My dear Dr. Shaw:—

Your favor of the 8th inst. is at hand, and the telegram received earlier apprised me promptly of the situation as to Mr. Choate. Of course I very greatly regret that we are unable to have his valued presence here in June. He was in every way our first choice for the address, and we with entire unanimity felt that he is in many ways the foremost citizen of the United States. I shall take the liberty of writing to Mr. Choate expressing my regret, and shall call on him gladly when I am in New York. Meanwhile I thank you very much for your kindness in taking up the matter for me.

With sincere regards and pleasant memories of our meeting in New Jersey, I am,

Cordially yours,

To Mr.עיר פאר

Your letter of the 8th instant is at hand, and my hearty greeting extends itself to you. At any rate, promptly on the situation as to the GPO. Of course, I take great regret that we are unable to have the meeting plenary presence here in June. He was in every way an active participant in the movement, and we with entire unanimity express our sympathy for the committee, and we with entire unanimity express our sympathy for the committee, and we with entire unanimity express our sympathy for the committee, and we with entire unanimity express our sympathy for the committee, and we with entire unanimity express our sympathy for the committee.

I am under the impression that we are unable to have the meeting of the GPO. I am under the impression that we are unable to have the meeting of the GPO. I am under the impression that we are unable to have the meeting of the GPO. I am under the impression that we are unable to have the meeting of the GPO. My dear Mr. Upham:—

You are of course being deluged with requests for tickets for the Republican Convention. I am writing, however, in the interest of Mr. Albert Shaw, Editor of the REVIEW OF REVIEWS, New York. Mr. Shaw, as you know, is one of the most important editors of periodicals in the country. He was connected more or less with the Progressive movement, but I happen to know that he is going to support the Republican ticket this year, and his influence and that of his periodical is, it seems to me, of large importance. He has been accustomed to have at previous Conventions two platform seats. He has no special desire to be on the platform, but he would like to have a couple of seats where he can hear thoroughly well. Of course the press seats would not be suitable in his case. If some arrangement can be made for Dr. Shaw

Dear Dr. Judson:

Thank you very much for your note of the 5th, which is in my mail this morning. I shall be coming to Chicago alone and staying at the Auditorium Hotel. Mrs. Shaw will not venture into the crowded scenes of convention week.

Thank you very much for having written to Mr. Upham. After my letter to you, I heard from our Chicago advertising representative, who assured me that Mr. Upham had several months ago said that he had looked out for me on former occasions and would do so again. So that I feel sure that with your added interest in the matter I shall have no trouble.

You will understand that my only reason for bothering at all about it was the feeling that some of the Old Guard thought of me as "outside the breastworks", and entitled therefore to no personal attention, while from the standpoint of the press I should not have the recognition that would be given to a daily newspaper.

As ever, Sincerely yours,

My dear Dr. Shaw:

Yours of the 3d inst. is received. I have written to Mr. Upham on this matter so as to put it before him in detail, and will speak to him personally about it later. I hope that there will be no difficulty in getting what you want. I am very glad indeed that you are going to be here in time to attend our exercises on the 6th of June, and I will see to it of course that you are one of our guests, and are provided for. Is Mrs. Shaw coming with you? I hope so. With cordial regards to her as well as yourself, I am,

THE GREATEST TELEGRAPH AND CABLE SYSTEM IN THE WORLD.
EXTENDS OVER TWO-THIRDS OF THE WAY AROUND THE EARTH.

THE POSTAL TELEGRAPH-CABLE COMPANY (INCORPORATED)

TRANSMITS AND DELIVERS THE WITHIN TELEGRAM SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a telegram should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the unrepeated telegram rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, THIS IS AN UNREPEATED TELEGRAM AND PAID FOR AS SUCH, in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the telegram and this Company as follows:

1. The Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any UNREPEATED telegram, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any REPEATED telegram, beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same. UNLESS SPECIALLY VALUED; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines; NOR FOR ERRORS IN CIPHER OR OBSCURE TELEGRAMS.

2. In any event the Company shall not be liable for damages for any mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for the non-delivery of this telegram, whether caused by the negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond fifty times the REPEATED telegram rate at which amount this telegram, if sent as a REPEATED telegram, is hereby valued, unless a greater value is stated in writing herewith at the time the telegram is offered to the Company for transmission, and an additional sum paid or agreed to be paid based on such value equal to one-tenth of one per cent, thereof.

3. The Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this telegram over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

4. Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery at a greater distance a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

5. No responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and, if any message is sent to such office by one of this Company's messengers, he acts as the agent of the sender for the purpose of delivering the message and any notice or instructions regarding it to the Company's agent in its said office.

6. The Company shall not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the telegram is filed with the Company for transmission.

7. The above terms and conditions shall be binding upon the receiver as well as the sender of this telegram.

8. NO EMPLOYEE OF THIS COMPANY IS AUTHORIZED TO VARY THE FOREGOING.

Dear Dr. Judson:

It occurs to me to send you two requests. First, I hope to be in Chicago in time to attend your twenty-fifth anniversary exercises on June 6, and I am sure you will try to let me have a ticket that would admit me. If I do not apply now I am afraid I might be too late.

Second, I am sending a line to Mr. Fred W. Upham—with whom I have, of course, some acquaintance—asking him to reserve a seat or two for me in the Republican convention. His mail, however, will be so crowded with applications that my note may not reach him personally. In olden times I was assigned two platform seats. I have no desire to be on the platform, if there may be some other seats where I should be able to hear. I am going to make a Chicago Coliseum Republican convention scene the cover of our June number of the Review, and am of course going to present the political situations in our number following the conventions. The press seats are usually reserved for correspondents and reporters working for the daily newspapers. I need to be suitably placed, but I do not have to occupy space reserved for the daily newspapers of the country.

As you of course know, I expect to support the Republican ticket this year; and as the Review has a good deal bigger circulation than it ever had before, I have no doubt most of the Republicans would
Dear Dr. Jackson:

I am writing to express my concern for your health and wellbeing. I hope to be in Chicago in time to attend your conference on July 4th, and if I can, I will try to let you know what I am thinking it might be. What would you think if I were to ask you for an interview? If so, I would be most grateful to hear from you.

Sincerely,

be willing to have me on their side of the fence. There are, however, a few who take a personal view of the matter and are not very hospitable to anybody who (they think) might prefer a candidate whom they dislike.

I feel so strongly that the candidate this year must be selected for reasons of the national welfare, rather than for reasons of personal preference, that I am only hoping for some good and wise outcome without myself pretending to know what is best.

I had almost forgotten, however, to state my second request, which was that you might, unless it should be inconvenient, ask your secretary or someone to telephone Upham for me.

Faithfully yours,

P.S. Don't bother about the convention matter, unless wholly convenient!
I feel so strongly that the authorities must be sentenced for remissness to the Committee on the question of procedure. . . . And I ask that you may

I have great difficulty, however, to discern my exact meaning,

On the other hand, I believe that no right can exist to
