My dear President Harper:—

On my return from the summer, I found your note of July twenty-fifth, left at the Faculty Exchange, referring to the constituency of the Student Fund Committee for the coming year. So far as I know, I never received the tentative list that you sent me. I made up a list for you last year, if you will remember, asking your judgment upon it. In that list were the following names, as I can recall them:

- Professor Henderson
- Professor Hendrickson
- Dr. Freund
- Mr. Young (Mathematics)
- Professor Alexander Smith
- Professor F. J. Miller,
- Miss Reynolds
- Miss Talbot
- Mr. Thompson

The Committee was formed in order to get persons from as many separate departments as possible, with the intention that we might have information with regard to almost any student who might apply. If you are so disposed, I should still be glad to

Dear Sir:

I loaned some money last year that I expected would be returned this year. I find I cannot get it and will be compelled to borrow seventy-five dollars in order to remain in the University this coming quarter. Mr. Shepardson referred me to Prof. Laughlin, but the fund is exhausted. He then suggested that I stale to come to you.

I am anxious to remain here to get a degree at the end of the quarter.

I shall be very grateful if you can suggest how I can arrange to use this money.

Dear Mr. Harper,

The Students' Fund Soc. in the year from April 1, 1902 to April 1, 1903, held five meetings; and granted loans, which were advanced in cash, to the sum of $3880. The loans repaid were only $1755.

My dear Mr. Hearltley: -

Some ten days ago two weeks ago, if I am not mistaken, I sent you a note for twenty-five dollars signed by Daniel M. Shoemaker, 230 Ashland Boulevard, and requested you in lieu thereof to mail him a check for the same amount in case there were funds in the treasury. Not hearing from you I assumed that the money had been sent. Mr. Shoemaker told me yesterday, however, that it had not been received. Will you kindly inform me whether the money was forwarded or whether on account of insufficient funds you were unable to forward it.

Yours truly,

Mr. Arthur Martin

Houghton Trust Company, Office

My dear Mr. Martin:

Some ten days ago I wrote you, and as I have not received a note from you, I write you to say that I have not received your wire of June 20th. I am now informed by Mr. Shoemaker, the Salesman who referred you to him, that he did not receive any message from you to the effect that you had sent the amount on account, and have been unable to locate the same. I am, therefore, in some degree at a loss in the present. I have sent Mr. Shoemaker your wire of June 20th, and I am informed that he has forwarded the same. I am informed that you have not received the money that you had forwarded him. I am informed also that you have not received the money from Mr. Shoemaker, and that he has not made any inquiry as to the money that you had forwarded him.

I am at a loss to know what course of action to take. I am in the hands of a man, and I am unable to get any information from him as to the money that you had forwarded him.

Yours truly,

W. H. Hunter
My dear Mr. Laughlin:

Something should be done, it seems to me, in connection with the Students' Fund Society. It is not fulfilling its original purpose. So far as I can see, the interest in it is very small. Instead of distributing $5,000 or $6,000 a year, it ought to distribute $25,000 or $26,000. I should like to have you give it your careful thought, and perhaps we can sit down some day together and talk over the whole matter. This is one of the ways in which I had hoped we might arouse the interest of our friends in the city.

I can readily understand that with so many things on your hands, including the Von Holst portrait and the Alice Freeman Palmer chimes, you are crowded, but I am also sure that the matter is one in which you are deeply interested, and I beg for it your vigorous consideration. I desire to propose that we take steps to revise in a large way the work of this Committee, broaden its scope and increase the funds at its disposal. It was intended to be a relief to the President's office in the matter of assistance to students. As a matter of fact, it does not give relief. Its machinery is too close and it is too difficult to get action.

The Students’ Fund Society has been incorporated for the benefit of students of the University of Chicago who are recommended by the Faculty as being scholars of high standing, but who, without assistance, are unable to complete the University course. These, students, by means of such assistance, would be able to finish the course and take positions of usefulness and responsibility.

It is believed that the object will be best achieved by making long time loans, in small amounts, without interest, (gifts only in rare cases) and by the establishment of Fellowships and Scholarships.

All recommendations for assistance will be made by the Faculty of the University and approved by the Executive Committee.

Each person paying five dollars, or more, shall be admitted to membership in the Society for one year, and each person paying one hundred dollars, or more, shall be entitled to life membership.

