THE CHRISTIAN UNION

Organized in the Autumn of 1892, for the association of all members of the university in a single harmonious organization on the basis of those elements of religious faith which are held in common, for the purpose of Christian worship and of philanthropic work.

It embraces all the religious organizations of the University. It maintains a Sunday service at the University, cooperates in the work of the University Settlement, and in many ways stimulates and fosters the higher life of the University.

THE UNIVERSITY SETTLEMENT

The University of Chicago Settlement was organized in 1894 by the Philanthropic committee of the Christian Union, and was incorporated January 28th, 1898. The membership is composed of regular contributors and their representatives and regular and occasional helpers. A Board of Directors controls its affairs.

The work is intended to represent the various activities of community life. A dispensary is maintained, lectures are given, social and study clubs organized, a gymnasium is maintained for all, and during four months a play ground is available for the children. Classes in household arts and manual training and other studies are offered. A Public Library sub-station is located at the settlement. Summer excursions to the country and to the University are frequently
THE YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Organized November 26, 1892.

Its purpose is the closer association of young women for Christian work. Its work is social and religious. A Book Loan library is maintained. Classes in the University Settlement Sunday School are taught by its members. Stated meetings for worship are held. Union meetings are occasionally held jointly with the Young Men's Christian Association.

THE DIVINITY STUDENT'S ASSOCIATION

Organized.....

The organization embraces in one association the prominent interests of the Divinity Students.

Its objects are to promote the collective as well as the individual spiritual life and activities of the students of the Divinity School, to cooperate with the student work of the University at large, and to further all Christian enterprises in the University, the churches and the mission fields.

The association performs its work through its officers and Administrative committees on Finance, Missions, and Athletics, Social life, and public speaking.

Meetings are held.......

THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE MM DIVINITY SCHOOL-

Organized in 1893. This Society was merged with the Divinity Students Association, when the latter was organized, and is now represented by the Administrative Committee on Missions of that body.
given. A circulating picture library is in successful operation, Sunday concerts are given, and there have been organized a Children's chorus, an Adult chorus, and a Mandolin Orchestra club.

The Settlement has thus identified itself with the life and needs of the community in which it is placed, and every helpful activity is encouraged. A Sunday School service is held, the teachers coming largely through the Young Women's Christian Association of the University.

THE UNIVERSITY SETTLEMENT LEAGUE:

Organized October, 1895.

Its membership consists of members of the University Faculties and members of their families, advanced students of the University, and the members of the Quadrangle Club.

Its objects are to stimulate interest in the university Settlement, to give substantial support to the university Settlement, to study and discuss social movements and to afford an object of mutual interest to the women of the Faculty.

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Organized November 26, 1892. Its purpose is the closer association of young men for Christian work. Its work is social and religious. Many of its members engage in Sunday school work and through a Committee has been deeply interested in the university Settlement work. Regular meetings are held for worship, and occasional receptions are given.
THE FREE RELIGIOUS ASSOCIATION OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO—

Meetings were held monthly in Cobb Hall.

THE DISCIPLES’ DIVINITY HOUSE.
Organized in 1894. A dean directs the work of the students and consults with them.
The membership consists of members of the Disciple's Divinity house, especially those intending to enter the Christian Ministry. Its purpose is mutual help, social life and the planning of permanent headquarters, and arranging of courses of study especially in the history and polity of the Disciples' denomination. The Club owns land adjoining the University and is at present planning the erection of a Hall as its permanent headquarters, $50,000 having been donated for this purpose.
THE CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN HOUSE

Organized....

A dean directs the work of the students and consults with them as to studies and location.

The membership consists of members of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Its object is the closer association of such students for mutual help. The House is planning a permanent building as its headquarters. Special instruction in subjects connected with the denominational history and polity is offered in the University.

The Cumberland Presbyterian Club, org. Jan., 1895, for social and educational purposes.

THE OXFORD CLUB organized April, 1894.

An organization of Methodists of the University for the association of members of that denomination in a social way. An annual dinner is held, and occasional receptions are given.

