Monday evening

My dear President Harper,

The surprising news that you have accomplished for me the object of my desire has just reached me. Pray accept my gratitude, and with my gratitude my regard and affection and my earnest hope for your complete recovery. A certain shipment has held me back from saying these things before, but I want you to know how profoundly I appreciate, not only your kindness to me, but the great qualities which you have shown in the conduct of the University.

With all devotion I am

Yours

F. B. Tarbell

My dear President Harper,

May I beg that Mr. Henry Gale be informed as soon as possible what his salary is to be next year? It is important to his plans that he should know the fact at once.

I am prepared to do whatever the Trustees of the University may desire in regard to the time of paying the sum which I have promised.

Very truly yours

Feb. 26, 1902

President W. R. Harper,

Dear Sir,

Understanding that Dr. Henry G. Gale is to be promoted to an instructor-ship in Physics, the promotion to take effect on July 1, 1902, I desire to offer to the University the sum of two hundred dollars, to be used to increase his salary from $1200⁰⁰ to $1400⁰⁰ during the year beginning July 1, 1902.
Hoping that this offer will be accepted and that the matter may remain a secret

I remain

Very truly yours