Knowing the interest Chicago takes in its University, and feeling assured that you are also interested in the class of students we propose to assist, we respectfully ask you to become a member by filling out the enclosed coupon.

Student's Fund:

Chicago, Jan. 9, 1905.

Dear Mr. Chandler:

In accordance with your letter of the 7th instant, I enclose herewith cancelled note of Mr. Folkmar. Mr. Daniel Fulcomer originally signed two notes, one for $75.00 due Jan. 1, '99, and the other one due July 1, '98, upon which there was a balance of $25.00, but which is fully paid by the check you sent me. Mr. Fulcomer afterwards changed his name to Folkmar. I understand that he is a full-fledged Professor, although what chair he occupies I am unable at present to say. Professor Henry Rand Hatfield could probably give you his pedigree as he took a great interest in this case.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary to the President.

My dear Mr. Chandler:--

I have taken the liberty to appropriate Mr. Miller's gift of $5.00 to apply upon his indebtedness, in addition to the $50. which he sent for that purpose. I have always understood that the Lord loved a cheerful giver. Whether Mr. Miller will be any more cheerful after learning the true state of the case, I am not at present in a position to say. The facts are, however, that he originally gave a note for $125.00; that in June, 1903, he paid $50. upon the same, which according to my reckoning, left a balance of $75. still unpaid. Applying toward this $75.00 the $50. and the gift of $5.00, leaves still a balance of $20.00, which Mr. Miller should repay to the Society. You might advise him that a check for $25. will take up the balance of his note and still carry out his intention of making a gift of $5.00 to the Association.

Yours faithfully,

I have taken the liberty to apprise you of Mr. Miller's wish to purchase the 800-acre farm which I have referred to in my previous letter. Mr. Miller will go out on which has been mentioned in my previous letter.

I am looking forward to hearing your opinion on this matter.

My dear Mr. Heurtley:

I beg to enclose a check for $55.00 from Mr. Irving E. Miller, which according to his statement will settle his account with the Students' Fund Society and carry a gift of $5.00 in addition. According to my records, however, he owed the Society before this check was received, $75.00, having paid only $50.00 on the loan of $125.00. It is possible that a payment has not been noted on our cards. Will you kindly inform me on the point?

Dear Sir:

As I understand that there exists at this university a loan fund available to students who are temporarily embarrassed financially, I hereby make application for a loan of $25.00, to be repaid not later than the 10th inst., when I will have received a remittance from a distant bank. I am willing to secure this loan with a chattel mortgage.

Mr. Johnson has been in residence since the autumn of 1903 and has a good record in his courses. Astyling B to O's? During the last quarter he had a grade of 2 A's and one B. The trouble now is only temporary, financial need, which however is rather urgent. H.P. C.

My dear Mr. Laughlin:-

I am writing a word to you in behalf of Abraham Bowers. He can see his way clear to getting his Bachelor's degree in two quarters if he can make suitable financial arrangements. He wishes to borrow for that purpose $250 from the Students' Fund Society. You will remember when Bowers came to us from the outset was a very untrained and in some ways crude individual. As a matter of fact, however, he has made the very best use of his opportunities and has improved in a remarkable way. He has occupied teaching places and a place as superintendent of schools in Indiana with marked success. If he can get his degree it is altogether likely that he will be able to hold still better positions. Further, he has proved himself thoroughly honest and financially responsible and I have no doubt that he will repay the loan. He offers a life insurance policy to cover the obligation

November 13, 1905.

Dear President Harper:

I have not forgotten the matters you mentioned in your letter to me of October 23rd. I have consulted with Professor Judson with regard to all these points and given him information on them.

As regards the Students' Fund Society, I think you can feel thoroughly satisfied. It is literally true that no student of fair scholarship has ever failed to get the amount of money he requested. That I think is a very satisfactory record.

With regard to the Alice Freeman Palmer chimes I have been thinking and planning a good deal. You will remember that practically all the money which has been raised, except that given by Mr. Stagg, has been obtained by my individual solicitation. One Committee also obtained a few hundred dollars from the University friends of Mrs. Palmer. I notice that you have sent a letter to Lovett, and I will try to have Mr. Vincent, who is the chairman of the committee, call a meeting and take up the matter in any way which seems to them advisable. In my humble opinion the only hope of additional funds is by some personal interest with a few people who happen to be able to subscribe if they will.