Objects: 1) To promote social intercourse among its members,
2) To introduce to Union audiences prominent Methodist speakers,
3) To cooperate with the Christian Union in stimulating the genuine religious life in the University.
The Undergraduate Divinity Club—
Organized July, 1895 with 20 members.
Membership, undergraduate men intending to enter the ministry
Purpose, mutual aid and stimulus in the Christian work and training.
Preamble

The Commission appointed by President Judson to consider the organization of the student body presents the accompanying plan. It is to be understood that this plan concerns the control of student affairs by the members of the student body, and has no reference to the administrative procedure of the Faculties in their relations to the students.

Organization of Classes

The entire undergraduate student body shall be divided into four classes, to be known respectively as Upper and Lower Seniors, Upper and Lower Juniors. A student to be classified as a member of the Upper Senior Class shall have at least twenty-four majors toward graduation at the beginning of the Autumn Quarter; to be classified as a Lower Senior, fifteen to twenty-three and one-half majors, inclusive; to be classified as an Upper Junior, six to fourteen and one-half majors, inclusive; to be classified as a Lower Junior, less than six majors.

All questions of classification shall be in the hands of the Student Council to be hereinafter described. A list of all undergraduates in residence in the Autumn Quarter, together with the number of majors to the credit of each, shall be furnished to the Council by the Recorder of the University as soon after the opening of the Autumn Quarter as possible. As soon thereafter as practicable, on a certain day, to be known as Classification Day, this Council shall issue a statement giving the classification of each undergraduate. This classification shall be permanent for one Preparatory

The Commission, supported by President Attorney-General, the Secretary of the Student Body, President of the Student Body, the Secretary of the Student Body, and the President of the Student Body, and has no reference to the administrative procedures of the University in their relation to the Students.

Organization of Classes

The entire membership of the Student Body shall be divided into two classes, known as Upper and Lower. A student in the Upper Class shall have the following qualifications to be elected for the position of Upper Class President: a member of the Upper Class, good standing and at least twenty-five years of age, a member of the Senior Class, and at least twenty-five years of age. A student in the Lower Class shall have the following qualifications: to be elected for the position of Lower Class President: a member of the Senior Class, and at least twenty-five years of age. All degrees of classification shall be in the hands of the Student Council appointed for the purpose of classification.

The Student Council shall be responsible for the maintenance of the University Charter, together with the reappointment in the absence of each student to the proper of each student to the proper. As soon as the opening of the University Charter as provided, a certain day to be known as Classification Day, the Council shall issue a statement giving the classification of each student. This classification shall be a statement giving the classification of each student.
year. However, students may petition the Council at the time of the annual classification to be classified in a class other than the one in which their majors entitle them to be classified. The Council shall use its own discretion in such cases, it being understood that the term of residence as well as majors of credit may be taken into consideration. Any student not in residence at the time of the annual classification who shall take up residence during that collegiate year may be classified by petitioning the Student Council.

Student Council

The membership of the Council shall be made up as follows:

The Lower Senior class shall be entitled to elect four members of the class as its representatives on the Council to serve until the June Convocation of the following year. (Elections to the Council occur in February of each year. See below.)

The Upper Junior class shall be entitled to elect three members of the class as its representatives on the Council to serve for a term of one year.

The Lower Junior class shall also be entitled to elect three members of the class as its representatives on the Council to serve for a term of one year.

At the first election, the Upper Senior class shall be entitled to elect four members of the class as its representatives on the Council to serve until the June Convocation of that collegiate year.

The members of the Council from the Upper and Lower Senior classes shall be known as the Senior Councilors, and those from the Upper and Lower Junior classes, as the Junior Councilors.
The membership of the Council shall be made up as follows:

The lower junior class shall be entitled to elect four members of the class as its representatives on the Council to serve for one year. The upper junior class shall be entitled to elect three members of the class as its representatives on the Council to serve for a term of one year. The lower senior class shall be entitled to elect three members of the class as its representatives on the Council to serve for a term of one year.

