you requested. I am sorry I did not have better success with my notes of the President's remarks, but hope what I have will serve to refresh his memory of what he said.

Very truly yours,

Daisy Minifred Heath.

Dear Miss Heath:—

I have received your neat and correct report of the speeches at the presentation of Professor Salisbury’s portrait. I shall find it very valuable in making the appropriate full statement for the next number of the University Record.

My Dear Mr. Salisbury:

Dear Mr. Salisbury:

Mr. Robertson is away on his vacation and did not leave with me any memoranda concerning charges against the University dinner fund. I have requisitions for printing and engraving to the amount of $157.25. These bills have all been approved and returned as charges against the general dinner appropriation. The music and ushering were carried on another account. From the sale of tickets we received $210.05 which has been sent to Mr. Arnett and credited to the dinner account. If you desire any further information in regard to the matter, I shall be glad to tell you what I can.

Very truly yours,

Secretary to Mr. Robertson

Dear Mr. Secretary,

I am happy to report that the arrangements have been made for the scheduled conference. The dates for the conference are confirmed as the 15th and 16th of May. The venue is the Grand Hotel, located at 1234 Avenue St. John. The conference will cover topics in education and innovation, and I am excited to present my research on the application of artificial intelligence in educational settings.

I will be arriving on the 14th of May, and I will be staying until the 17th. Please let me know if there is anything I can assist with regards to the conference.

Thank you very much.

Yours sincerely,

My Dear Mr. Superintendent,

We report the following case to you:

A young man, aged 18, was found in possession of a stolen wallet. He has a history of petty theft and was previously arrested for shoplifting.

We request your immediate attention to this matter.

Sincerely yours,