Sincerely yours,

J. Lawrence Laughlin
Dear Professor Hendrie:

I have not yet received the connecting wire to your telephone to the October 29th. I have seen Professor Hendrie, with relations to the recent蓬勃, and have given him the information on your letter. I think he can be most thoroughly satisfied. It is literally true that you can go to the University, by many miles per hour, and still fall to the ground. That is a lesson I have learned in my youth.

After arriving at the Alice B. Moore Hotel, I went to the Physiological Institute and met several old friends. We all remembered the days when mind was more important than money, and we used to enjoy discussing the latest scientific findings.

I was pleased to hear from you again, and I am eager to hear more about your experiences abroad.

Sincerely yours,

I can understand the situation in which you are placed and therefore I am very glad to extend your note to the Students' Fund Society until July 1st, 1907. I note your suggestion that we issue to you a new note bearing interest so that we can use the money involved for another applicant, but that would involve borrowing on the part of the Society. You would be primarily liable but we would stand back of you as security and the relation would be one for which there is not precedent in our transactions. As a matter of fact $125 is only $125 no matter where it is used. It will do only so much good and inasmuch as you are in need of the credit at the present time it will be perhaps as helpful where it is as anywhere else.

My dear Sir:

The notification of the maturity of my note for $125 reached me only yesterday, having been held at Belleville, Kans. from March 15 to April 27. I regret very much the delay in transit of the letter. But I regret still more that I have not the money with which to meet the note. I find on starting here that I am at large expense on small salary and I have had other debts to pay, and other debts are still pressing me. However I hope to be able to pay everything by one year from this summer.

I don't want to deprive other students who are in need of assistance of the use of this money and if I could borrow at the banks here, I would do so but I am practically unknown and dislike to nothing so much as asking friends of a few months standing to go my security. Would it be possible for me to make out a new note to the association that loaned me the money and pay interest, so that the ass society will be at no loss in procuring the money and can have it for immediate use.

Yours very truly,

E. B. Branson.

Dear Miss Breckinridge:

I know Miss Gunderson very well and understand her feeling in regard to the postponement of her note. I wish that other borrowers had as much as one-half of the conscientiousness that she has shown in relation to her business with the Society. It is, of course, possible to extend her note, and in my opinion altogether desirable. We have done this once, only after urging that she should so extend. The committee I am sure will approve very sincerely your suggestion. I have noted the postponement of a year on her card and reported same to Mr. Laughlin.

My dear Mr. Heckman:

I am sending to you the annual report of the treasurer of the Students' Fund Society for the University of Chicago. Mr. Flimpton informs me that you desire to have a statement of the condition of that organization. It has always seemed to me that so important a work ought to be included somewhere in the review of our activities. I am glad that you are going to call attention to the work of this body. It will assist the Students' Fund Society if in commenting upon its work you will call attention to the fact that it is in no way connected with the University. The point of that comment is this: Many of our loans we find difficult to collect because of the widespread notion that the Students' Fund Society is related to the University of Chicago and as such has millions of dollars and so a loan of twenty-five dollars will not be missed by the institution.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr Keesey,

I have received your letter of January 9th and regret that your financial reverses make it impossible for you to meet your note. In view of the circumstances you mention I shall be pleased, on behalf of the Society, to extend your note for one year thus making it payable in January 1914. No interest is charged on loans from the Students' Fund Society. If, however, when you repay the loan you find yourself in a position to pay interest on the year's extension we are always pleased to receive this mark of appreciation of assistance rendered.

Gentlemen:

I regret very much that I shall not be able to meet the note for fifty ($50) dollars which you hold against me, due Jan. 19 of this year.

Since leaving college, in the spring of 1911, I have been farming on a claim I filed on in western Saskatchewan. Owing to crop failures prior to last season, and poor prices for my crop last fall, I have not as yet been able to get the farm on a paying basis. Last fall when I left I settled with as many of my creditors as I could and tried to make arrangements for payment with the others. I have not yet received the title for the land and, therefore, cannot make no loan on it with which to cancel my indebtedness.

I assure you that I feel deeply indebted to you for your kindness in making me the loan, and if it were in my power I would pay the note when it falls due.

Would it be possible to get an extension of time for the payment of the note? I will gladly pay the interest on the note to date, and may be able to pay a part of the principal at a later date. Kindly advise me in this matter. I beg to remain,

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir: Some years ago, I borrowed $200.00 from the Students' Aid Fund. If this amount I have been able to return only $100.00. I hope, on former occasions, explained my delay. But as you may not be able to lay your hand on my letters, I make the list of receipts:
is what I then said.

