My dear Doctor Judson:

I am in receipt this morning of a letter from your Secretary, Mr. Goodspeed, enclosing the tickets for the box at the Convocation on Saturday morning and for the box for the football game on Saturday afternoon.

I greatly appreciate your courtesy in sending me these tickets and will be glad to avail myself of your kindness on both of these interesting occasions.

With high regard, I am,

Yours very truly,

Dr. Harry Pratt Judson,

My dear Mr. Johnson:

I am in receipt of your letter of the 29th and have been glad to hear from you.

The things you mention in the Constitution are all very important and will be glad to see you on this subject.

I give you my respects and your country is ever in my thoughts and will be glad to hear from you at any time.

Very respectfully,
Your friend,
Abraham Lincoln

With much respect,
I am,

Yours very truly,
Abraham Lincoln

My dear Mr. Johnson:
I have been glad to hear from you and will be glad to hear from you at any time.