At the first election, the upper senior class shall be entitled to elect four members of the class as its representatives on the Council to serve for a term of one year. The members of the Council from the upper and lower senior classes shall be known as the Senior Committee, and those from the upper and lower junior classes as the Junior Committee.
Within one week after the election of the Council it shall meet to elect a president and secretary who shall hold office for one year or until their successors are elected.

Vacancies in the Council shall be filled by the Council from the class in whose representation the vacancy occurs. The graduation of the four Upper Seniors shall not be considered as creating vacancies. It is understood that at any time the Senior Councilors and the Junior Councilors may meet separately to conduct such business as concerns primarily the Senior or the Junior Colleges, respectively.

Class Officers and Meetings

Each class shall have a president, a vice president, a secretary, and a treasurer, who shall be nominated and elected in accordance with regulations promulgated by the Council.

Meetings of each of the four classes shall be called by the Council within one week after Classification Day for the purpose of nominating class officers and discussing class organization. These class meetings shall be presided over either by a member of the Council or by some member of the student body delegated by the Council for this purpose. Nominations in addition to those made at the class meeting may be made by petitions signed by not less than six members of the class, to be presented to the Council within three days after the class meeting. Elections shall occur within ten days after the class meetings, the date and method of election to be determined by the Council.

Meetings of each of the four classes shall be called by Within one week after the election of the Council to office one year or until their successors are elected.

Vacancies in the Council shall be filled by the Council from the names in whose favor representations of the vacancy occurred.

The resignation of the President and the Secretary shall not be construed as creating a vacancy. If in the President's judgment at any time the Senate concludes that the Junior Council may meet separately to consider such business as concerns primarily the Senate or the Junior Council, the President may call the Council.

General Officers and Meetings

Each class shall have a president, a vice president, a secretary, and a treasurer, who shall be nominated and elected in conformance with regulations promulgated by the Council.

Meetings of each of the four classes shall be called by the President within one week after classification day for the purpose of organizing class officers and discussing class organizations.

These class meetings shall be presided over either by a member of the Council or by some member of the Senate body delegated by the Council. No final decision in matter of the group may be made at these meetings except in matters to the group. However, if the Senate considers a matter of the group, the vote of the group shall be taken at the group meeting, and the result shall be reported to the Council, which shall determine the action of the Council.

Meetings of each of the four classes shall be called by the President of the Council.
the council during the first week in February for the purpose of nominating new members of the Council. Further nominations in any class may be made by a petition signed by not less than six members of that class and filed with the Council not later than three days after the meeting for nominations already provided. Notification of meetings for nominations shall be made by the Student Council through the Daily Maroon and on the Bulletin Boards at least one week previous to the meetings at which such nominations are to be made. The list of those eligible to vote for members of the Council shall be posted at the time the notice of the meeting for nominations is made. The election of the Councilors shall take place within ten days after the nominating meetings, at a date to be designated by the Council at the time when the meetings for nominations are announced.

Functions of the Council and Class Officers

In addition to the duties heretofore performed by the members of the Student Councils, to wit: (1) serving as a means of communication between the student body and the Faculties; (2) exercising general supervision over the conduct of student affairs; (3) assuming responsibility for the conduct of the finals each quarter and the exercises on certain public holidays; (4) being present officially for special duty at the convocations and other public occasions where the student body is officially represented, the Council will have the following duties among others: supervision of elections of class officers and Councilors with authority to determine the constitution of a quorum for class business; the period of time necessary for notification of class meetings at which official business may be transacted; the calling of class meetings, either of separate classes or of the entire student body,
The Council convenes the third week in February for the purpose of nominating new members of the Council. Further nominations may be made by petition, which must be signed by at least three members of the Council. A petition must be filed with the Council not later than three days after the meeting for nominations unless a special meeting of the Student Council is called.

The daily meeting will consist of the outgoing Student Council and the incoming Student Council. The outgoing Student Council must be present to vote on the nominations made by the incoming Student Council. The incoming Student Council will then present their nominations to the outgoing Student Council for approval.