When I first left the university, I was obliged to accept a very small salary. Subsequently, when my salary was increased to $1500.00, I found myself obliged to contribute so heavily to the support of a dependent relative that I was left in the same position, financially, as before my increase of salary. This condition lacked for some or four years. At the end of this period, my salary was again raised, but in condition that I should spend practically all of the increase by a summer term at a university. Finally, at the end of the year, I received notice that my services would not be required after next year.

I prepared my explanations. I might possibly have held my place by going into the papers on grading the individual members of the Board of Trustees. I thought it best, however, to drop quietly, and return to the university for the doctorate. Accordingly, I scrounged every cent I could during my last year, so that I was ready for the twelve months of study and research.

During this time, I lost friends, all the residence work necessary for the doctorate, and the only hope of keeping my thesis and exam. Eventually, I obtained the degree. That my record is good...

Dear Miss Malott:

The regulations of the Students' Fund Society require that applicants for loans be in residence at least one Quarter. The purpose of this requirement is to afford an opportunity to secure information about the scholastic standing of each applicant. The importance of this information you will readily understand when you consider that the only security possessed by the Students' Fund Society is the reputation of the student in the University of Chicago. Until the reports are in for the Autumn Quarter, there will be no such record in your own case. Until that time, therefore, the Society cannot take any action regarding the loan requested by yourself.

If the records show satisfactory academic standing for the Autumn Quarter, the Faculty Committee and the Executive Committee of the Society will be glad to take up the question of your loan. I may say, however, that we received applications for $1703.00, and we have on hand only $386.00, nearly all of which has been assigned to students who have been resident for very much longer periods than yourself.

In advising you of the necessary postponement of your business, I wish to urge you to take some other means of securing a loan. The statement which I have made of the present conditions will convince you of this necessity. I shall be glad to confer with you in my office Saturday or Monday morning between ten and ten forty-five concerning the matter.

Dear Mr. Manager,

I am in receipt of your letter dated the 5th of this month and am sorry to hear of the difficulties you are now experiencing in the handling of your accounts. It is our understanding that you have been faced with a number of challenges over the past few months, and we are concerned about the impact these issues may have on your operations.

To address this situation, we propose the following measures:

1. Setting up a dedicated account management team to handle your accounts
2. Implementing a more streamlined process for the reconciliation of accounts
3. Providing training and support to your staff on account management

We believe that these steps will help to minimize the impact of the current situation and ensure the smooth operation of your business.

Thank you for your attention to these matters.

My dear Mr. Robertson -

No doubt you have been on the point of reminding me of my unpaid loan from the Student's Fund Society of $100. Although appearances are to the contrary, I assure you the matter had been very much in my consciousness. I was not yet clear to meet this obligation on March 30, 1914.

But I want you to know the reason this payment has been put off. Last April and again on Nov. 1 last I had to help my father meet the payments on his farm. Besides what I had on hand I had to borrow $300 last November.

I hope my own personal obligations will in hand, and it is this additional assistance for my father (which I assume most gladly) which has made necessary the real adjustments in my plans, and the delay in the payment of the loan $100.

I confess that I have been somewhat ill at ease at times in not returning this money before now, for perhaps some other student has been deprived of help when he needed it.

However, since, as I understand it, the Society intends to give assistance that will help to tide one over till he is fairly well launched, I felt justified in assuming this additional obligation which after all I regard as altogether mine.

As things are shaping themselves I am able to move along the line where I want my work to be, and I am thankful not to be forced by necessity to enter something which merely pays more, and am glad that I can follow my "hend."

Respectfully,

Carried forward $3380.00

Total $9780.00
Chicago, November 2, 1914

Dear Mr. Heurtley:—

Miss Mildred Sanderson died October 15th. I am enclosing a check for $25.00.

With Mrs. Wilmirth I have conferred concerning the collection of the claim against Miss Sanderson's estate. Mrs. Wilmirth in a letter of November 1st writes as follows:

"It has been the custom (one which you will see announced in our last published statement) to consider that Death cancels all claims of the Society upon the borrower. I should certainly consider that it does so in this case. If one acquired means to repay, we should enforce collection when we can, but I recall no such case.

"I have no hesitation on this point,—one is glad occasionally of a clear conviction, rather than a problem.

Sincerely yours,

D.A.R.-D.

I return your letter which you may wish for reference.

Lake Geneva, Wis.
Nov. 1, 1914

My dear Mr. Robertson,

I have your letter of the 28th regarding Miss Brandson.

It has been the custom (one which you will all announce in our last published statement) to consider that death cancels all claims of the Society upon the borrower. I should certainly consider that it does so in this case.
If one had acquired means to repay, one should enforce collection when one can, but I recall no such case.

I have no hesitation on this point— one is glad occasionally of a clear conviction rather than a problem.

I hope your view of the case is not other than mine that would make me doubt my own.

I am going in two this evening of leaving Memmber Woods taking a little reluctantly. I return to the other

Dear Sir:

My sister, Miss Mildred Sanderson, passed away Oct. 15. Enclosed is the check for twenty-five dollars which fell due Oct. 18. I know you will understand the reason for the delay. Kindly send the bills to me as they fall due, and when you send the receipt for this check will you kindly let me know the exact amount yet to be paid. I think I know but wish to be sure.

Very sincerely,
May E. Anderson
Chicago, November 2, 1914

Dear Miss Sanderson:

I have conferred with the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Students' Fund Society. The Executive Committee regret exceedingly the death of so promising a student as your sister.

The Committee have empowered me, also, to say that no claim will be entered for collection of the balance due. I shall notify the Treasurer of the Society.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary Students' Fund Society.

Miss May E. Sanderson
111 Lincoln Street

Chicago, October 28, 1914

Dear Mrs. Wilmarth:

I regret to report the death of one of our borrowers whose sister has written as follows:

"My sister, Miss Mildred Sanderson, passed away October 15. Enclosed is the check for Twenty-five Dollars which fell due October 18. I know you will understand the reason for the delay. Kindly send the bills to me as they fall due, and when you send the receipt for this check will you kindly let me know the exact amount yet to be paid. I think I know, but wish to be sure."

Very sincerely,

May E. Sanderson

On receiving this note I forwarded the check received and instituted an investigation of Miss Sanderson's record. On her application form I found an entry which explained why her people had not been able to be of much help. Her father is a market gardener. In spite of her struggle to maintain herself I shall be glad to proceed in this matter as you direct.
in college, Miss Sanderson did very well and repaid $75.00 of the total $150.00 granted to her.

Rather than enter any claim unadvisedly against the estate, I wrote to her guarantor, Miss Lanier, who has replied as follows:

"I have received your note asking me something of Miss Sanderson's people. While I have no definite information regarding them, I know that Miss Sanderson lived most economically during her residence in the hall, and I have reason to believe that her three years at the University meant some sacrifice on the part of her people.

"Her illness was a long one, extending over many months and for a considerable part of that time she was in a sanatorium. It has meant a heavy expense for her family, I am sure, and one which they could not easily afford. It seems to me that this a case in which a claim against her estate might well be waived.

"Of Miss Sanderson herself, I cannot speak too highly.

"If you wish more definite information, I think probably I might get it for you with a week.

Sincerely yours,

Mary J. Lanier.

I shall be glad to proceed in this matter as you think best.

Sincerely yours,
Chicago, October 23, 1914

Dear Miss Lanier:

From the sister of Miss Mildred L. Sanderson I have learned of the death of our former student. As you know, Miss Sanderson was indebted to the Students' Fund Society. She had repaid one-half of the amount received in loans from the organization. Her estate is indebted to the Society to the amount of $75.00.

I am writing to inquire what you know of Miss Sanderson's people. She gave the occupation of her father as "market gardener." In your opinion, should the claim against the estate be pressed or waived? The sister writes concerning future payments. It is my experience, however, that the people who most deserve such action as the one suggested above are the last ones in the world to propose it. I am writing, therefore, to have your opinion before sending the business on to the Students' Fund Society.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary Students' Fund Society.
Dear Sirs,

I have the pleasure of informing you of the arrival of the Free Trade Agreement. The agreement, which was signed in London, will be the first of its kind to take place between two countries. The agreement is intended to reduce trade barriers and to strengthen economic relations. It is expected to benefit both countries in a number of ways, including increased trade and capital flows.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir:

My sister, Miss Mildred Sanderson, is very sick so we did not feel like giving this bill to her at present. From what we understand that the note can be renewed. Will you kindly let me know if that is so, and if the length of time you will extend it.

Very sincerely,
